SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—(Special.)—The Seals took sweet revenge on the Beavers today, for Captain Mohler's squad assailed the McCredie horde in splendid style by capturing both the morning and afternoon games. In the morning affair across the bay, "Slivers" Henley had all the better of an argument with Bobby Groom and San Francisco scored five runs to Portland's one. Several of McCredie's players forgot to get out of bed in time to play the morning game, and this necessitated the switching around of the team and probably helped the Seals some.

The afternoon game was a pitcher's battle between the Texans, and on this occasion Sutor possessed the luck charm and got the better of the argument with his old rival, Garrett, by a three to one score.

Portland's lone run in this game came in the fourth inning. Danzig singled to center and stole second. Bassey walked and the two executed a double steal. La Longe tossed wildly to third and Danzig cantered home with the first run of the game.

San Francisco hooked two in the fifth. Curtis and Hildebrand were on the sacks with two out when Zeider laced a long hit to center scoring both runners. Phil Cooney gave the Seals their third and last run, for three errors by the little fellow in quick succession gave Beck an opportunity of circling the sacks. Beck was safe on Cooney's first error, and a wild throw by the little Portlander put him to second, and when Cooney threw La Longe's bounder away, Beck raced home.

Tacoma 1-3, Aberdeen 0-0.

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 9.—(Special.)—The Tigers tightened their grip on third place today by shutting out the Champions twice, winning the morning game 1 to 0 and the afternoon engagement 3 to 0. Five stolen bases off Fornier, two bases on balls off Califf and two hits gave Tacoma three runs in the first inning in the second game. From then on the Tigers could not score off Califf, while young Baker, with grand support, kept the Aberdeen runners away from the plate.

Ike Butler's pitching was the feature of the morning contest. From first to last he out-guessed the Aberdeen batters and had them everlastingly in a hole, compelling them to strike at hard third chances. Aberdeen got one clean hit off Butler and secured another because he was slow in covering first. Bresno was off color in the afternoon, but his three errors did not count against the team. His unassisted double play in the first retired the side when the bases were full, none out and Householder at bat. Scores:

Seattle 4, Spokane 2.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 9.—(Special.)—Umpire Red Ehret was nearly mobbed by a crowd of some 1500 wild-eyed fans at the close of today's game, which was won by Seattle by a score of 4 to 2. Ehret's decision on Rowan at the plate, the run which won for Seattle, displeased the crowd. Ehret was forced to take refuge on top of a fruitstand until the patrol wagon and policemen arrived. Harry Rush pitched magnificent ball after the second inning, with the score two runs against him. Rowan's home-run in the ninth scored two runs and his triple in the seventh brought Seattle's first run. Wright was wild.

Vancouver 4, Butte 1.

SEATTLE, Aug. 9.—A fumble by Cartwright after two were out, followed by two passes and a wild pitch by Harkness gave Vancouver the game. Flanagan's batting was the feature. The score:

MINOR GAMES.

Chehalis 13, Seattle 10.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Aug. 9.—(Special.)—Chehalis continued her winning streak at baseball today, scoring her twenty-first straight victory by defeating the Seattle Athletics in a swatfest by 13 to 10 score. Boyles, of Seattle, was touched up for 15 hits. Seattle got five hits off Quick and four off Burnett. Mclonough caught for Seattle and Ruff for Chehalis. Quick made a home run, the longest hit of the season on the local grounds, bringing in another runner as well as himself. There was an attendance of nearly 1000.

Vancouver Takes Another Game.

The Vancouver "Pioneers," of the Tri-City League, added another victory to the long string acquired recently by winning a hotly-contested game from the All-Stars on the Vaughn-street lot yesterday afternoon. The final score was 4 to 3, and the closeness of result caused the small crowd to remain interestedly until the last man was out. Chapin distinguished himself by tossing two men out at the plate from right field, and plays by Catchers King and Otto Moore helped to increase the interest by the fine playing of both teams. Howard and Hurlburt pitched for the All-Stars, while "Southpaw" Pender twirled for the Vancouvers.

