BUTTER IS UP AGAIN

Local Market Will Advance 1 1-2 Cents Today.

SHORTAGE IN SUPPLY

Price Lower Than at This Time Last Year—Seattle Heavy Buyer of Cheese—Wheat Market Is Quiet.

Local butter prices will advance 1½ cents per pound this morning. The best grades of city creamery will be quoted at 21½ cents. Production is small at this time of year, and as the local and shipping demand continues large, the supply has fallen below requirements.

The price movement will continue in an upward direction during the remainder of the season. The lowest price of the season was 22½ cents, which was current from May 5 to May 11. On this date last year, butter sold in the local market at 37½ cents, two years ago at 26 cents, three years ago at 30 cents and four years ago at 25 cents. The highest price reached in that time was 37½ cents.

The cheese market is also very firm, but higher prices are not looked for in the immediate future. Seattle is a heavy buyer of cheese, as well as butter, and local stocks of cheese in wholesalers' hands are well cleaned up. Advices from Tillamook are that supplies there are also light.

WHEAT QUIET BUT FIRM.

Farmers Are Slow Sellers at Prices Now Offered.

Very little business is reported from the country in the wheat line. Growers are firm holders and nothing short of an advance, apparently, will cause them to let go. Prices quoted by exporters are unchanged. They are above export values, but the large buyers, like the growers, are apparently bullish.

Bids at the Board of Trade were on a level with Wednesday's offers. Receipts for the day were 29 cars and 5530 sacks wheat, 6 cars and 170 sacks oats, 7 cars and 800 sacks barley, 1371 sacks flour and 17 cars and 1184 bales hay.

The range of futures was as follows (f. o. b. warehouse, Portland):

WESTERN WOOLS IN THE EAST.

Sales of Oregon Lighter, but Prices Hold Firm.

Mail advices just received from Boston report that sales of Oregon wool are smaller than in the preceding week, but there is a sustained interest in best descriptions and transfers of the week include a fair amount of Nos. 1 and 2 Eastern. The former sold on the scoured basis of 58c and the latter at around 53c. About 45,000 pounds XXXX scoured changed hands, but terms are private.

In territory wools, sales have been large in comparison with the transactions of previous weeks. Selections are much better and there is a demand for worsted wools and the better class of clothing stock. Fine staple Montana sold up to 60c clean, grease prices ranging from 20 to 21c. Good clothing wool has been taken at 16 to 17c, to cost 50 to 52c clean, for fine. Among the transfers in the original bags are several good-sized lines of Montana at 20 to 21c and of Idaho at 19 to 20c, to cost 55c, scoured. A line of 350,000 pounds of fine staple changed hands at close to 55c clean.

RECEIPTS OF PEACHES INCREASING.

Local Stock Is Now Coming in From all Directions.

The Oregon peach season has opened in earnest. Receipts from all sources yesterday were large, 200 boxes coming from Ashland alone. These Crawfords sold well at 75@85 cents. Roseburg crawfords were quoted at 50@75 cents, according to quality. A car of California stock was due last night.

Three cars of watermelons arrived, but cantaloupes were in short supply and very firm. A car of fancy Malaga grapes was received and quoted at $1.50.

In the vegetable line supplies generally were good, except of tomatoes, which were higher.

Light Arrivals of Poultry.

The pressure of farm work is evidently responsible for the small quantities of poultry now being marketed. The demand, especially for chickens, is active and prices are very firm as last quoted.

There was no change in the egg market yesterday. The demand was fair and on good stock full prices were realized. Receipts for the day were 253 cases.

Bank Clearings.

Clearings of the Northwestern cities yesterday were as follows:

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK MARKET.

Prices Current Locally on Cattle, Sheep and Hogs.

Livestock dealers complain of the large proportion of inferior and underfed stock now coming in, which has a tendency to weaken prices all around. This is especially the case with hogs, but some poor cattle, sheep and calves are also being marketed. For prime stock there is a first-class demand, but the inferior stuff is hard to dispose of. Receipts yesterday were 170 cattle, 246 sheep, 165 hogs and 40 calves.

