

MOB SCATTERS BEFORE TROOPS

Riot Call Brings Soldiers to Scene.

FREQUENT ALARMS SOUNDED

Police Foil Attempt to Cut Telephone Wires.

TWO MORE INJURED DIE

Entire State Guard, Except Colored Regiments, Encamped on Capital Grounds and Other Parts of City.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 16.—Two deaths from injuries received in previous mob fights, the attempted cutting of the fire alarm wires, the exonerating of Private J. B. Klein, Company A, First Illinois Infantry, by a court of inquiry for the killing of Earl Nelson at Kankakee yesterday, and the pursuit of a mob by guardsmen were the chief developments in the race war in Springfield today.

The attempt to cut the telephone and fire alarm wires leading to the city hall was not successful. A policeman saw three men on top of an outbuilding trying to reach the lines overhead. He turned in an alarm to the headquarters of General Wells, commanding a provisional brigade, and the latter dispatched a wagonload of soldiers to the scene. They arrived before the trio had done any damage. The would-be-wirecutters fled, leaving their nippers behind.

Scare at Headquarters.

A genuine scare was caused at the headquarters in the arsenal tonight after a squad had been sent to disperse a crowd at Allen and Spring streets. Five minutes later a report reached Lieutenant-Colonel Eddy that shots had been fired in the threatened district. He immediately sent a full platoon to the place to reinforce the squad. When the additional soldiers appeared the crowd broke and ran. The soldiers pursued them for several blocks and the district, which is near the scene of last night's lynching was in an uproar for a few minutes.

The arsenal was crowded tonight with negro refugees from Springfield and surrounding towns. About 200 men, women and children sought shelter in the building and slept on the floor or in chairs.

Fire Brings Out Crowds.

Alarms were more numerous this evening than on former nights. In no single case, however, up to a late hour, was there any circumstance which compelled the use of force. A fire early in the evening at East Mason and Fourth streets brought out the largest crowd, but it was composed mostly of curiosity seekers and was handled easily. Three barns were destroyed by the fire, which is supposed to have been started by mischievous boys.

Grand Jury Will Investigate.

A special grand jury is to investigate the rioting here, beginning tomorrow, according to an announcement made tonight by State Attorney Frank Hatch, of Sangamon County. The scope of the inquiry will be wide and an effort will be made to fasten the responsibility for the disturbance upon certain individuals who are under suspicion.

The coroner's inquest over the bodies of Delmore and Dunigan has been set for Tuesday.

Soldier Only Obeys Orders.

The court of inquiry which considered Private Klein's case was composed of Major James Miles, Captain Jacob Judson, Captain S. F. High and Lieutenant F. A. Guilford, all of the First Illinois. After sitting all day they reported to Adjutant-General Scott that Klein's act was performed in the strict line of duty. Klein had been placed as one of a guard of the baggage car on the first section of the Illinois Central train which brought the First Infantry to Springfield yesterday. The train was a special one and the baggage car contained property owned by the state. Klein, guarding the front door, was instructed by Lieutenant Guilford to allow no one not officially countenanced to enter the car.

Keeps Four Men From Car.

At Kankakee four young men, according to the report, climbed to the front platform and attempted to enter the car. Klein barred the way, using the only weapon available, a bayonet. As the train started the four youths left the platform. Klein was not aware that Nelson or anyone else had been injured. State's Attorney Cooper, of Kankakee, probably will institute action against Klein in the criminal courts at Kankakee. The Attorney-General of the state is compelled by law to defend National Guardsmen in such cases.

BEATEN, LEWIS MAY YET SWAY RESULT

PINK-WHISKERED STATESMAN IS POWER TO RECKON WITH.

Strength With Labor Vote May Enable Him to Encompass Stevenson's Defeat.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 16.—(Special.)—James Hamilton Lewis, of Chicago, ex-Congressman from the State of Washington, unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic Vice-Presidential nomination at Denver, and equally unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in Illinois, appears to be in a position where he can do considerable damage in the Fall campaign and November election. Lewis, as shown by the late primary vote, while not a great factor in Illinois, James Hamilton Lewis, who is in a position to make himself a factor in the fight for Adlai Stevenson's gubernatorial campaign.

is powerful in the city of Chicago, and it is conceded that Chicago will swing the state on election day. It is too much to say that Lewis can swing the election, but it may be within his power to make certain of the defeat of ex-Vice-President Stevenson, who outdistanced Lewis for the primary election in Chicago some years ago. "Jim Ham" has cultivated the labor people, and has made himself strong with them. His strength in that city was shown by the large vote he polled, carrying Chicago against Stevenson. If Lewis is resentful and desires to make trouble, he can do so without a large part of the Chicago Democratic and labor vote from the Democratic state ticket, and in that way seriously handicap the Democratic candidate.

