

TO LET RAILROADS PAY STATE TAXES

Proposed Amendment Up for Consideration in Washington.

LIKE WISCONSIN SCHEME

School Districts Would Lose Great Source of Revenue—Large Cities Would Be Gainer by New System If Adopted.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 31.—(Special.)—Most of the good country schoolhouses in Washington in the past have been built by the railroads, but this will be changed if the voters of this state next November adopt a proposed constitutional amendment.

The amendment is favored by the State Tax Commission, which body induced the last Legislature to submit it to a vote of the people at the forthcoming general election.

The constitution requires that all property in the state be taxed in the same general manner. Generally the purpose of the amendment is to allow a special form of taxation for railroads and public service corporations and it is the opinion of the commission that it carries to the purpose of the amendment.

sonal property of $1,027,378, making a total assessed valuation of $14,570,346. The personal property valuation is about $500,000 less than last year, owing to the fact that under the new law the Assessor is not allowed to assess on railroad, electric lines, telephone, telegraph systems in the county.

BAILEY WILL KEEP OFFICE

Recount in Washington County Shows He Leads by 53 Votes.

HILLSBORO, Or., July 31.—(Special.)—Judge T. A. McBride this afternoon concluded the clerkship contest, the recount showing that J. W. Bailey, declared elected at the June election, had a majority of 53 over his opponent, E. L. McCormick, Bailey's majority, as returned by the election boards, was but 14. He gained in nearly every precinct, not only by actual count, but by defective ballots cast for McCormick.

The recount of wet and dry for South Hillsboro, showed, upon recapitulation that the precinct actually voted wet by a majority of two votes. The court count gave seven more on non-defective ballots against prohibition, and five ballots, plainly voted wet, were declared invalid by the judge because of distinguishing marks. This would have made the vote a tie upon actual count, but the two dry votes of Bridges and Francis, of Cornelius precinct who took the stand and swore they voted prohibition, being thrown out, gave a majority of two against prohibition.

LACK MEN TO FIGHT FIRE

FOREST RANGER CALLS IN VAIN FOR VOLUNTEERS.

Flames Eating Up Dead Timber in Southeastern Marion County.

Mill Timber in Danger.

ALBANY, Or., July 31.—(Special.)—Because of lack of men, the Government forest rangers are almost powerless to fight the big forest fires now burning in the National forest reserves in southeastern Marion County, 15 miles northeast of Detroit. A ranger came out to Detroit last night to secure more men to help fight the flames, but his efforts were unsuccessful. He finally threatened to invoke Government authority to force men to go to the rescue of the reserve, but no steps have yet been taken in that direction.

The reports which have reached Detroit say that very little damage has thus far resulted to good timber. The fires have been confined principally to areas which have been swept by previous fires, which have killed the trees, but left them standing. Forest fires in green timber generally run through rapidly and leave big trees standing, but the present fires in dead timber are consuming the old trunks and sweeping the ground almost clean.

Though the fires have not thus far invaded green timber, there are some large bodies of live timber which are in imminent danger. Unless the rangers secure more help big damage may result before the fires are extinguished.

MEAD'S NAME SIXTH ON LIST

Governor Files Declaration of Candidacy at Olympia.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 31.—(Special.)—Declaration of candidacy for the Republican nomination for Governor was filed today by Governor Albert E. Mead. The Governor's name is on the list of candidates, along with Louis Struober, W. M. Ridpath, of Spokane; John D. Atkinson, of Wenatchee; Joseph W. Robinson, of Olympia; Henry McBride, of Seattle, and a few others. Mead was elected in 1905, but has not been re-elected.

The change in taxation will, of course, relieve the immensely valuable railway properties at Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane and elsewhere of city taxes, and force other city taxpayers to make up the loss—which may or may not be the same as the amount such other city taxpayers save by not having to pay state taxes.

In effect where today the cities, road and school districts along the line of the railway possess the advantage of taxing railway property for special purposes, under the proposed amendment and laws, the benefit of the taxation of railways will reach every city, every road district and every school district, no matter how remote from railway lines they may be.

Present estimates show that the railroads today, in the aggregate of all kinds of taxes, state, city, road, school, etc., pay annually more than the entire state tax. With the proposed laws the Tax Commission claims the railroads will pay even more; that the state would have vast sums for all possible state improvements, improvements which the growth of the commonwealth demands, but which otherwise would mean greatly enhanced taxation on property which, especially in the larger cities, is now staggering under a crushing burden due to a great extent to special improvement assessments added to the ordinary high taxes for general municipal purposes.

MINERS CAUSE RIOT

Ill-Fed Miners Order Employer to Leave Camp.

SENT TO JAIL FOR THIS

Nine Men Held Under $500 Bail at Chehalis on Charge of Inciting Riot at Mines of Wilson Coal Company.

