

BRYAN REPLIES TO VAN CLEAVE

Defends Labor Planks in Democratic National Platform.

UNIONS AND TRUSTS DIFFER

Should Not Be Classed Together. No Reflection on Courts in Contempt Plank, Nor Class Feeling on Injunctions.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 6.—W. J. Bryan today issued a statement in which he declared that the planks of the National Association of Manufacturers and signed by James W. Van Cleave, Mr. Bryan declares that the planks of the Democratic platform raise two questions: First—Is there anything in the labor plank of the Democratic platform to which business men as a class are entitled? Second—Is the labor question so important to business men as to justify them in ignoring all other issues? Mr. Bryan declares that the provision in the Democratic platform for the creation of a labor department with a cabinet officer at its head, cannot possibly offend business men. He then says:

Unions and Trusts Different. The platform draws a distinction between association of wage-earners organized for the purpose of maintaining wages and the improvement of labor conditions and industrial corporations which act in restraint of trade. The difference between a labor organization and a trust is so apparent that no disinterested person will deny that they should be treated separately. To class the two kinds of organizations together and deal with them under one law is bound to do injustice to one or the other. Surely the business men can have no vital concern in including the labor organizations in the anti-trust laws.

Mr. Bryan then takes up the plank providing for trial by jury in cases of contempt. He insists that this cannot raise a question of vital concern to business men, because every man has a right to a jury trial. He then says:

No Attack on Courts.

An attempt will be made to raise a false issue in regard to the courts and the jury. It is an assault upon the integrity of the courts. Those who make this argument might as well insist on the abolition of the jury in all cases. For the jury system itself is just as much a reflection on the bench as is this demand for trial by jury in these particular cases.

But there is another labor plank that Mr. Van Cleave probably has indicated. This is the plank that declares that parties to all judicial proceedings should be treated with rigid impartiality and that an injunction should not be issued if no industrial dispute was involved. Do the business men insist upon impartiality in judicial proceedings? Do they insist that the mere fact that there is an industrial dispute should justify an attempt to interfere with the issue of an injunction? Three other conditions justify an injunction: First, that the issue is one of public interest; second, that the issue is one of public interest; and third, that the issue is one of public interest. Mr. Van Cleave asserts that this plank assumes "a class basis" and is for "class favors." But this is not true. It is a declaration that the writ of injunction should not be issued for the purpose of creating a class or favoring a class. The laboring men resent an attempt to discriminate against them in favor of any other class.

Mr. Bryan in conclusion declares that Mr. Van Cleave does the business man an injustice in assuming that his walking hours are filled with fears of the wage-earner and that his night's rest is broken by imaginary disputes with those who toil.

MURPHY SAYS NO TROUBLE

Says of Course Bryan Will Speak in New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Charles F. Murphy denounced today as untrue the report that William J. Bryan was disappointed at a refusal of the New York leader to ask him to speak here. "That report," Mr. Murphy said, "is simply the work of some trouble maker. There is absolutely no truth in it. Of course, Mr. Bryan will be expected to speak here when we get our campaign plans completed and he certainly will speak in this state at several places."

ORGANIZE DEMOCRATIC CLUBS

Bryan Decides on Systematic Work. Sanguine "Bob" Taylor.

FAIRVIEW, Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 6.—As the result of a visit to William J. Bryan today of Senator "Bob" Taylor of Tennessee, who is here to deliver a Chautauqua lecture, the National Committee of the Democratic party will soon enter upon a most elaborate plan for securing the sentiment of the country toward its standard-bearer. This plan contemplates the formation of a National Democratic Club, with state and county clubs as subsidiaries, whose duty it will be to report to the central organization data favorable to the National ticket. It is proposed also that these clubs shall poll the voters of the United States and in every section where the feeling is adverse to the Democratic candidates literature and speakers are to be sent. The proposition regarding the National club promptly appealed to Mr. Bryan, who said that he would not wait for his visit to Chicago, in a couple of weeks, where he is to confer with prominent men of the party, but would at once take steps to get the National club under way. Mr. Taylor was accompanied to Fairview by Mayor W. Brown, of Lincoln, one of Mr. Bryan's staunchest friends and advisers. "I have been in Kansas, Missouri and Indiana," said Mr. Taylor. "To my mind, Bryan has a better chance for election than Cleveland did in 1892. I found many Republicans in Kansas who told me they would vote for Bryan. And as for Indiana, the prospects for Democratic success are good." He predicted that Tennessee would go Democratic by 30,000.