Whether Lewis will show his resentment and lead a bolt, or whether he will swallow his disappointment and remain regular in the hope of reaping future rewards, is yet to be announced. But if he decides to make trouble he can do so, without any event his fight on Stevenson would unquestionably have its effect on the vote for Presidential electors. "Jim Ham" has the opportunity to make himself again felt in politics. Will he avail himself of this opportunity?

TROOPS PURSUE REBELS

Thousand Chinese Pillage Town and Flee to Mountains.

HONGKONG, Aug. 17.—The soldiers stationed at Kowloon, near Wuchow, who rebelled last Tuesday, and killed their commander, because a comrade had been ordered for gambling, have joined the Yau, a warlike tribe of aborigines, living in the southwest portion of the province of Kwangtung. Their home is in a region of inaccessible mountains and they have never been subjected to governmental control.

Admiral Li has arrived here in his flagship, accompanied by gunboats, torpedo-boats and launches. Troops have also been summoned and the country is in a turmoil. The mutineers are 1000 in number. After murdering their commander, they pillaged the village, securing $100,000 in money and withdrew to the Talking Mountains.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—National Chairman C. R. Jones, of the Prohibition party, announced today that it had been decided to make a vigorous fight for the South Dakota vote for Chafin and Watkins, Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates of that party.

YOUTH'S ACCUSED OF BRUTAL CRIME

Walter Johnson Held for Perdue Murder.

TAKEN WHILE IN RESTAURANT

Killing Occurred in Cabin North of Hillsboro.

OFFICERS LONG ON TRAIL

Arrest by Sheriff of Washington County on Clews Followed Since Body Was Found Several Weeks Ago.

While eating dinner at the London restaurant on Hawthorne avenue, just west of Grand, last night, Walter Johnson, 22 years of age, was arrested on a charge of murdering Elmer Perdue in a lonely cabin near Timber, Washington County. He is in the Multnomah County Jail and will be transferred to Hillsboro today, where a formal charge will be entered against him.

Johnson's whereabouts are said to have been furnished the Sheriff of Washington County by a woman of whom he was enamored. His wife and child live in Portland, but the woman is known only in the neighborhood.

Body Found in Woods.

The arrest was made by Sheriff George C. Hancock, of Washington County. The body of Perdue, whom Johnson is accused of killing, was found several weeks ago in a wooded gulch near a deserted homestead a short distance from Timber, a small settlement north of Hillsboro. Ever since the body was discovered Johnson has been under suspicion, though the officers refused to take action until assured that they had sufficient evidence.

Perdue was murdered in the mountains 22 miles from this city. A boy by the name of Neighbor found the body while picking blackberries near the cabin of Frank Burgholzer. He discovered the body partly hidden under an upturned log.

Pockets Had Been Rifled.

Horrorized at his gruesome discovery, Neighbor hurried back to his home and an investigation was immediately instituted. The coroner was called and a verdict which declared that the man had come to his death by foul means.

The skull, it was found, had been fractured, the pockets rifled, and the body carried from the cabin to a gulch 100 yards distant. In the man's watch pocket were found two stamped badges, bearing the words, "E. E. Perdue, Spokane, Wash., 1907." These were overlooked by the investigator save a horseshoe nail ring and the fact that four back teeth in the upper left jaw had been filled with amalgam.

The officers had little evidence upon which to work, but their suspicions were directed towards Johnson for a number of reasons. In the first place, he was suspected because he had been locating many strangers in the mountains, either upon homesteads or upon timber claims. It was ascertained that Johnson had located Perdue and the first location was a timber filing. The filing, however, did not suit Perdue, and for some reason it was dropped at the Land Office.

Located Perdue on Claim.

It has been ascertained that Perdue, in company with a number of Swedes and J. J. Fisher, a book-store man of Portland, were piloted by Johnson into the mountains from Buxton the latter part of June. The party, minus Perdue and Johnson, who were left in the hills, returned, and Perdue was never seen alive again. These were comparative strangers in Portland and in Hillsboro and consequently his disappearance created little mystery.

