NO REPORT MADE IN TWENTY YEARS

E. Quackenbush Is Ordered to Give Accounting of C. E. Calef Estate.

DAUGHTER BRINGS ACTION

Mrs. James McI. Wood Files Petition in County Court and Executor Is Called On to Render Final Report of Stewardship.

That Edward Quackenbush, executor of Charles E. Calef's estate, has made no report for the last 20 years of the manner in which he has disposed of $22,642.33 was the startling charge made yesterday in the County Court in a petition filed by Mrs. Almira Calef Wood, a daughter of Charles E. Calef. Mrs. Wood is the wife of James McI. Wood, of Portland. Judge Webster issued an order that Quackenbush make his final report on the estate within 30 days. He is required to render a detailed statement of all the funds received or expended, and to cite in each instance under what authority he acted, and to present vouchers covering the deals.

Charles E. Calef died at The Dalles, June 17, 1876, leaving a will dated at Portland, April 2, 1875. This was filed in the County Court July 4, 1876. It provides that Mary B. Crouch, a sister living at Napa, Cal., should be given $1000, with which she should improve the graves of their parents. She was also to receive all the relics which Calef had gathered together. Harriet A. Calef, the widow, and Almira and Allen Calef, daughter and son, were each to have a like share in the remainder of the estate, which was to be converted into cash. In case the widow should die before the provisions of the will were carried out, the estate was to be divided between the two children. The cash obtained from the estate, and belonging to the children, was to be invested in mortgages and stocks by the executors, and held until the son was 30 years old and the daughter 25. An inventory of the estate, taken by C. H. Lewis, S. G. Skidmore and Edward Failing, showed it to be worth $35,908.32. Of this amount $25,658.32 was personal property, and the balance real estate. A third interest in Hodge, Calef & Co. was valued at $23,013.69.

The will provided that the following executors be appointed, to act without giving bonds: Harriet A. Calef, the widow; Charles Hodge, M. S. Burrell and Edward Quackenbush. Charles Hodge resigned his place, and the other three were appointed by the Court.

Then followed various court orders, a semi-annual statement, and five other statements made at varying intervals. The first semi-annual account showed that after all claims were paid, and the retail drug store and real estate sold, there remained $30,013.53 in the executors' hands, for investment in mortgages. Between February 22, 1877, and November 5, of the same year, Mary B. Crouch was paid her legacy of $1000. W. B. Gilbert was appointed by the court to represent the two minor heirs. Then the widow resigned as executrix, being paid her distributive share in the estate, amounting at that time to $5,990.58. The court directed the executors to administer the balance, $17,892.67, for the benefit of the two minor heirs. Later the court ordered them to pay the widow $70 a month for the support of the son, and $55 a month for the daughter.

M. S. Burrell died May 20, 1885, leaving Quackenbush the sole executor. After that only one report was made to the court, covering the period between May 1, 1885, and January 1, 1888. It showed Allen Calef's share of the estate to be $9,279.08 and Almira Calef's to be $13,363.25.

ARE SENT TO REFORM SCHOOL

Three Boy Burglars Receive Sentence in Juvenile Court.

Leroy Kisor, Richard Dell and Fred Mills, boy burglars who robbed the second-hand store of Peter Rosumny, at First and Madison streets, last Sunday, were sentenced to the Reform School yesterday afternoon by Judge Gantenbein. Leroy Kisor was once sentenced to the Reform School and placed on parole. Richard Dell was taken before the Juvenile Court in October, last year. After being placed in the Detention Home by Judge Frazer, he ran away and went to Tacoma.

Lawrence Finley, of Myrtle Park, and Fred Lutkmeier were sent to the Detention Home by Judge Gantenbein, with the understanding that if they ran away they will be sentenced to the Reform School. It appeared from the confessions of the boys yesterday that the three upon whom the Reform School sentence was imposed, robbed Rosumny's store, at Third and Burnside streets, last Thursday, Lawrence Finley being with them at the time, and assisting in carrying away the plunder. In the robbery of another store, Lutkmeier assisted.

The plunder, including three rifles, cartriges, three watches, a compass and a field glass, were brought into the courtroom yesterday. Besides these, the boys took a fishing rod. They evidently were preparing for a fishing and hunting trip.

FATAL DEFECT IN INDICTMENT

Adolph Adler, Alleged Anarchist, Must Remain in Jail, However.

Although there is a fatal defect in the indictment against Adolph Adler, charged with attempting to extort $400 from Sig Sichel, the accused man will remain in jail until the grand jury convenes next month, at which time it is possible that a new indictment will be returned against him. Presiding Judge Cleland, in the Circuit Court yesterday morning, sustained the demurrer to the information, which contended that the threatening letter Adler wrote to Mr. Sichel should have been incorporated into the information. Judge Cleland held that it was not necessary to set the letter out in full, but that the particular violence which Adler threatened to Sichel should have been stated.

The court had not finished rendering his opinion when Adler's attorney interrupted him to put in a motion that Adler be released from jail on his own recognizance. "I think," answered the court, "that the defect is of such a nature that it can be remedied in a new indictment. The prisoner will be remanded to the custody of the Sheriff."

