Brewers Will Discriminate Against Dry Counties.

WHAT THEY TELL HEYSE

Will Not Accept Any Oregons This Year That Are Grown in Prohibition Sections — Jule Pincus' Estimate.

Hugo Heyse, a hop merchant of Minneapolis, who is now in this city, says the Eastern brewers will not buy Oregon hops this year which have been grown in prohibition counties. Mr. Heyse is a large handler of Oregon hops and is here on his annual business trip. He said yesterday:

"Because of the inroads made in their trade by the prohibition movement, the brewers in the East are at present overstocked with hops and it is impossible to interest them in new business. There is no doubt that prices will be low in the coming season for this reason. I do not think the market will open above 8 cents, but it is possible that after the Presidential election is over prices may go a little higher, especially if there is any change in the prohibition movement.

"Eastern brewers have informed me that when they place their orders for Oregon hops this Fall, it will be specified in the orders that they will accept none that have been grown in counties that voted dry. They are fully posted on conditions here and know just how each county voted. It will be impossible for the dealers to fool them, as the bills of lading will show where the hops were grown. Should the dealer himself bring them here and bill them from Portland, the extra half-cent local freight will have to come out of the grower. This is how the brewers will retaliate against Oregon for what it has done in the prohibition line.

"My investigations here lead me to believe the Oregon crop will not be under 100,000 bales. As there are 5000 bales of 1907s and 5000 bales of 1906s unsold, I do not see how high prices can be looked for when we take into consideration the overloaded condition of the brewers.

"Hop dealers in the old country are offering Bohemian hops laid down in the American breweries at 30 cents. This means a net price to the Bohemian grower of 10 cents."

"Late Crop," Says Julius Pincus.

Julius Pincus, formerly of the firm of Lachmund & Pincus, came down from Salem yesterday. Mr. Pincus intends to retain an office in Salem during the remainder of the year.

"I think a fair estimate of the Oregon crop," he said, "is from 80,000 to 90,000 bales, but it may not go over 70,000. At any rate it will be a very late crop. Only about 30 per cent of the vines have hopped out and the rest are in the bloom yet. As it usually takes six weeks from the time the hops are in bloom until they are ready to pick, this will bring the picking season late in September, which is always a dangerous time. Growers say they have not seen such a condition in 20 years.

"California estimates have been cut down to 70,000 bales because of the excessively hot weather and my correspondents there tell me that 10,000 bales will not be harvested because the poorer growers cannot get the money. Reliable advices from Washington say the previous estimates of 15,000 to 17,000 bales were too high and the state will do well if it produces 10,000 bales.

"I believe the Oregon market will open at from 8 to 10 cents."

WHEAT BUYING ON SMALL SCALE.

Exporters Are in the Market, but Farmers Are Bullish.

Not much wheat is changing hands in the interior, according to all reports received. Exporters are offering on the basis of 88 cents for club and 92 cents for bluestem, and a few lots have been sold at these prices, but the general disposition of the farmers is to hold.

Prices were more or less nominal at the Board of Trade, wheat and barley bids being at Saturday's figures. Oats were firmer with $1.25 offered for September and $1.32½ for December.

Receipts for 48 hours, as posted, show a heavy increase in the wheat movement, the arrivals being as follows: Wheat, 99 cars and 1535 sacks; oats, 495 sacks; barley, 16 cars; rolled barley, 1 car; hay, 11 cars and 386 bales.

The range of futures was as follows (prices quoted are f. o. b. warehouse, Portland):

TEN CARS OF MELONS ARRIVE.

First Apple Shipment to Orient Will Be Made Today.

Ten cars of watermelons were received yesterday, and with the hot weather, good progress was made in cleaning them up. Kleckly sweets are quoted at 1½ cents and other grades at 1¼ cents. Cantaloupes were in heavy supply and weak at $1.25@1.50, with a few fancy lots bringing $1.75.

The first apple shipment of the season to the Orient will be made on the steamer Arabia this morning, when the W. B. Glafke Company will ship 100 boxes of new California Gravensteins to Vladivostok and Nagasaki. A quantity of oranges and other fruits will also go forward.

Strong Demand for Best Eggs.

Eggs continue firm with a strong demand for strictly fresh stock, which at this time of year is naturally scarce. Extras were quoted at 25 and 26½ cents yesterday. For other grades the demand was slow. Receipts for the two days were 248 cases.

Poultry arrivals were small and the market nominal.

