ERICKSON ASKS LICENSE. Clackamas Tavern Petition Makes

Distinction Between Liquors. OREGON CITY, Or., Aug. 6 - (Special.) No casualties were reported.

The residents of Abernethy precinct, which embraces the towns of Gladstone and Parkplace, are very much wrought up over the petition of August Erickson for a license to sell beer at the Clackamas Tavern. Erickson formerly operated a stock farm there, but after disposing of his concert hall in the North End of Portland, he established a resort, and runs his big automobile between Oregon City and the tavern, and also takes his patrons to and from the cars that run out from Portland.

Last year he filed notice of his intention to ask for a liquor license, but the storm of indignation was so great that the petition was never presented to the County Court. This time he states that his only desire is to sell beer, and not strong drinks like whisky. The petition of Erickson has been signed by a large number of people, but a remonstrance will no doubt be presented to the court at the September term.