It is now known, however, that he had been in Portland several weeks prior to his disappearance and that he had a large sum of money on his person. Another fact that the Sheriff of Washington County regards as suspicious is that Johnson, who is said to have been with Perdue, apparently had money on his return. He is said to have paid off a number of claims at Buxton and is also said to have returned money to men in Portland whom he had falsely located.

Subject Is Married Man.

Johnson is 22 years of age and is married to a daughter of Rlier Thomas, a Nebelheim homesteader. He has been living a precarious existence in and around Portland for several years. He lived in Washington County as a boy, and his father, the late Charles M. Johnson, conducted a saloon in Cornelius for a number of years, later going to Gaston, where he raised hops until his death a few years ago. The family was always considered respectable, and the father bore a reputation for honesty, although he was a hard drinker.

Johnson left his quarters on the West Side, in this city, a week ago and Sheriff Stevens has been keeping a watch on a woman named Mrs. Thomas, who is in the half-world. He is a meek, mild-mannered fellow, and the last one mentioned.

CROKER COMES TO WORK FOR BRYAN

SAYS HE WILL KEEP OUT OF NEW YORK FIGHT.

Next Month Set as Time for Proposed Invasion by Exiled Tammany Boss.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(Special.)—Richard Croker, former leader of Tammany Hall, will come to America next month to lend the weight of his influence to the effort to elect W. J. Bryan President. When Bryan left Ireland on his recent world tour, Mr. Croker accompanied him to his ship and assured him that if he was nominated by the Democrats, Mr. Croker would do everything in his power to bring about his election.

In announcing his intention to come to New York to aid Mr. Bryan, Croker is reported to have said that he had no intention whatever of taking any part in the New York political game, except such as was necessary to aid Mr. Bryan. With other phases of the situation he said he had no intention of interfering and would return to Ireland as soon as he had accomplished what he could do to further the interests of the Democratic nominee.

Although Mr. Croker was opposed to Mr. Bryan in 1896, he soon afterward revised his opinion.

BUILD NATIONAL THEATER

British Scheme to Honor Shakespeare's Memory.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—(Special.)—The scheme for a Shakespeare memorial, to take the shape of a National Theater, was carried a step farther here when the committee of the rival schemes of a statue and a theater met at the Mansion House with the Lord Mayor in the chair, a friendly amalgamation having taken place. The meeting appointed a strong executive committee which includes the Lord Mayor, Lord Esher, Lord Lytton, Lord William, Herbert Tree, Comyns Carr, William Archer, Bernard Shaw, Granville Barker, W. L. Courtney, A. W. Pinero, Sir John Galsworthy, H. W. Nassingham, the Hon. Laurence Gomme and others.

The executive committee intends to hold a kind of commission in the first place with the object of ascertaining the ideas of specialists with regard to the foundation of the National Theater. There is certainly more chance of the proposed National Theater becoming a fact now that the two schemes for honoring the memory of Shakespeare have been amalgamated.

VAN CLEAVE GIVES REPLY TO BRYAN

Election Would Prove Menace to Business.

BANKING SCHEME WILDCAT

Democratic Platform Assails Trade Interests.

CHARGES ARE ALL FALSE

Dishonest Means Taken to Make Political Capital on Labor Issue. Guaranty Plan Would Wreck the Financial System.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 16.—James W. Van Cleave, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, today issued an answer to a recent reply by W. J. Bryan to an article by Mr. Van Cleave a few weeks ago, which pointed out certain special reasons why, according to Mr. Van Cleave, business men should vote against Mr. Bryan.

Speaking today, also for business men, Van Cleave says that the injunction, tariff and banking planks of the Denver platform assail the interests of every man in the country who is engaged in any sort of trade.

Labor's Rights Are Protected.

"The falsity of the insinuation in the Denver platform that labor unions are outlawed," Mr. Van Cleave says, "is shown by the fact that their members continue in their regular employments on every working day in the year in every town in the United States. Every member of the Lincoln Typographical Union, at whose banquet he was a guest on the evening before his formal notification of nomination, could have told Mr. Bryan that there is not a vestige of truth in the pretense that any act of Congress or any ruling of any Federal Court ever forbade a labor union to organize, to ask such wages from employers as the union saw fit to ask or to make any terms of employment which would be agreeable to both parties."

Violence Always Opposed.

