NEW POSTAL RULES RECEIVED.-Post-master J. W. Minio yesterday received notice from the Postoffice Department advising him that beginning August 15 the size of packages admitted to the parcel-fost mail exchange between this country and England had been increased from four pounds six ounces to 11 pounds. The dimensions of all such mackages must not four pounds six ounces to 11 pounds. The dimensions of all such packages must not exceed three feet aix inches and six feet in length and girth combined. The rate of postage on such packages from the United States will be 12 cents a pound or fraction of a pound. This arrange-ment has been concurred in by the postal department of Great Britain. The Post-iand office also has been notified that after October 1, next, the postage rate on latters belaver the United States and England will be 3 cents, instead of 5 cents, as at present.

Demons Plans in Okana.-Charles W. Shrader, who has conducted a large gro-cery business in Omaha, Neb., for the past 20 years, spent a few days in Port-land, accompanied by his wife, last week, leaving for Puget Sound yesterday. Mr. Shrader sold his establishment and took a vacation, which embraced the inter-mountain country and the Coast. Speak-ing of Omaha as a market for Oregon products. Mr. Shrader says the Oregon Bartlett pear, side by side with the Cali-foria pear, selia at the ratilo of eight to one right along, the former being sold all through, while the other has a mushy interior, which people have not been slow to learn. Oregon prunes are in demand in that market, but customers seen to prefer the 50-98 rather than the larger fruit that is the glory of the Beaver state. Bustow of Lonors.-William Mead, su-SESSION OF LODGES -- William Mead, su-preme treasurer of the Fraternal Broth-erhood of Los Angeles, Cal, will be in Portland Thursday of this week, and upon that night will be the guest of honor of Multhoman Lodge No. 367. The six local lodges of the city, with their escorts, have been invited to attend. A special car from Orogon City will be run, bring-ing a large number of members from there, as well as from St. John and other near-by points. A class of candidates to the number of 35 have been secured for initiation upon this occasion. F. E. Tay-SESSION OF LODGES .- William Mead, su the number of 3a have been secured for initiation upon this occasion. F. E. Tay-lor, state manager of the order, will con-duct the initiatory work. WANTS MOCK'S FARM & PARK.-Ai the meeting of the University Park Board of Trade Monday night, held in the office of S. G. Shray & Co., the park question was discussed. T. A. Ketchum called at-tention to the Mock farm, which is just south of Columbia Park and contains about 30 fine acres. He said that the city ought to own this farm and add it to the S0 acres now comprising Columbia Park, making one park of over 100 acres. Mr. Ketchum spoke with emphasis on the park question, declaring that within ieu years there will be over 100,000 people on the Peninsula slone. He pointed out that the establishment of the Swift plant will bring thousands, and that many kindred the establishment of the Swift plant will bring thousands, and that many kindred industries will contribute their part. Oth-ers spoke favoring making an effort to have the eity secure the Mock tract. The matter was referred to the park commit-tee. The need of fire protection also was considered. It was declared that there was absolutely no protection at Univer-sity Park and Portamouth. The secretary was instructed to address a communica-tion to the chief of the fire department and Mayor Lane calling attention to the defenseless condition of all property and asking for protection of some sort. PARALYSIS ENDS LIFE OF IN-DIAN WAR VETERAN.

Well-Known Resident, Whose Years Approached 80, Remembered for His Numerous Kindnesses.

In the death of Richard H. Holmes, which occurred at his home, 1199 East Taylor street, suddenly Monday, there passed from life a well-known ploneer and Indian war veteran at N years of age. Death was sudden from paralysis. Sunday he was in the enjoyment of ap-the public baths. Mayor Lane laughed long and loud, when it became known that Joseph Supple is receiving $75 a month from the Inde-pendent Coal & Ice Company for the use of a city street. It appealed to him as an excellent joke. However, that the joke is about to become more or less serious, is evidenced by the fact that the Mayor instructed Parkkeeper Mische to make a roport in writing on the subject. It was Mr. Mische who reported the case, and from the records of the Council pro-ceedings, during 1905, it is shown that the Council granted Mr. Supple a special per-mit to occupy the city street. Special Permit Illegal. Parkkeeper Mische asked the Mayor and members of the Park Board their opinion whether Mr. Supple could secure an injunction against the city if the pub-opinion whether Mr. Supple could secure an injunction against the city if the pub-lic baths were moved up to the foot of East Yamhill street, and suggested that an opinion be had from City Attorney Kavanaugh. Mayor Lane replied that an opinion from Mr. Kavanaugh on that point is not required; that the special permit is illegal, which has already been ruled by Mr. Kavanaugh, and he gave orders to proceed with the placing of the baths there, so far as that point is con-cerned. He also called for a written re-port from Mr. Mische, saying he would take up the matter at once. The Park Board members discussed plans for the improvement of the general park system in Portland, and ordered sets of detail plans to be secured from Oim-sted Bros., landscape experts, so that the Board may have data in full upon which to work.

He then moved to Portland and became a finisher-carpen-ter, doing the finer work on the Oregon Steam Navigation Company's river steamers, the old Trinity Church and many of the early homes of Portland. In 1955-66, when the Capuse Indian War broke out, he joined Captain Ankeny's company of Oregon Volunteers and fought through that outbreak. He then spent 16 years on a farm in Tillamook, when he moved to The Dalles, remaining only a few years.
