CHOOSES EAST SIDE LOTS

Purchase Representing $30,000 the Result of Conversation With Traveling Companion, Who Praise Portland.

David S. Stearns yesterday closed a deal for the west half of lots 5 and 6 of block 54, being a property on Bust Morrison between East Third and Union avenue. The piece, 80x100 feet, has a building of two stories, rented for three years to the Donnelly Hardware Company and the Forbes Auction Company and to a lodging-house of 2 rooms on the second story.

lodging-house of 2 rooms on the second story.

The leases return a revenue of satisfactory percentage on the purchase price of $50,000. The former owners were J. F. Daly and J. Friedenthal and the investor is Major W. P. Gould, of Vincennes, Ind.

Major Gould has recently made a tour of the Coast, from Southern California to as far north as Alaska, and selected Portland as the most promising piace in which to buy income-bearing property. He is an old-time acquaintance of Judge Williams, having formed that acquaintance when Mr. Williams was Attorney-General of the United States. On his return from Alaska, about two weeks ago, he met a Portland man who explained what Portland had accomplished and what its future promised. The Major had a relative in the person of H. D. Ramsdell, of Lipman, Wolfe & Co. of this city, and decided to visit Portland as a matter of social pleasure and to keep his eye open for a business opportunity.

In conversation with his traveling

In conversation with his traveling In conversation with his traveling companion from the North, he made inquiry concerning who would be a good man to consult about Portland investments and Mr. Stearns' name was mentioned. After the selection of the East Side location was brought up to him, he asked Mr. Ramsdell's opinion and was informed that the property was all that it was represented to be. Major Gould, who is now a guest at Alexandra Court, is so favorably impressed with Portland that he has decided to make this city his future home after returning to Indiana and closing up his affairs in that part of closing up his affairs in that part of the country. Mrs. Gould is no less favorably impressed with Portland.

EXECUTE 99 - YEAR LEASE

Tenants to Pay $1000 a Month for Second-Street Corner.

M. E. Freeman, associated with two others whose names are not given, has secured a lease of the lot and building at the northeast corner of Second and at the northeast corner of Second and Alder streets, diagonally across from the new Gerlinger building, just completed. Major Freeman was the contractor of the East Side High School and has been a well-known builder in this city for the past 30 years. He and associates leased the corner under a 50-year term at a rate of $1000 a month. The corner now is improved with a 3-story building, leased to present tenants up to May I of next year, but unon the expiration of these leases, but upon the expiration of these leases, it is the announced intention of the new owners to either add another story or tear down the present structure and put up a three to six-story store and office building next year. QUEER HABITS OF BEASTS

Menagerie Manager Tells Peculiarities of Sleeping Animals.

"When a monkey sleeps he picks out the highest perch he can find," said Keeper Conklin, of the Barnum & Bailey menagerie. "When the only home of the monkey was a forest he lived always in deadly fear of the lion, and a live monkey is the choicast kind of a meal for the king of beasts. Although the monkey is a rather wise boy, and knows that in a zoo the lions are securely caged, the fear of the lion is born in him, and this accounts for hie finding as high a perch as he can to sleep on. "The lioness, when free from family cares, is prone to lie on its back, with fts legs stretched up straight in the air and paws pendant. The lion, when the excitement of the day is gone. stratches itself out fiatly on its side, with paws turned in and twitches and throbs during its slumber a good deal throbs during the like a dog. Gorillas and chimpanaecs sleep with their hands over their heads. Bears, which have no fear, sleep in any position. The same is true of wolves. Animals of a cunning or however, are always on the alert, even when asleep. A seal sleeps like a human being. It stretches out at full length and enters dreamland on its back, stomach or side. Once in a while a seal will sit up with its head