REGAIN EARLY LOSS

Harriman Stocks Lead in Late Rise.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC AT TOP

Pennsylvania and New York Central Drop Early in Day, but Favorable News Later Corrects Market Tendency.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The reactionary tendency in the stock market which became so pronounced in yesterday's late operations gathered fresh momentum today, resulting in temporary losses in a number of active issues.

No very definite news accompanied the downward movement except persistent rumors of the probable dismissal of 4000 employes of the Pennsylvania system on or before September 1. There was further acute weakness in New York Central, both here and abroad, although in London the opinion prevails that the reduction of the coming dividend will be averted.

To offset these adverse factors advices from Pittsburg reported a marked increase in the tonnage handled by the railroads of that district and also preparations by the steel companies for large equipment orders.

The news from the Western and Southwestern sections was optimistic in the extreme, rains the past two weeks having apparently given great relief. Corn seems to have been especially benefited and officials of the Burlington Route reported indications of a 100 per cent car run in that staple.

Little significance attached to the business on the exchange, which was restricted in volume in the final hour, when recoveries from the early depression were made under the lead of the Harriman issues, and the greater part of the day's early loss gave place to net gains.

The sensational decline in cotton was hardly a market influence, although the wild and indiscriminate selling of that commodity was in some quarters regarded as a bear argument. The close was strong under the lead of Southern Pacific, which reached its high price under this movement.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,263,000. Government bonds were unchanged on call.

BREAK IN COTTON MARKET.

Heavy Selling by Wall Street Causes Prices to Tumble.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Cotton prices suffered a sensational break in the local market today. The September delivery sold down to 8.81c, which is 37 points under yesterday's closing figure and $5 per bale below the recent high mark.

The selling today was frenzied and indiscriminate, but the opinion of traders was that the bulk of it was by Wall street speculators, whose purchases caused the decline last week. This interest is believed to have sold 75,000 bales this morning.

Futures closed steady. Closing bids: August, 9.58c; September, 8.81c; October, 8.70c; November, 8.60c; December, 8.60c; January, 8.58c; February, 8.61c; March, 8.64c.

Prunes are quiet, with buyers evidently disposed to hold off, although there is no sign of weakening on the part of the Coast holders. Quotations range from 4 to 15c for California and from 6½ to 7½c for Oregon fruit.

Apricots are in moderate demand on spot. Choice are quoted at 8¾@9c, extra choice at 9½@10c and fancy at 10½@11c.

HEAVY PACK OF SALMON

COAST OUTPUT LARGEST SINCE 1905.

Seattle Produce Markets Quiet, With Few Changes—Scarcity of New Crop Hay.

SEATTLE, Aug. 20.—Discussing the salmon pack of 1908, the Pacific Fishermen, issued today, says:

With a pack of Alaska reds exceeding by many thousands of cases that of last year, a pack of sockeyes on Puget Sound that will show an increase of over 40 per cent, a production of the same grade in British Columbia that will at least equal that of the previous season, a pack on the Columbia River that, at the present time, is 15 per cent in advance of that at this time in 1907, and encouraging reports from the pink salmon districts of Alaska and the Washington and Oregon coast districts, the aggregate canned salmon pack of the Pacific Coast for the season of 1908 promises to be the heaviest since 1905, the last big season, when the "fourth year" run of sockeys on Puget Sound and the Fraser River swelled the totals to almost 5,000,000 cases.

SEATTLE PRODUCE MARKET QUIET.

Yakima Grapes Take the Place of California and Oregon Stock.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—The markets were all quiet here today, with very few fluctuations. Peaches came in more freely than at any time this year. Under an active demand, however, stocks cleaned up at yesterday's prices. Yakima grapes have made their appearance and orders for California and Oregon stocks are being cut down.

There is still a scarcity of good shipping potatoes. There is plenty of inferior stock in the market, but most of this is too green for Alaska orders.

The flour market is weak in spite of the fact that wheat is holding up. There is a surprising scarcity of new hay in the market. Alfalfa is in the market, but in poor demand.

Poultry is firm. Butter and eggs are unchanged.

