IMPORT FINE COACH PAIR

WESSINGER WILL BRING TEAM FROM GERMANY.

Fancy Carriage Horses Will Be Added to Other Entries for

Show in October.

In preparation for the October horse show, Paul Wessinger contemplates the importation of a pair of German coach horses. Mr. Wessigner is one of Port-land's foremost promoters of thorough-bred and fancy racing and driving horses. and his stock is always of the best breeding obtainable. In sending abroad for a carriage pair he will set a new pace for local fanciers. As the time draws near for the Autumn exhibition, much atten-tion is being paid to securing fancy ex-hibition stock, and Mr. Wessigner's proposed purchase is being received with general approbation. Hal B., Mr. Wessigner's fine pacer with a track record of 2:04%, and a full brother of the famous pacing mare Fanny Dil-lard, will be one of the chief drawing gards of his several entries. This handgome stallion is a descendant of the great Hal family of pacers. Oregon Patch, a beautiful black, 4 years old, son of Joe Patchen, will also be shown single. As a driving patr he will enter his wellknown and much-admired Alta Cora and Rnown and much-admired Alfa Cora and Cora Patch, the latter a daughter of Alta Cora and Joe Patchen. In the 2-year-old class Mr. Wessigner will show Dick Hal, son of Hal B and Dictatress, and Fritz Hal, son of Bhima and Hal B. Several New Ideas for Reception to Smithson, Gilbert and Kelly Are Advanced by Committee in Charge.

The joint committee in charge of the arrangements for the entertainment of Forcest C. Smithson, Alfred C. Gilbert and Dan J. Kelly met at the convention hall of the Commercial Club last night and further discussed plans for the dem-onstration in honor of the Oregon men who were victorious at London.

Two hundred girls of Portland and Oregon are to be asked to participate in honoring the athletes by taking part in a parade held in their honor: According to the plan suggested by A. Berg, delegate to the committee from the Ad Men's Club those with will draw a vehicle in Club, these girls will draw a vehicle in which will be seated the three athletes. Mr. Berg's novel suggestion was accepted with considerable enthusiasm.

Reports from the various committees showed that the subscription lists tees showed that the subscription lists are meeting with generous response, and that the amount collected to date aggregates $1000. By the date of the next meeting of the committee it is expected to have $2500 raised. The committee of two, who are to meet the Oregon boys in New York, will then start East. The matter of selecting the delegates to go to New York was placed before the meeting, but, at the suggestion of A. H. Devers, treasurer placed before the meeting, but, at the suggestion of A. H.
