JUDGE GAYNOR DECIDES

Ordinary Bets Between Individuals Legal, but Betting With All Comers or Recording Such Bets Is Declared Crime.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—The making of an ordinary bet as distinguished from the practice of betting with all comers was declared by Judge Gaynor of the Supreme Court today to be not a crime. The case was that against George Sterling, who was accused of violating the new anti-gambling laws by betting a basket of golf-balls on the result of a golf game in Nassau County. Long Island. Russian Cossacks who were scouring the frontier noticed the disappearance of the Japanese flag from over the encampment. They thereupon visited the place and found traces of a fierce struggle and the dead bodies of the Japanese. The local population was questioned, but professed entire ignorance of the occurrence. The Korean insurgents are daily becoming