BELIEVES MONKEYS THINK

Harvard Professor Convinced by His Experiments at Zoo.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Professor Melvin E. Haggerty, of Harvard University, who has been studying monkeys in the Bronx Zoo Park for the past month, has proved to his own satisfaction that some of them at least are not merely imitators of the human species, but have an initiative. In one of his tests he had a platform built extending about five feet outside the cage occupied by the orang outangs, Mickey and Minnie. On the extreme end of this he placed a bunch of bananas and some luscious peaches. Then he placed in the cage a long stick with a hook in the end and went away. He had not been gone five minutes when Mickey looked at Minnie, winked and laughed. Minnie winked and laughed, too. Then Mickey got the hook and raked in the fruit and they had a delicious meal. Later Professor Haggerty tried the trick on Baldy, the chimpanzee, but he got the fruit within close range before the hook was ready and there was no need to go any further. Baldy also had an enjoyable time. The professor has some other tricks in stock which, he believes, will demonstrate his theory beyond any doubt.

WHEAT AT TOP PRICE

Chicago Miller Pays $1.34 for Cash Grain.

OPTION MARKET IS FIRM

Buying Eases Off After Middle of Day and Sentiment Is Less Bullish — September Oats Strong.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—The wheat market opened active and strong, but quieted down considerably before the middle of the session, while at the same time sentiment in the pit became less bullish. Shorts in the September delivery were eager bidders early in the day, owing to the small offerings of cash Winter wheat in the interior and to the brisk demand by exporters and Eastern millers. Elevator concerns continued to dodge the possibility of being compelled to deliver their wheat in store on September contracts by covering their short sales in that month and re-selling for December at a further shrinkage in the price for the latter. A local mill paid $1.34 per bushel for 1000 bushels of No. 1 hard, which is a new high price for the crop. The foreign situation also furnished considerable support to the local market. Weather conditions in the Northwest, which were ideal for harvesting, seem to have little effect today. The market closed firm for September and December, and barely steady for May. September wheat was up ⅝c.

The corn market was strong at the start. During the last half of the day, sentiment became easier. The close was irregular. September opened ⅜@½c higher at 77½@77⅝c, advanced to 78¼c and closed at 77⅜c.

Traders in oats were chiefly interested in the September delivery, which advanced nearly 1 cent early in the day on lively covering by shorts. The close was firm. September opened 1¼@1½c higher at 48⅜@48⅝c, advanced to 49¼c and closed at 48⅞c.

Provisions were firm. At the close September pork was up 7½c, lard was up 2½c and ribs were 2½@5c higher.

RECEIVER FOR WALSH ROAD

Federal Jurisdiction Extends Over Indiana Southern.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—Federal jurisdiction now extends over the Southern Indiana Railroad Company through the appointment of a receiver in the United States Circuit Court for the road, which has long been regarded as the best of what are known as the John R. Walsh railroads.

On a petition presented by counsel for the First Trust & Savings Bank, of Chicago, the representatives of the Chicago Clearing-House Association, Judge Christian C. Kohlsaat late last night appointed M. J. Carpenter, formerly president of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad Company, receiver of the Southern Company. Failure to meet the interest on the bonded indebtedness of the road was the approximate cause of the appointment by the court.

The Southern Indiana was the first road acquired by John R. Walsh in extending his banking business from banking lines to a wider financial expansion, and the money employed to develop the road and finance the other railroad enterprises formed a large part of the charges in the trial which preceded the conviction of the aged banker on a charge of misapplication of the funds of the Chicago National Bank, of which he had been president.

The receivership, which now covers the Southern Indiana road alone, will probably be extended to the Chicago Southern Railway Company, which was designed to connect the Southern Indiana road with Chicago.

A motion asking for an extension of the receivership has been presented to the Federal court, and will be argued on Saturday.

CRUEL HUSBAND FINED

Wife Prosecutes Him for Crippling Her Kitten.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Mrs. Fannie Mahon, a small woman, appeared yesterday in the Court of Special Sessions and charged her husband, James, a giant longshoreman, with cruelty to a kitten in their home.

According to Mrs. Mahon, her husband was lying on a lounge when the kitten stole up and purred against his arm, which was hanging down toward the floor. The man took off his heavy brogan and with one blow paralyzed the kitten.

Mrs. Mahon called a policeman, who shot the animal to put it out of its misery, and then on the wife's complaint arrested Mahon.

Justice Wyatt fined Mahon $10, which he paid. His wife refused to speak to him in the courtroom.