Larger buying orders for cheese are coming in from the Sound and quotations were fully maintained. Butter was firmer at former prices. Butter receipts were 54 boxes.

Bank Clearings.

HARRIMAN LINES' SHOWING

Irregular Movement of Prices During Day—Smelting and Reading Lead in Late Rise—Bonds Are Very Weak.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Irregularity was the most conspicuous feature of today's stock market. Prices rose and fell alternately, mostly within a narrow range, although some of the more active features registered substantial gains at the opening. The trading bore evidence of bear pressure and general professionalism, although close observers expressed the opinion that stocks are gradually passing into stronger hands. This belief appears to be based largely upon the operations of certain prominent banking and brokerage houses, as well as on the continued ease of money, further prospects of good crops and advices from the leading railroad centers, which almost uniformly report indications of awakening business. At the moment, however, it cannot be said that traffic is more than holding its own, but the trunk lines are well supplied with cars and making ready for the prospective improvement.

Quite the most important development of the day in railroad circles was the publication of the annual report of the Harriman lines for the fiscal year. The Union Pacific system showed a net loss compared with the previous year of about $2,170,000, while the Southern Pacific Railway reported a net decrease for the same period of $8,363,000. In both instances, however, the falling off was largely due to increased taxes, that item in the Union Pacific statement being 17.95 per cent greater than in 1906-7, and the Southern Pacific 36.56 greater. Both lines show material gains in net earnings. The pessimistic utterances of the Rock Island-Frisco system, dealing with general railroad conditions, in which the statement was made that 400,000 men are out of employment, excited some interest, but did not have a serious effect.

As a whole the coalers held comparatively firm, though Reading was frequently under pressure. Smelting led the industrial stocks, making a sharp recovery from Saturday's loss, and the coppers moved in sympathy, despite another cut in the price of the metal. The declaration of a 6 per cent dividend, presumably for the quarter, by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, in place of a previous disbursement of $9, was the only noteworthy feature of the outside market. The vagaries of a well-known market manipulator from New England caused some uneasiness in conservative quarters, but elsewhere they were the subject of good-natured ridicule.

Much the greater part of the day's business was done early in the session, trading becoming very restricted, while the list developed a heavy undertone. In the last half hour, under the lead of Smelting and Reading, the market grew strong and the closing was active at the day's best prices.

The general bond market was easy. Total sales, par value, $1,134,000. Government bonds were unchanged on call.

PRODUCE FOR ALASKA

LARGE SHIPMENTS TO BE MADE BY SEATTLE.

Orders Turned Down, Owing to Lack of Time and Rush of Other Business.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—Exceptionally heavy shipments of butter, eggs and cheese will be made to Alaska on the boats leaving in the next two or three days. The shipments are for Yukon River points and Dawson. One order for 1400 cases of eggs and 400 barrels of butter was turned down by two houses, owing to the fact that the concerns had so much other business they could not get the shipment ready in time for the boats.

Eggs were selling almost everywhere today at 33 cents.

A car of live Eastern stock that arrived here Saturday night had no effect on today's market.

The general impression among commission men is that better prices will be obtained on fruits of all kinds than were expected earlier in the season. California peaches have about disappeared from the market. Three cars of watermelons arrivd today. Cantaloupes are scarce: Restaurants and hotels are getting the bulk of the choice fruit.

Wheat is dull and lower at 89 cents for bluestem. Spirited bidding is reported from points in the interior, although buying of this kind is not general. Wheat receipts here today were 14 cars, the largest of the season. The first ship to be loaded here is due September 1, and the grain is being placed in the Great Northern elevator at present. Buying now is principally by the millers, who are trying to get as much flour shipped as possible before the high flour rates to the Orient become operative.

TOO MUCH OFFERED

Chicago Wheat Market Becomes Top Heavy.

BIG MOVEMENT EXPECTED

Tone Is Easy From Start to Finish. Weakness at Minneapolis and Duluth—Corn Is Weak and Oats Firm.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—With suitable weather for harvesting, the belief that the Northwestern movement will be early and heavy took a stronger hold on many wheat traders on the local exchange and they eagerly took profits or sold for short account. The offerings were too much for the market without any great amount of outside speculative support and consequently a decidedly heavier feeling prevailed from start to finish. At the low point, prices were from 1⅝ to 1⅞c below the best of the day. Extreme weakness of the Minneapolis and Duluth markets, which apparently confirmed the good crop reports, gave additional impetus to the declining tendency here. There was a moderate rally from the low point, but the close was weak. September opened ⅛@¼c lower to a shade higher at 92¾@93¼c, declined to 91¼c and closed at 91¾c.