FRIENDLY CONTEST AT TRAPS

Rose City and Multnomah Gun Clubs Try Conclusions.

Several members of the Rose City Gun Club availed themselves of the invitation of the Multnomah Rod and Gun Club yesterday and participated in a shoot on the latter's grounds. Some of the visiting gunners, despite the fact that they were unfamiliar with their new surroundings, succeeded in capturing places in several events, with some numbered among the high men of the day's work at the traps.

"Moose" Abrahams was the high-average man of the day, for he gained a percentage of .98 by breaking 48 clay birds in 50 shot at. Adolph Woelm won the class C trophy cup for the second time, and is now its permanent owner.

Next Sunday the Rose City Gun Club will act as hosts to the Multnomah Rod and Gun Club, when a splendid tournament will take place at the former club's traps near Lents, on the Estacada carline. Several handsome prizes have been offered for this shoot, and it is expected to prove the best event of the season among the local sportsmen.

The scores of yesterday's shoot are as follows:

	Shot at.	Broke.	P.C.
Abrahams	50	49	98
Howe	100	92	92

STURDY IRONWORKERS WIN

Clothiers Meet Defeat at Hands of Willamettes.

The Ben Sellings, a team of crack local players, had a decidedly bad time of it yesterday, for when they met the clever aggregation representing the Willamette Iron & Steel Works on the Vaughn-street lot, they were handed a lemon in the shape of an overwhelming defeat by the score of 16 to 1. The Ironworkers simply trod all over the clothiers, and walloped the ball at will. In addition to the heavy hitting of the victorious nine, handsome Joe Stutt and his usually reliable teammates behaved most miserably in the field, while their opponents put up a gilt-edged variety of ball, and won out easily.

Pitcher Oaks, of the Ironworkers, twirled an elegant game, for he fanned 11 of the Sellings, and did not issue a single pass. Berger, for the clothiers, was found to be an easy riddle for the Willamettes, and was batted out of the box in the fourth inning.

The Willamette Iron & Steel Works team has now played nine games and eight of these have been victories. They are anxious to get a game with the Union Meat Company nine or any other aggregation in Portland or vicinity.

VALLEY FAN SEES FRAME-UP

Thinks Los Angeles and Oakland Are Bilking Portland.

EUGENE, Or., Aug. 9.—(To the Sporting Editor.)—Just a line to apprise you of how the Coast League ballotossing series impresses an ardent fan at a distance.

It looks to me like a frame-up between Oakland and Los Angeles for the latter team to tuck away the League pennant for the current season. The manner in which Los Angeles generally puts a crimp in the Oakland tally sheet is a fact which the percentage column will disclose. Oakland must wantonly fall before the Angels' onslaught, else how could they (Oakland) come back so strong at the Beavers and in the majority of cases roll Portland down the percentage "bumps" with marked regularity?

Talk about the "Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary!" Why, those Athenians have Aunt Mary Oslerized in comparison. Now, this sort of programme is pulled off too frequently to be regarded as in the nature of coincidence. Perhaps you may be able to explain this all away and thus dispel the stress of disquieting thoughts which trouble my existence.

OTTO GILSTRAP.

Chit-Chat of Sporting World

BY W. J. PETRAIN.

According to the Savannah correspondent of an Eastern exchange, the Portland baseball club has arranged for the purchase of Pitchers August Hoff and Red Hixson, of the Savannah club of the South Atlantic League. Both players were recommended to McCredie by Johnson and Raftery, who were in that league last year. Hoff has been the standby of the Savannah club for two years, and Hixson is a youngster who displays signs of being a star slabster in time.

* * *

The loss of yesterday afternoon's game by Jesse Garrett was nothing short of hard luck, for the little fellow pitched a fine game, holding the Seals to four hits. Sutor, who has been sold to the Chicago Nationals, had the Portland sluggers faded, allowing but two hits.

