SLAIN BY BLACKMAILERS

Wealthy Italian Killed in Battle With His Enemies.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Ambushed in a lonely spot known as "Murderer's Field," on the Lincoln road, in the Flatbush section of Brooklyn, late last night, Pietro Barilla, a well-to-do hotelkeeper of Woodhaven, was attacked and killed by a number of men. Barilla is thought to have gone to the place to keep an appointment, as a letter was found in his clothing, seemingly written in blood.

Barilla rode to the scene on a bicycle, and carried a magazine revolver, which he nearly emptied in a desperate defense. Persons nearby heard shots, and rushing to the place saw men fleeing across the fields. Barilla was found dead, with four stab wounds in his breast and back, and two bullet wounds.

It is held that a minor, whether enlisted fraudulently or not, is subject at all times to such punishment as a

Villette was arrested several days ago and placed under $10,000 bail bonds because of information given the immigration authorities by the girl when the latter was apprehended at Tucson, Ariz. The

CONY ISLAND PAVILLON BURNS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—A fire, which for a time threatened to destroy a block in the Western Addition, on Fillmore street, between Turk and Eddy, occurred early today in the Cony Island Amusement Company, consuming the entire building and damaging adjacent houses and stores. The loss is estimated at $100,000. The pavilion was owned by the Cony Island Amusement Company, which went into the hands of a receiver several weeks ago, and had closed the place.