CHEHALIS, Wash., July 31.—(Special.)—George Stronbridge, William Iselline, Joseph Barker, Milton Miller, Al Hobbenech, Joseph Stockman, Ed Swanson, Herbert Johnson and N. Mackenzie were lodged in the Lewis County Jail this evening, charged with inciting a riot. The trouble arose over the quality of the food which Parsons was serving to the men employed at the mines of the Wilson Coal Company. One other man is named in the warrant, Parsons, but he happened to be away from the camp hunting, and is expected to come in tomorrow and surrender.

Parsons claims that the men gave him six hours in which to leave camp, and later that this was cut down to one hour. It is stated that when the first notice was served it was given by a spokesman, but that the one-hour notice was given by a crowd.

The men take their arrest good-naturedly, and feel that whatever action they may have taken was fully justified in the light of the fact that, after serving state meat to them, Parsons would stand and leer at them when they refused to eat it. As a result of the poor fare several of the men have been camping out and providing their own food.

County Attorney Harmon has filed an information against the men, and Judge Rice has fixed the bail of each at $500.

WHITES BUYING FINE LAND

Fast Acquiring Title to Allotments on Umatilla Reservation.

PENDLETON, Or., July 31.—(Special.)—More than 100 allottees on the Umatilla Reservation have been given final patent to their land and in turn have disposed of it to white men during the past eight or ten months. The allottees, as stated today by Agent McPartridge, at this rate it will only be a few years until practically all of the most desirable land on the reservation will have been acquired into the hands of the whites.

In the regular course of events it would be nine years yet before title or final patent would issue to the allottees, as it is only after they have secured patent that the Indians are permitted to sell or make any agreement to sell.

Special provision has been made, however, that in instances where the Indians are educated and show an ability to handle their own affairs, patent shall issue to the allottee upon the recommendation of the agent.

Those whom patents have been issued during the past ten months, consist of the most part of mixed breeds, as this class of Indians comprise a large percentage of the allottees. In nearly every instance the land has been sold very quickly as the whites watch the notices and are ready with their bids as soon as the land is for sale. In a few instances, however, the Indians have refused to sell, but have made leases for long terms of years. These are exceptions, however.

The allotments purchased recently by whites men vary in size from 40 to 160 acres.

ENCOURAGE ELECTRIC ROAD

People of Tillamook Anxious for Rail Transportation.

TILLAMOOK, Or., July 31.—(Special.)—An effort is now being made by the Astoria, Seaside & Tillamook Electric Company, of Astoria, to get the people of this county interested in that project. A proposition was received today from that company addressed to Mayor S. S. Johnson, of this city, in which it asks the co-operation of the people of this county in obtaining rights of way, which the company agrees to pay for, providing the citizens will get to work and obtain them.

People in Tillamook County are about disgusted with the delay of work on the Pacific Railway & Navigation railroad, with very little prospect of work starting up this year, for in about two months the wet season will have set in, and then railroad building is slow and expensive.

On account of the delay, there appears to be a strong sentiment in favor of the electric roads headed for Tillamook, consequently the people will be found very friendly to them when they are ready to build into this county.

TAKEN FROM LIVING TOMB

Twenty Miners Rescued After All Hope is Lost.

Three Men Still Missing in Accident on Coal Creek in Crow's Nest Pass.

FERNIE, B. C., July 31.—A "bump" occurred in No. 2 mine, Coal Creek, this morning about 8 o'clock, and as a result 23 miners were entombed. All means of escape appeared to be cut off, and grave fears were entertained for their getting out alive, as the mine filled with gas and the work of rescue was very slow on this account.

A large number of rescuers went to work trying to get fresh air to them, but some 60 or 70 yards of rock and coal had to be dug through before the men could be reached. Special trains with officials and doctors aboard were rushed from Fernie to the scene of the disaster.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon, when all hope had been given up, 20 of the miners were rescued. Three men were still missing.

ALBANY HAS $20,000 FIRE

IRON FOUNDRY DESTROYED IN VALLEY TOWN.

Company Gives Notice It Will Rebuild at Once—Volunteer Fireman Injured.

ALBANY, Or., July 31.—(Special.)—The main building of the Albany Iron Works, the largest foundry in Oregon outside of Portland, was destroyed by fire tonight. The loss is placed at $20,000, with $50,000 insurance on the whole plant. As part of this insurance is on the building saved, the net loss is considerably over $13,000. The flames completely destroyed the large foundry building, the pattern-making shop and the blacksmith shop. Only the shell of the big machine shop stands and the office was also gutted. The only brick building of the plant, which was used as a warehouse, was saved. This contained practically all of the patterns, which are valued at $10,000, and the saving of it prevents a far greater loss.

Before the flames were extinguished officers of the company announced that