He then asks: "Does Mr. Bryan, as a lawyer and a public man, know that his platform charges are false?" He tells Mr. Bryan that the National Association of Manufacturers, like the Association of Depositors of Insolvent National or State Banks, Mr. Van Cleave asks: "Does not Mr. Bryan know that this vicious provision would penalize the honest and careful banker for the benefit of the banker who is dishonest and reckless? Can he not see that this scheme would remove all the safeguards which protect the depositor of a bank? Would it not plunge and grafter who have worked their way into the control of many of our banks; that it would immediately and immensely increase the number of such bankers, and that it would precipitate an era of extravagance, wild speculation and corruption which would wreck our whole financial system? Is not Mr. Bryan aware that his wildcat banking scheme of 1896 would bring chaos and ruin to the country he even quicker and in larger measure than his silver debasement of the currency of 1896 and 1900 would have brought it?"

Scheme Worse Than Free Silver.

"Speaking of the guaranty fund which the Denver platform urges for the payment of depositors of insolvent National or State banks, Mr. Van Cleave asks: "Does not Mr. Bryan know that this vicious provision would penalize the honest and careful banker for the benefit of the banker who is dishonest and reckless? Can he not see that this scheme would remove all the safeguards which protect the depositor of a bank? Would it not plunge and grafter who have worked their way into the control of many of our banks; that it would immediately and immensely increase the number of such bankers, and that it would precipitate an era of extravagance, wild speculation and corruption which would wreck our whole financial system? Is not Mr. Bryan aware that his wildcat banking scheme of 1896 would bring chaos and ruin to the country he even quicker and in larger measure than his silver debasement of the currency of 1896 and 1900 would have brought it?"

LIBERALS FAVOR COUNT

Official Deposited by Kaiser May Go to Reichstag.

BERLIN, Aug. 16.—Count von Posadowsky-Wehner, who was obliged to retire some months ago as Minister of the Interior because of his habit of tenaciously holding administrative views not in agreement with those of the Emperor, is likely to be proposed for the Reichstag by the Liberals of the Speyerer Ludwigshafen constituency. Whether he will accept probably will depend upon his indorsement by the Centrists. Various Catholic journals approve of such indorsement, but there seems to be opposition to him in the Centrist local organization.

The Count, although 63 years old, such is his passion for study, has been attending lectures on political economy and state administration at the University of Grenoble, France, during the Spring and Summer. He has been intending also to visit the United States, having for a long time had a desire to observe for himself the working of American institutions.

NATION REQUIRES NAVY NEAR HOME

PROTECTION DEMANDS STRIP WASHINGTON CHIEFS.

Vessels Long Out of Commission Must Be Prepared for Emergency.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—(Special.)—With the best portion of the American Navy in Australian waters on its cruise around the world, and with demands for gunboats in Cuban waters, at Santo Domingo, Venezuela, Central America and various other places where American interests may need protection, the Navy Department has been put to it to secure enough ships to fill urgent needs. Some vessels which have been long out of commission and others which had been relegated to innocuous desuetude because of their antique build and equipment have been ordered into commission, and it is probable that the next Congress will be asked to provide for some additional gunboats which can on occasion be utilized for police duty.

The gunboat Ranger, an old iron and wood barkentine, will be placed in commission at Cavite. The Frolic, a mere steam yacht used during the Spanish War, will also be placed in commission and accompany the Ranger to New York. The Wheeling will be placed in commission at the Puget Sound Navy Yard.

STRIKE TO SAVE TUNNEL

Forces of Men Combat Landslide in Nevada.

RENO, Nev., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—For the past three days scores of section men in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company on the Palisade division in Nevada have been at work trying to prevent the caving of the big tunnel of that name near Palisade. The tunnel is 200 paces or more in length and cost more than $100,000 to complete. Last year the Western Pacific started a tunnel 60 feet to the south of the Southern Pacific. This was recently completed, and now it is known that the blasting has practically shaken the entire mountain, which is now practically at a standstill in this state. Big timbers in the Southern Pacific tunnel are being slowly crushed like so much matchwood, and unless a means of combating the slide is determined upon it may necessitate the company abandoning the tunnel.

A thousand men and twice as many horses and mules were placed at work along the Western Pacific Railroad in this state yesterday, and from now on the line will be rushed to completion. For nearly a year operations have been practically at a standstill in this state. The grade has been completed from Salt Lake to a point near Elko, while from this end the grading has reached a comparatively short distance. Work westward will continue now until completed. Trains will probably be running into Winnemucca early this fall.

NEEDS CASH FOR BIG NAVY

Britain Will Raise Loan of $500,000,000 for Ships.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—The British government, according to the Daily Telegraph, contemplates raising a large loan in view of the growing naval competition abroad. It is stated that financiers of the highest standing have undertaken to meet $500,000,000 on nominal terms to meet the necessities of the fleet for the next few years without disorganizing the annual budget or creating a heavy burden upon the present generation.

