President Ewing in San Francisco Discusses League Situation. J. Cal Ewing has returned to San Francisco and is discussing the baseball situation in the Pacific Northwest.

DOUBT WISDOM OF EXPANSION. Ewing informs the San Francisco public that Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane are "jazy" towns, or words to that effect, for he declares that those places do not have the population to support a team that would be able to win even one game a season in such fast company as the Coast League.

FAIRBANKS TEAM ARRIVES. Baseball Players Will Leave Seattle Monday on Tour. SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 21.—(Special.)—The Fairbanks baseball team arrived in Seattle today and will start Monday on a tour of the states.

CLASS LISTS OUT FOR HORSE SHOW

Entries for Portland Exhibit on Like Basis to Those of Eastern Shows.

RESTRICTIONS ARE Milder

Appointments to Be Given Big Percentage in Markings of Fancy Classes—Encouragement for Coachmen.

The classification list of the Portland Hunt Club show has just been completed by President McGrath and his assistant, Samuel E. Kramer. McGrath calls attention to the superiority of the many fancy classes and to the fact that it is practically the same list used in the big Eastern shows, being a bit less severe as to restrictions. The fact that appointments are given a big percentage in the markings of the fancy classes induces exhibitors which will make up a classy show, and one which will excel anything ever attempted on the Pacific Coast.

Encouragement is offered coachmen of exhibitors to strive for the best in entries and driving by cash competition prizes, $100 being set aside for that class. The sporting tandem will have many entries and the many classes provided for ladies will be attractive. Following is the official classification list:

- Class 1—Trotters, 15 hands 1 inch and under. To be judged by their conformation, quality, manners and style of going. Must be practically sound and shown to an appropriate four-wheeled vehicle. Three prizes.
