ADVISORY COMMITTEE TO MEET.

The advisory charter revision committee, appointed by the United East Side Push Clubs at the meeting of July 14, will be called together for the first time this month. It is composed of the following members: L. B. Rice and Phil S. Bates, of the Waverly-Richmond Club; Dr. U. M. Green and C. L. Daggett, of the North Adams Club; William Deveny, of Montavilla; H. H. Newhall, of the East Side Business Men's Club; Father Gregory, of the Brooklyn Republican and Improver; Robert Club; Dr. M. Davis, Multnomah Club; Frank J. Perkins, of Mount Tabor; W. L. Boise, of the East Side Improvement Association; M. G. Munly, of the North East Side Improvement Association. This committee was appointed on the suggestion and motion of M. G. Munly to submit to the regularly appointed charter revision committee the several amendments that have come before the federated clubs for consideration. There has been a number of amendments proposed and before the federation. Some have been settled by the decision of the Supreme Court, but others are pending and the committee will submit them to the revision committee. The suggested amendments relate to the placing of parked streets in charge of the Park Commission, providing rock curbs, improving streets by districts and municipal lighting. As this committee was appointed before the charter revision commission was named, it has yet held no meetings.

CITY MEET TONIGHT.

The arch of welcome is torn down, as ordered by the Executive Board last Friday. It seems altogether probable that the city will have to do the work. Friday days were given the contractor in which to tear it down, but as he is gone, it seems plain that the contractor will have to do the work. The contractor, when he took the contract last May, agreed to have the work completed in time for the opening day of the Rose Festival, June 1. The time was too short, however, and he failed. In fact, it was incomplete until last week, when the contractor Taylor made an inspection and reported to the Executive Board that the arch was ready for acceptance. Instead of accepting it, the members of the board ordered it torn down within 30 days, and refused to pay for it.

CELEBRATE 30TH ANNIVERSARY.

Arrangements are being made for celebrating the 30th anniversary of Evening Star Grange at the hall on the Section Line road, Saturday, September 5. J. J. Johnson, the master, is sending out invitations to 30 members to be present to enjoy a reunion. A number of visitors also are expected. The programme will be appropriate. On this occasion an effort will be made to raise enough to make some improvements to the hall, which has been found too small. The cost will be $500, and $70 of this amount has been subscribed, but at least $20 more is needed before work on the addition proposed can be started. Evening Star is the largest grange in Oregon. Master Johnson, in his address to the members to come to the anniversary celebration September 5, prepared to put their shoulders to the wheel and give a big boost to the building fund.

POLICE AFTER FARCHI.

Louis Farchi, an unruly individual, whose antipathy towards his mother-in-law took the form of riding her home with bullets, some weeks ago, returned to Portland yesterday, thus breaking an agreement with Municipal Judge Van Zante never to again show his face inside the city limits. Farchi is being looked for by the police. Mrs. Farchi reported the fact of his return to the police. She had hoped she was rid of him for good, since his favorite pastime is beating her and terrorizing her life. Farchi is under a suspended sentence and is likely to become a rockpile recruit if located by the police.

GOOD RETURNS FROM ONE ACRE.

What man can do with a few acres of Oregon land is shown by the experience of A. G. Krause, a letter carrier, who owns seven and a half acres of land near Mount Tabor, which he has in fruit and berries. Mr. Krause has one acre in blackberries, from which he will market 10,000 boxes, which will bring 4 to 4 1/2 cents, or $40 to $50 gross returns from the acre. Mr. Krause is in the fruit-raising business simply as a diversion from his daily work. Specimens of the blackberries raised on his place are now on exhibition at Meier & Frank Company's.

FUNERAL OF PHILIP SELLING.

The funeral services of the late Philip Selling, father of Mrs. M. Stohler, will be held Sunday morning at the family residence, 324 Main street. A large number of friends of the deceased were present. The services were conducted by Dr. J. W. Wise, rabbi of Temple Beth Israel. The interment was in the Beth Israel Cemetery. The pallbearers were: B. Neustadter, Samuel W. Herman, S. Hirsch, Felix Kahn, Samuel Herman, Morris Ball.

REV. D. M. CATHEY APPOINTED.

Rev. D. M. Cathey, of Oregon, has been appointed pastor of the First Free Methodist Church, East Ninth and East Mill streets, to fill the place made vacant by the death of Rev. John Glen. Rev. Mr. Cathey and family will move into the manse this week and next. Mr. Cathey will begin his work next Sunday. He is well known in the Free Methodist churches in Multnomah and Washington counties until August 25, 1908.

WILL HOLD SPECIAL MEETING.

The United East Side Push Clubs will hold a special meeting tonight at Sargent Hotel, Grand avenue, at 8 o'clock, to consider the bridge question.

SHOW DELIGHTS ALL

Opening of Orpheum Vaudeville Charms Audience.
Everybody reads his proclamations and practically everybody responds with a deplorable anticipation for all-for the young because the experience is new, and for those who are older because of the memories awakened—the memories of the boy or girl who years ago stood before the billboards and marveled at the unfamiliar animals and acrobatic feats there pictured; who stood in the throng upon the street and saw the parade go by, and who later saw the reality from some hard-earned seat under the canvas.

ORCHESTRA PLACE VACANT

Brilliant Array of Stage Talent In Success at Local Playhouse, Opinion of Critic.
The reputation of the Orpheum circuit was sufficient of itself to fill the rechristened Marquam, and the quality of the acts is such that it only remains to tell the truth about the show to fill the theater at every performance this week.