If such a plan is attempted, it will be because it is possible to forecast the future requirements of the navy until a general shipbuilding programme has been crystallized and the setting aside of this fund would be a declaration translated into terms of cash of the country's intention to maintain a two-power standard at all costs.

WRIGHT FIXES BROKEN WING

Damage of Thursday's Accident Is Being Repaired.

HAINS BROTHERS LOCKED IN JAIL

Both Very Calm in Police Court.

WILL BE ARRAIGNED TODAY

Smoke Cigarettes and Appeal Unperturbed.

EYEWITNESS TELLS STORY

Annis, With Six Wounds, Displays Remarkable Grit—'Captain, You Have Made a Horrible Mistake,' He Moans.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—The arraignment of Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., U. S. A., who yesterday shot and killed William Annis, advertising manager of Recreation and Burr Melton's Monthly, was postponed today until tomorrow by Magistrate Matthew J. Smith in the First District Court at Long Island City. Similar action was taken in the case of Thornton Hains, brother of Peter C. Hains, amateur yachtsman and author, who held the crowd at bay with a drawn revolver, while the captain accomplished his work of vengeance.

Don't Like Handcuffs.

The two men were removed to Long Island City this morning from the Flushing police station, where they spent the night in separate cells and were at once taken before Magistrate Smith. The brothers appeared absolutely unperturbed and neither showed any trace of the uncomfortable night spent in jail. They allowed some embarrassment while having handcuffs placed on them, but soon regained their equanimity.

Both Men Very Calm.

During the ride to Long Island City in the Flushing patrol wagon, both the Captain and his brother calmly smoked cigarettes. After the postponement of the case Captain Hains and his brother were once more handcuffed and taken to the Queens County Jail, where they were given a large and comfortable cell on the second floor.

Charles H. Roberts, who helped to pull Annis out of the water after he had been shot, and who was prevented from going to his assistance by Thornton Hains' leveled revolver, said today, in recounting the incidents of yesterday's shooting:

Eyewitness Tells Story.

"Annis was seated at the tiller of his sloop bringing her to the float. Louis Harway, who was in the boat with Annis, was forwarding her off the float. Hains saw Harway first, and walking up to him, placed his revolver against his chest. Harway, thinking the whole performance a joke, playfully brushed the man's arm away. Hains, by that time had realized his mistake and crouching down so as to get on a level with Annis, who as I saw, was sitting in the stern of the boat, emptied his revolver into him."

Wife Shouts, 'Look Out, Will.'

"Annis was in his bathing suit, unarmed, defenseless and unprepared. With the firing of the first shot Mrs. Annis, who, with fully a hundred women and children was on the pier watching the preparations for the usual Saturday afternoon races, called out shrilly, 'Look out, Will.' Almost at the same time I rushed toward Captain Hains, but before I had gone two steps his brother, Thornton Hains, stood before me, a revolver pressed against me. 'Stand back,' he shouted, 'this is a matter between these two.'"

Displays Remarkable Grit.

"By that time Peter Hains had completed his work. Annis with six bullets in him arose from his seat in the boat and attempted to step from it to the float. One of the bullets had lodged in his knee, however, and as he stood up his leg gave way under him and he toppled into the bay. Wounded to the death as he was, Annis still had the marvelous grit to try to swim to the float. He took two strokes and he grabbed him near enough for me to grab him and pull him upon the float.

"Thornton Hains still stood with his weapon in his hand and for a time refused to surrender it.

Moans 'You Have Made Mistake.'

"Annis, who was moaning faintly, stretched out on the float, turned to Peter Hains and said: 'Captain, you have made a horrible mistake.' Peter Hains hesitated a minute and replied: 'I may have, but I don't believe it.' Annis then turned to our Swede boatman and asked: 'John have they got towards like this in your country?'"

"The others on the float had been trying to get some explanation as to the cause of the shooting from the two brothers. Finally Thornton Hains, who had filled a pipe and was comfortably smoking, said: 'I've been trying to keep him from doing this for some time.'"

Loses Life on Track.

PATERSON, N. J., Aug. 16.—At the Clifton Cycle stadium today, "Sonny" Bridges, 23 years old, a motorcycleist and ex-lightweight pugilist, was thrown from the motorcycle which he was testing on the track and instantly killed.