Probate Court Notes.

The Merchants National Bank has brought suit in the Circuit Court to recover $1000 from J. F. Ryan on a promissory note made January 31, 1907. The bank also demands $100 attorneys' fees.

The estate of Jerry R. Chehak has been admitted to probate. The property is estimated to be worth $4800, of which $3500 is real estate. The heirs are Henrietta Chehak and Helen Sylvia Chehak.

George Krieg has brought suit in the Circuit Court to recover $5810 from Milton W. Smith. This amount is alleged to be due on two notes.

"Needlecraft" Not Patented Word.

Until the case of Mrs. M. C. White against Mrs. H. A. Van Horn goes to trial in the Circuit Court, anyone who desires may use the word "needlecraft." Presiding Judge Cleland refused yesterday morning to issue an order for a temporary injunction against Mrs. Van Horn which would have compelled her to discontinue the use of the name, "Van's Needlecraft Shop." Mrs. White conducts "The Needlecraft Shop."

Husbands Must Pay Suit Money.

Three husbands, being sued for divorce in the Circuit Court, must pay suit money to their wives, according to an order issued yesterday by Judge Cleland. Frank A. Morton must pay Wilamina M. Morton $50, for attorneys' fees. W. K. Haviland will be obliged to pay Lena Haviland $110 suit money, and $100 for the support of herself and child while the suit is pending, while Alfi Castel will receive a like sum from Antone Castel.

TRAIN SCHEDULE CHANGED

WEST SIDE AND LEBANON BRANCHES AFFECTED.

Additional Local to Forest Grove, and Corvallis Passenger to Leave 15 Minutes Later.

Increased business on the West Side and a request for an improved mail service between Albany and Lebanon have resulted in a new time card for two of the branch lines of the Southern Pacific Company. The changes were announced yesterday and will become effective next Sunday. The schedule of trains on the main line remains unchanged.

The change on the West Side division consists of an additional local train between this city and Forest Grove. Two local trains are now operated between these two points, leaving Portland at 11 A. M., and 5:40 P. M., and arriving in this city at 8 A. M., and 2:50 P. M. The amended schedule provides for three trains, leaving Portland as follows: 8:50 A. M., 1 P. M., and 5:40 P. M. They will arrive in this city at 8 A. M., 11:50 A. M., and 4:50 P. M.

The only other change in the schedule of the West Side line is that relating to the Corvallis local, which will leave Portland at 7:15 A. M., instead of 7 A. M., and will arrive at 6:20 instead of 6:35. There will be no change in the Sheridan local, which leaves at 4:10 P. M., and arrives at 10:30 A. M. By the change in the schedule the people of Forest Grove will be given five daily trains to this city.

The change on the Albany-Lebanon branch, which also becomes effective next Sunday, will give the people of Lebanon their mail four hours earlier. The train which now leaves Albany at 1:45 P. M. daily, will leave at 9:30 A. M.

Northern Pacific Officials Here.

J. G. Woodworth, traffic manager, and Henry Blakeley, general Western freight agent of the Northern Pacific, reached Portland yesterday and will spend several days consulting with the company's local officials. They are accompanied by C. A. Treat and W. A. Cleland, also of St. Paul, who are largely interested in the Northern Pacific.

Amusements

What the Press Agents Say.

Grand's Laugh Show.

Laughter in wholesale quantities is provided this week at the Grand by Sullivan & Considine. Tom Gillen, with his stories of "My Friend Finnigan," is alone worth the price of admission. All of his stories are original and witty. Manuel Romain, the famous tenor, and the Foley boys, equally famous dancers, have the place of honor on the bill and are assisted by the Palmer sisters.

Pantages Theater Packed.

The numerous American and European vaudeville acts continue to draw capacity houses at the Pantages Theater this week. Ziska & King are truly kings of comedy. Their act consists of one continual round of surprises, and the seven Zanzibar Arabian acrobats are positively the speediest ever. See them and be convinced.

"Show Girl" at the Oaks.

Allen Curtis Musical Comedy Company is giving its most pretentious offering of the season at the Oaks this week. "The Show Girl" is the bill and it contains 17 different musical numbers and most of them carry choruses or ballets. Nobody can afford to miss this big free entertainment. Don Carlos and his trained dogs, ponies and monkeys give free exhibitions every afternoon.

Lifts Automobile With Teeth.

Robert Dohn, the strongest man in the world, is showing his powers as a modern Samson with the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth this season. He lifts an automobile with his teeth, driver, passengers and all. It is his first appearance in America. He comes from the Black Forest of Germany.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Pantages' Imported Feature.

The feature act at the Pantages Theater next week will be O'Hana-San & Co., a dainty and exquisite presentation of vaudeville's greatest Japanese novelty in the Orientally beautiful "The Geisha's Dream," a grand spectacular operatic production, carrying their own special scenery, electrical and mechanical effects; presenting beautiful scenes of the Flowery Kingdom.