Ideal weather generally for corn caused free selling of that cereal at the start and resulted in a moderate decline. The slump in wheat also inspired some selling, but a number of damage reports from Central and Southern Illinois and from Missouri tended to offset this influence. The close was weak. September opened ½@⅝c lower at 75¼@75¼c, sold between 75⅛c and 75⅝c and closed at 75⅛c.

Oats opened easy in sympathy with wheat and corn, but later the market rallied on a good shipping demand. The market closed firm. September opened ⅛@¼c to ¼@⅜c lower at 45⅝@45⅜c, advanced to 46½c and closed at 46⅜c.

Provisions were firm early in the day, but weakened, owing to the break in corn and wheat. At the close pork was unchanged at $15.07½. Lard was 2½c lower at $9.27½, and ribs were 5@7½c lower.

Tragedy After Lovers' Quarrel.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Bedford, Ind., says: The shooting to death of Miss Della Henderson, 19 years old, yesterday, while her sweetheart was calling on her, presents a mystery which the local police as yet have not solved. The bullet entered the girl's head and came out at the mouth. Her sweetheart says that he left Miss Henderson in the room alone a few moments while he stepped out to get a bucket of water. He says he heard the shot and ran back into the room, finding the girl lying on the floor with the revolver in her hand and the wound in her head. The tragedy is believed to have been the result of a lover's quarrel and so far as known the young man was the only person near her when the shot was fired.

CHANG CASE SET FOR TRIAL

Slayer of Diplomat Stevens Faces Jury September 21.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—The case of In Whan Chang, accused of the murder of Durham White Stevens, former advisor to the Corean government, came up today before Judge Conley, who is sitting in Judge Cook's department of the Superior Court, and was set for trial on September 21. The postponement was due to the fact that the court is now engaged in the trial of James Treadwell for perjury.

The shooting of Mr. Stevens occurred on March 23, this year, at the Ferry Station at the foot of Market street, just as he was starting for Washington, D. C. Chang, with another Corean named Chung, lay in wait and when Stevens alighted from an automobile, Chung struck him a blow in the face. He started for his assailant, when Chang, who had a revolver in his hand, concealed by a handkerchief, began firing at him. The first shot struck and seriously wounded Chung, who was running away, with Stevens in pursuit. Two shots were fired, both striking Stevens, inflicting wounds from which he died three days later. The Coreans held Stevens responsible for Japanese ascendancy in their native land, and it has been stated that Chang's defense will be "Patriotic Insanity." His case, originally set for July 27, was postponed until today by agreement of counsel.

Shock Causes Her Death.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The shock caused her by the sight of the mangled hand of her son is thought to have caused indirectly the death of Mrs. Robert A. Howie, 50 years of age, of East Orange. Her son, Alexander, hurt his hand, and the mother set about the task of dressing the injured member. She remarked at the time that the sight made her feel faint and queer. She went upstairs to her room, and in a few seconds the members of the family heard the sound of a fall. They found Mrs. Howie unconscious on the floor. Physicians were summoned, but they failed to revive her. It is thought that concussion of the brain was the cause of her death.

Killed While Playing Indian.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17. — While playing "soldiers and Indians" Edward Finerty, a 12-year-old boy, of Gary, Ind., was shot and killed by John Gormley, a 15-year-old companion.

When the "Indians" under command of young Finerty, attacked the "stronghold" of the troops, Young Gormley flourished a revolver. It was not known that the weapon was loaded. There was a report and the Finerty boy fell with a bullet wound in the back of his head. The Gormley boy is being held by the police until the accident is investigated by the Coroner's jury.

Rain Badly Needed in Hawaii.

HONOLULU, Aug. 17.—The severest drought experienced in this country for a number of years is being felt in the Kulai region of Maui. This is a region devoted to small farming. There has been no rain there for nearly a year. Crops have failed and animals are dying for want of water. Many of the people have been obliged to leave the region.

Woman Drowns in Cistern.

POCAHONTAS, Ark., Aug. 17.—Jumping or falling into a cistern full of water, Mrs. D. N. Dial, prominent in society and wife of an optician here, met death by drowning yesterday.

Tomorrow and Thursday will positively be the last days for discount on East Side gas bills. Portland Gas Company. **
