Visit to Continent Shows Improved Relations With Teutonic Powers—Plans Early Visit to Kaiser in Berlin.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—The visit paid by King Edward to Emperor William at Cronberg and to Emperor Francis Joseph at Ischl, while not likely to lead to any formal diplomatic transactions, are considered highly important in official circles as affecting the relations of Great Britain, Germany and Austria-Hungary.

RELATIONS MUCH IMPROVED.

It is quite enough for them that the relations have so improved of recent months that for the second year in succession King Edward has found it possible to visit the two Emperors and discuss with them whatever in European politics was interesting at the moment, discussions which, they believe, must end in still better understanding.

DISARM GERMAN HOSTILITY.

It is understood that King Edward particularly wished to see Emperor William to arrange a visit for himself and Queen Alexandra to Berlin in return of the emperor's visit to London, and the king wanted to show the Germans, by his relations with his royal nephew, that the entente which had been brought about with his influence had not been aimed against Germany.

WELCOMED BY OLD EMPEROR

Edward Entertained at Ischl While Ministers Talk Politics.

ISCHL, Austria, Aug. 12.—King Edward arrived here today from Cronberg on a brief visit to Emperor Francis Joseph. The ruler of the dual monarchy met the king of England at the railway station with full military honors. This is the first time a sovereign visiting the Emperor here has been greeted in this ceremonious manner.

less they are as cross-eyed as the man who had the tears run down his back every time he wept.

RESTAURANT BOXES.

"In the second place, there are prominent restaurants in the city with box arrangements, so constructed as to escape the ordinance prohibiting boxes, but furnishing protection from publicity where liquor is sold to men and women regularly. At certain late hours of the night I have seen many people in the boxes who are willing to give testimony conduct too disgusting for public gaze is frequently indulged in. These places do more to injure young people than the dives. It might be well for the members of the City Council to talk with Mrs. Lohs G. Baldwin, of the Traveler's Aid Society. She might give them some interesting facts along this line.

THAW LIKELY TO ESCAPE ASYLUM

Can Now Compel Hearing as to His Sanity in Courts of Pittsburg.

IS ADJUDGED A BANKRUPT

Surprisingly Sudden Decision of Referee Places Him in Position to Escape Jurisdiction of New York Tribunals.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 12.—Harry K. Thaw was formally adjudged a bankrupt today by Referee in Bankruptcy W. R. Blair. This action was of surprise to those interested in the case as United States Commissioner William T. Lindsey had set August 21 as the date for the adjudication. No explanation of the change of plans and today's action was made, but it is believed that Receiver Roger O'Mara's visit to Thaw at Poughkeepsie yesterday may have had something to do with the move.

driving a bunch of cattle on Tuesday from the stockyards to the Smith Comstock killing plant. The horse, Foster was riding was a tough little cayuse pony which had been broke but which had a vicious disposition. The point where the accident occurred is about two miles from the city. Foster had alighted and was attempting to remount when the animal suddenly began to buck. Not having fully regained his seat, Foster, who was an able horseman, was taken at a disadvantage and the fractious animal continued bucking until his rider was thrown backward and landed with great violence on his back, his head striking the road with a thud.

A companion of Foster obtained a buggy and drove the injured man rapidly to the hospital, where Dr. James F. Bell was called in. A fracture was found at the base of the skull. The injured man remained unconscious until the evening.

Foster was about 32 years of age and was well known as any butcher in this city, having been constantly engaged in this business since he was a boy ten years of age. He was a married man and had three children but had lately become separated from his wife, who with the children had moved to some small town in Washington. His mother resides in Albina.