Grand's New Feature.

The Finneys are well named, for they are as much at home in the water as a fish. The Finneys, who have appeared in every important vaudeville theater in the world, will headline the bill next week at the Grand. This act will have to be seen to be appreciated, for the Finneys do things in an immense glass tank which no others swimmers have dared do.

Orpheum—Standing in Line.

The advance sale of seats at the Orpheum Theater yesterday shows the keen interest being manifested in the new theatrical enterprise that will make its initial bow to the public next Monday evening. Many were lined up seeking reservations long before the box office opened.

STATEMENT BY M. M. BLOCH

His Version of Dispute Over Reward for Lost Wallet.

PORTLAND, Aug. 12.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to make a statement regarding this reward case of which so many misleading articles have been published. On my return from a week's visit down the river I was told that a man telephoned to Felix Bloch, of Marx & Bloch, asking him if he were M. M. Bloch. The man said he had found valuable papers belonging to Mr. Bloch. He was told I could be found at the Courthouse or at my home on Clay street. No name or address was given, so I inserted advertisements in the newspapers offering a reward if the papers were returned to the County Judge's office. I told Robert Shaw, secretary to Judge Webster, to give $25 reward if my papers were returned.

Some man phoned to Mr. Shaw saying he wanted a stiff reward, otherwise he would destroy my papers. Again no name or address was given. Thinking the finder would come to the office, I waited several days, and, not hearing or seeing anything of the party, on advice of Captain Slover, of the police force, I again inserted an advertisement in The Oregonian, offering $100, fully realizing I was a victim of some hold-up scheme.

Shortly afterwards a woman went to Mr. Shaw, asking for the $100, but brought no papers. He told her I would be there at 2 o'clock and for her to be there. She would leave no name or address, but unthinkingly gave her telephone number. I called her up, asking her to come to the Courthouse, and she refused to do so. Mr. Shaw found her name in the telephone directory and I, with two officers, went to her home and asked for my book. She refused to surrender it, saying she did not have it, but on the witness stand, under oath, said she had it in the cellar at the time. She also said that Nate Bird, the Deputy Sheriff, was her adviser and told her not to give up my papers until she received the $100; otherwise to bury them in the cellar.

Such are the true facts of the case and, in justice to me, I hope that the Portland papers will give me a square deal and not prejudice the public.

M. M. BLOCH.

More proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restores women to normal health.

Mrs. Mattie Copenhaver, of 315 So. 21st St., Parsons, Kans., writes:

"For two years I suffered from the worst forms of feminine ills, until I was almost driven frantic. Nothing but morphine would relieve me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me health and happiness, and made me a well woman. Every sick woman should benefit by my experience."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat your letter in confidence and advise you free. No woman ever regretted writing her, and because of her vast experience she has helped thousands. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Foretells Weather by Ouija Board

R. N. Brereton, Retired Civil Engineer, Predicts Storm Seventeen Days Before It Is Due—Has Not Missed Once in Eight Years.

JULY 24, 17 days ago, R. N. Brereton, a retired civil engineer of Portland, predicted that the first rain would fall August 12. The prediction came true. The prognostication was made through the medium of a planchette, or Ouija board. Mr. Brereton asked the question, "When will the first rain fall?" and the board spelled out the answer, "Not until Cloudie's wedding day." Cloudie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brereton, and August 12 was the day set for the wedding.

The weather forecast for yesterday was fair with northerly winds. The forecast was discredited, for it rained and the wind was from the southwest. Mr. Brereton has been interested in psychical phenomena and science during the past 30 years. Eight years ago he took up the weather prognostications by means of the Ouija board, and he says that he has not missed a single time. He has been a resident of Oregon for 18 years.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

An area of low pressure covers Northeastern California, Nevada, Utah, Eastern Oregon, Eastern Washington and Idaho. The pressure has also fallen over the western portion of this district till it is slightly below normal throughout the entire Northwest. Rain fell during the day over Western Oregon and Western Washington. It was very light, however, in Southwestern Oregon. It is cooler in Washington and Oregon, except along the coast, the temperature ranging from 5 to 19 degrees below the seasonal average. It is also quite cool in Montana and North Dakota.

The indications are for showers and continued cool weather in this district Thursday.

FORECASTS.

For the 28 hours ending midnight, Aug. 13:

Portland and vicinity—Showers and continued cool; southwesterly winds.

Oregon—Showers north, fair south portion; continued cool; southwesterly winds.

Washington — Showers; continued cool; northerly winds.

Idaho—Showers, except fair southeast portion.

GOLD!
WE HAVE IT, in a placer mine in California, adjoining ground from which millions have been taken. Our ground is rich in nugget gold, but we need a limited amount of money for hydraulic equipment. We will share liberally with those co-operating with us. The profits will be UNUSUALLY large. Your investment will be paid back from the first profits and you retain your interest in the property. This ground has been well prospected and its value is known. You can invest any sum from $25 to $1000. For further information address,
D. L. McLEOD, 226 Failing Bldg.