Aside from this, the most important announcement from Fairview today was the decision of Mr. Bryan to make an extended speech on the tariff question at Des Moines, Iowa, October 21, and to spend the three following days in Chicago in consultation with Chairman Mack and other party leaders, over the plan of campaign. When asked whether he had noticed that many of the Republican candidates in Nebraska were coming out in favor of the proposition for the guaranty of bank deposits, Mr. Bryan replied that he had been told so. "It is one of the straw that show the way the wind is blowing," he said. Mr. Bryan will discuss the subject fully in his forthcoming Topeka speech. Among the other visitors to Fairview today was Alexander Corkey, of Ireland, who called to pay his respects. He left the Bryan home with a souvenir from the Democratic nominee, in the shape of a small stone from the beach of Galilee, picked up by Mr. Bryan on his trip around the world. Another caller was Dr. A. E. Stewart, of Cedar Bluffs, Neb., who was a member of the convention which nominated Mr. Bryan for his first term in Congress. The two men had not met in several years. Dr. Stewart brought encouraging reports regarding the political situation in his section.

MACK NAMES COMMITTEES Miller to Aid in Finding Money and Oratory for Bryan.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 6.—Chairman Norman E. Mack, of the Democratic National committee, announced tonight before his departure for Chicago the appointment of a finance committee for the Democratic campaign with Moses C. Wellmore, of St. Louis, as chairman and John E. Osborne, of Wyoming, as vice-chairman, and a speaker's committee with John H. Atwood, of Kansas, as chairman and Champ Clark, of Missouri, as vice-chairman. The finance committee is made up of 29 members and the speaker's committee of 27.

Announcements were also made by Mr. Mack that Senator Charles A. Culberson, of Texas, had been appointed to succeed David R. Francis, of Missouri, as chairman of the advisory committee. In making this change Mr. Mack said: "Ex-Governor Francis' acceptance of a place on the committee was assured. I did not anticipate he intended to make a lengthy stay abroad. He writes that he will be absent so much during the campaign that he ought not to be chairman, but would be pleased to be a member of the committee. Senator Culberson was asked to accept the chairmanship and has accepted."

William J. Conners, chairman of the Democratic state committee, today called the state committee to meet in New York City on August 14 to name the time and place of the Democratic state convention. Included in the finance committee appointed today by Mr. Mack are: W. A. Clark, Montana; Francis G. Newlands, Nevada; George Turner, Washington, and M. A. Miller, Oregon. On the speaker's committee are: W. H. Dunphy, Washington; S. P. Dannelly, Idaho; J. B. Bruce Cramer, Montana; John Sunderland, Nevada, and M. A. Miller, Oregon. The chairman of the two committees will possibly make their headquarters in Chicago. Mr. Mack left here for Chicago at 8:20 o'clock tonight. The selection of ex-Senator James Smith, of New Jersey, as vice-chairman of the National committee, and head of the subcommittee which will control the campaign in the Eastern states, is being urged by several National committees, and it is believed here that Mr. Smith will be named for the place.

IDENTIFIED BY MOTHER

BODY FOUND IN CHICAGO LAKE IS THAT OF SYRIAN BOY.

Police Arrest Suspect, Who Has Bloody Saws and Ax in Room.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—After the identification of the mutilated boy's body found in Mud Lake and adjacent ponds and waterways as that of Tuffe Shishin, a Syrian, the police tonight arrested John Hasson on suspicion of his being the murderer of the boy. Hasson was arrested at 1925 Mather street, and in his room the police found a blood-stained garment, and several blood-stained saws and an ax. The body shows every indication of having been dismembered with such instruments. Mrs. Minnie Shishin, today identified part of the clothing as that of her son, aged 15 years. The identification of the shirt was made at the outlying police station near where the mutilated portions of the body were found. The woman faintly after identifying the garments. When she had sufficiently recovered, the grief-stricken mother started for the morgue to view the body, where the identification was made positive when Mrs. Shishin had inspected it.

EXPLORERS DIE IN NORTH

cross the eternal ice cap of Greenland in three days, by means of snow shoes, dog-sleds and an automobile. He was supposed to set out about March 1908, accompanied by one of his staff and two Greenlanders belonging to the crew. Other members of the expedition and 28 fully loaded sleds were to go with him the first third of the journey. After leaving his companions Erikson and the three men he planned to take with him were to proceed to the unknown ice dome of the interior, which rises at its highest point to 10,000 feet above sea level. This region is completely devoid of vegetation or animal life, and here is said to be found one of the cold points of the Northern Hemisphere. It is doubtful if man could live there in the coldest season. Under the conditions, the leader chose the months of March, April and May for his venture. He hoped to compass this venturesome journey in about two months and a half, coming out on the west coast. It was probably on this trip that the explorer met his death.

