THE OAKS—Don Carlos' dog, pony and monkey show, 7:30, 9:30, 10:30. Also Cards Musical Comedy Company in "The Show Girl" in Ardmore, at 8:15, free.

CALL IT LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN.—The United East Side Push Clubs voted last night to call Rocky Butte, north of Montavilla, Lookout Mountain, in honor of General Joe Hooker, who lived in Portland before the war and before he became known as "Fighting" Joe Hooker.

WILL COME TO ANABEL CHURCH.—Rev. Charles T. Hurd, who has been in charge of the W. M. C. A. work in Corvallis, will probably receive a call to become pastor of the Anabel Presbyterian Church, on the Mount Scott railway.

WILL CONSIDER BARTON QUESTION.—The United East Side Push Clubs will hold a special meeting next Tuesday night to consider the location of the new Madison-street bridge.

INCORPORATE DES MOINES SYSTEM.—The North Albina Improvement Association endorsed the Des Moines system of municipal government at its last meeting.

PARKER WILL SPEAK HERE.—Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, Democratic Presidential candidate in 1904, will arrive in Portland Tuesday morning and will deliver a political address here in the interest of the candidacy of Roosevelt and Kern.

WILL DISCUSS MOUNT TABOR PARK.—The Mount Tabor Improvement Club will consider "Mount Tabor a public park" at the meeting tonight in Woodmen hall, on West avenue.

HIGH LICENSE BILL GOES OVER.—Members of the liquor-license committee, who voted last Monday to recommend for passage by the Council an ordinance increasing the rate of license for hotels and restaurants serving liquor, forgot to sign their names to the report and consequently the matter did not come before the Council yesterday for action.

BUSLOW LEAVES FOR CHICAGO.—C. A. Bigelow, president of the East Side Business Men's Club, left last night on a business trip East. While absent he will attend the National White and Leather Exposition, which will meet in Chicago.

FUNERAL OF CHARLES L. KINNEY.—The funeral of Charles L. Kinney, who was drowned Sunday afternoon, will be held today at 2:30 P. M. from Dunning, McEster & Gilbaugh's chapel, Seventh and Pine streets. Interment will be in River-view Cemetery.

AN EVENT OF utmost importance is the great house-cleaning sale put on by Rosenthal's, Portland's best shoe store, Seventh and Washington streets. All lovers of the shoe at remarkably low prices should attend this sale.

THE BREAKERS HOTEL has secured Parson's Orchestra for the season. Nothing better; dance two times a week; keep cool; breathe salt air; play tennis; be happy.

FOR RENT.—A few nice apartments in the Oregonian building. See Superintendent, room 201.

LONDON LOCATION FOR FACTORY.—Portland's fame as a city of parts is recognized abroad as well as on this side of the ocean. In proof of this fact the county borough of West Ham, a suburban district of London, England, has communicated with the Chamber of Commerce of this city directing attention to advantages that part of London has to offer to any Portland manufacturer who may not yet have selected the location of an English branch.

WANT BULL RUN WATER.—The people of the Mount Scott district want Bull Run water and a supply pumped from said W. E. Spicer of that district yesterday, in speaking of the proposed private water plant for that section. Mr. Spicer said that there is a considerable Woodstock, two at Lents, and three or four more smaller plants which pump water from wells, and declared the district cannot afford to have another such company.

TO EXTEND FIRE LIMITS.—Fire Chief Campbell has recommended to the City Council the extension of the fire limits on both sides of the Willamette River to the harbor line.

YANKOVICH IS DEFEATED.—Attorney Yankovich was reversed on appeal from the case of Del Grusso against G. Runach reopened before Justice of the Peace Bell yesterday. Yankovich set up the claim that Justice Bell's predecessor, Justice William Reid, was not competent to decide the case at the time of the previous hearing, but Judge Bell decided that he had no jurisdiction where he could reverse the former finding, and as the case had been properly recorded in every instance, he sustained the previous ruling.

HALLOWAY IS BOUND OVER.—Chester C. Halloway, who attempted to murder his wife at Vernon on the night of June 27, yesterday, waived preliminary examination and was held to the grand jury under $500 bonds, in default of which he was confined in the County Jail. Mrs. Halloway, although shot three times by her jealous husband, is in a fair way to recover, and her physicians do not believe that she will suffer any ill effects from the wounds.

LAWYER RETURNED TO ASYLUM.—Henry F. Joslin, an attorney, was adjudged insane by the examining physician at the County Jail yesterday afternoon, and sent to the asylum two years ago, after having raised his brain overwork. He realizes his condition, Julia B. Bellamy has also been adjudged insane, and committed to the asylum.

NO OVERTAKE ON BOND SALE.—City Attorney Kavanaugh officially notified the Council yesterday morning of the successful outcome of the bond issues in the Supreme Court, and advised the members that there is now nothing in the way to prevent them from ordering the sale of the various bonds and to institute the work to be done with the proceeds.

SPECIAL TODAY at Dresser's—Angel cake, 25 cents. DR. E. A. MYERS, dentist, returned. DR. J. H. ROSEN has returned.
