Two Saws and Long Knife Covered With Blood Discovered in Room Where Young Shashem Was Last Alive.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Sensational information was obtained by the police today in the murder case of Tufts Shashem, which the officers have learned is the correct name of the victim of the Mud Lake tragedy.

Lured to His Death. The two boys and young Shashem had been at the Union depot that Sunday morning when Nemmer's shoes, Nemmer, they declared, said that he had something at home with which footgear could be polished and the boys went with him to see if Tufts entered, while the others waited outside.

Nemmer is 40 years of age, unsavory in appearance and makes a living peddling notions. His room at 102 Mather street is a squalid one on the second floor of a dilapidated frame building.

Recalls Similar Case. In connection with the case the police have directed their attention again to the murder a year ago of Harry Kurpa, a 15-year-old boy, who lived in South Chicago, when Nemmer also lived there.

John Pazer, 14 years old, told Inspector Dorman that he had been enticed to Nemmer's room, but had escaped after a struggle.

Special armed men guard the Canadian Pacific local shops. A report that 60 new locomotives in the Angus shops were disabled by the men before they went out is denied by the company.

Canadian Pacific Mills Strikers' Places at Toronto.

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 7.—There is little cheer in the Canadian Pacific Railway strike situation today. All the superannuated Canadian Pacific employees of Toronto are notified to begin work at once, taking the places of the strikers.

There is no official confirmation of the rumor that the engineers, firemen, conductors and brakemen were likely to cooperate with the machinists and tie up the system by a sympathetic strike.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—F. V. Skinner, assistant traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company in this city, received a message from William Stitt, general passenger agent of that company at Montreal, saying:

FEAR CUT IN THEIR WAGES Railroad Employes Will Campaign for Higher Rates.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—While shippers' organizations in many parts of the United States are fighting the railroads tooth and nail in an effort to secure reductions in freight rates or to prevent the putting into effect of proposed increases, thousands of railway employes, fearing that their wages may be reduced unless the companies are persuaded to increase their revenues, are planning a vast campaign in the interests of their employes.

BIG TASK SET FOR NEWWORK BOSSES

Produce Gubernatorial Candidate Stronger Than Hughes, Order From Roosevelt.

MAKE GOOD OR EAT CROW

President Has No Personal Preference, but Informs Woodruff, Parsons & Company Strongest Man Must Be Nominated.

BY LLOYD F. LONERGAN. NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—(Special.)—Woodruff, Parsons, Barnes and all the other little Republican bosses of the state are working night and day in an effort to prove that Governor Hughes is devoid of strength.

They have been given a chance to "make good," but unless they can prove their claims to the satisfaction of President Roosevelt, one and all of them will be forced to eat crow when the convention meets, probably on September 14.

There is absolutely no feeling, either for or against Hughes. All that is demanded is the selection of the strongest gubernatorial candidate, one who will gain votes for Taft and Sherman.

Not So Easy as It Sounds. It sounds easy, doesn't it? But the little leaders do not think so.

Hearst to Draw From Both Sides. A number of machine men figure that Hearst has put Bryan out of the race in this state, but it is known that the President does not look at the matter in that light.

Stand of Roosevelt and Taft. Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft, it is understood, take the stand that Governor Hughes will have behind him a great moral issue, which the Republican party cannot afford to ignore.

HUGHES ALWAYS IN FIGHT. Out of this situation, it is now believed, grew the Governor's determination to stand again for the nomination.

ularly in regard to the reform insurance laws. There remains the direct primary nomination bill, and the ballot reform bill, in addition to proposed amendments to the utilities laws, putting telegraph and telephone companies under the Public Service Commission.

Popular Hostility a Myth. Friends of the Governor view with amusement the efforts to make a show of hostile sentiment among the people.

One editorial which has been read with interest appears in the New York Times, which, although classed as an Independent Democratic organ, is not for Bryan this year.

HITCHCOCK PROBABLY FOR HUGHES. Although National Chairman Hitchcock declares he is not interfering in the present contest, the impression prevails that he favors the renomination of Hughes.

It is said that in his travels through the West and Middle West, Mr. Hitchcock has found considerable Hughes sentiment—this, of course, since the National convention.

They will be told when they meet whether Hughes is to be renominated or turned down. Long practice has made it possible for him to cheer or sneer on a moment's notice.