Founder of Alaska Commercial.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—Captain Gustav Niebaum, who died at his home in this city yesterday, was the last of the 14 founders of the Alaska Commercial Company, which acquired the Russian-American Company's interests at the time Russia ceded Alaska to the United States, and was president of the Alaska Commercial Company at the time of his death. He was a native of Finland and became a citizen of the United States when Alaska became American territory. He came to San Francisco in 1854 and has resided in this city since.

George Cook, Landscape Artist.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 6.—George Cook, the well-known landscape architect, associated with Samuel B. Parsons, of New York, died today at the "Willows," a summer resort in the mountains near Alpine. Mr. Cook was chief engineer for San Diego City and County Boulevard Commission, and was driving through the country when an accident to the harness resulted in dropping the wagon pole and frightening the horses. He was thrown out of the wagon and fell down over a bluff 50 feet high, breaking five ribs and dislocating a shoulder.

Edward B. Dorsey, St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 6.—Edward B. Dorsey, assistant purchasing agent for the Northern Pacific Railway, died today of an operation for appendicitis. Special sale fine shoes at Rosenthal's.

HONDURAS WILL NOT RESCIND ACT

Stands Pat Regarding Cancellation of Consuls' Exequaturs.

SAYS THEY HELPED REBELS

Justifies Action and Declares Revocation of Decree Would Injure Dignity—Painful Surprise to State Department.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Honduras has declined to comply with the wishes of the United States Government by revoking the exequaturs of American Consuls Drew Leonard and Vice-Consul Virgil C. Reynolds, at Ceiba, on the ground that they had interfered in the internal politics of Honduras and that, with the Vice-Consul of France and Norway, they advocated the surrender of Ceiba to the revolutionaries.

San Francisco Portland Seattle

The decree of cancellation of the exequaturs has been published in the official gazette of Honduras, which in refusing to revoke it takes the view that such action would wound the sovereignty of the government and place it in bad position before the other Central American states.

Justifies Davila's Action.

The action of the Honduran government was communicated to the State Department through her Minister, Ugarte, in a formal note. Honduras sets out clearly in this communication the reasons which impelled her to decline the request of the United States for a suspension of the decree cancelling the Consuls' exequaturs and expresses regret that this step is necessary. Mr. Ugarte says his government acknowledges the evidences of sympathy which the United States has had for Honduras and the deference in which Honduras holds this Government. The hope is expressed that the American Government, inspired by the principles of justice and right which all ways have governed its rule of procedure, will follow that attitude in the present instance.

Surprise to United States.

The action of Honduras is a surprise to the State Department, as it was confidently hoped that President Davila would revoke the decree, as an act of courtesy if for no other reason, so that the Consular officers would be free to continue in the discharge of their duties, leaving the question of charges affecting them a subject for future consideration, when all the evidence had been fully considered by both governments. Mr. Ugarte did not present the note in person.

DETROIT GIRL IS MISSING

Fact Connected With Mysterious Murder in New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—That the charred body of a young woman found on a refuse dump in Green Point a week ago may be that of Annie Heivel, a Detroit stenographer, who came here seeking work, is the latest police theory. Her parents in Detroit have never heard from Miss Heivel since she reached this city a fortnight ago, and the descriptions and photographs of the pieces of clothing and the body lead them to believe that it may be that of their daughter. It is expected

DISAPPEARS IN NEW YORK

Miss Heivel Started From Detroit For England.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 6.—Miss Annie Heivel, who is missing, and who it is thought by her relatives here may possibly be the victim of the Green Point murder, left this city July 27 to take a steamer for her home in Southampton, England. Her relatives here have heard nothing from her since. The young woman left her home in Southampton July 4 with her brother-in-law, F. H. Gooding, and came to New York to Southampton, which leads her to believe that she intended meeting some person in New York.

Southern Promoter Suicide.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Aug. 6.—Captain D. G. Parso, a prominent citizen here, noted developer, industrial writer and promoter of railway connections in New York, Pittsburgh and other centers, committed suicide here today by shooting. No cause is given for the deed.