* * *

In casting his optics over the Northwestern League talent, Walter McCredie would do well to let them settle upon Young Flannigan, of the Vancouver club. This youngster broke into that league last Fall, and was worse than Emil Frisk on fly balls, but is now rated as a better man than Van Buren or Clynes, the stars of last season.

* * *

The Portland team is scheduled to meet the league leaders this week, and with Pitcher Rose, of the Texas League, added to the staff, good news may be expected Portland, so far, has proven the only stumbling-block the Angels have encountered, for both San Francisco and Oakland lose with regularity to Berry's men.

FIND BEER IN DRY ALBANY

Bert Moore Accused of Violating Local Option Law.

ALBANY, Or., Aug. 9.—(Special.)—Bert Moore was arrested here Saturday afternoon, charged with selling liquor in violation of the local option law. The officers captured several barrels of bottled beer and other liquors. His case was set for trial Monday morning in the Justice Court here. A number of young men, mostly minors, have been subpenaed to testify in the case.

WANTED—EXPERIENCED SHOE SALESMEN

OFFICIALS IN DARK

Deny Knowledge of Conspiracy in Siletz Reservation.

CLAIMS NOT THROWN OPEN

Fact May Develop That Suspected Squatters Are Not Trespassers on Lands Entered, but Located on Unsurveyed Lands.

Officials of the Portland Land Office emphatically deny having the slightest knowledge of any conspiracy on the part of land speculators or others to defraud settlers in the Siletz Reservation of their homesteads. Register A. S. Dresser was out of the city yesterday, but Receiver G. W. Bibee declared that the first news he had received that squatters had appeared on the Siletz homesteads was contained in the published report in The Sunday Oregonian. Aside from refuting the charge that the officials of the local Land Office had assured any persons that certain claims in the Siletz Reservation were again open to entry, Receiver Bibee declined to discuss the subject last night.

Has Complicated History.

The history of the Siletz Reservation is a complicated one, and dates from July 25, 1895, when the land was thrown open to settlement. The reservation consisted of a strip of land about 14 by 20 miles, and included some of the most valuable timberlands on the Pacific Coast. The land is densely covered with fir, spruce, hemlock and cedar, many of the fir trees standing 350 feet high. Quarter-sections of land will cruise from 6,000,000 to 20,000,000 feet. The land was eagerly sought, and hundreds of filings were made under the homestead law. Owing to the distance of much of the land from railroad communication and other accommodations, many of the settlers resided on their claims only long enough to establish a legal residence under a strict interpretation of the statutes.

Final Proof Suspended.

This resulted in wholesale charges of lack of "good faith" on the part of the settlers by others who coveted the lands that had been filed on. Finally, on November 14, 1903, Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock issued a blanket order, suspending from final proof and the issuance of patents about 700 of these homesteads, alleging "non-residence" by the entrymen. In the ensuing five years not over 300 of these claims have passed to patent, leaving 400 other claims still pending before the department. Of these 400 claims, there have been filed contests against a majority of them during the period they have been held up. During the last few months, only a small number of these contests have been finally settled, and very seldom has a claim been again thrown open to entry through the inability of the settler to establish his claim to the land.

May Be Victimized.

It is evident, from this situation, that if people are being located on claims the possession of which has not been determined by the Interior Department they are being victimized. The rights of the original entrymen can in no way be affected by the pretended seizure of their lands, since their preference right will continue until their final proof is rejected by the local Land Office, and sustained by the Interior Department, or a contest is successfully waged against their claim before the same officials.

It may further develop that the suspected squatters have not trespassed on any of the original claims in the Siletz Reservation. There is a large tract of unsurveyed land in the vicinity of the suspended homesteads, and an investigation may show that the supposed land-grabbers have in reality filed on the unsurveyed land and not on the homesteads.
