WIFE COMES BACK

Mrs. Charlotte Hoover Returns to Husband.

WILL DROP DIVORCE SUIT

Asks Court for Separation From Husband in Afternoon, but by Night Agrees to Withdraw Proceedings.

Deserting her home in the Sheffield apartments Saturday, her husband searching the city for her and offering a reward for her discovery on Sunday, filing a suit for divorce Monday, returning home Monday night and agreeing to withdraw divorce proceedings today—these are the scenes in the little domestic comedy, or tragedy rather, of Mrs. Charlotte Hoover and her husband, E. J. Hoover. The husband said last night that the suit would be quashed today and that the disagreeable incident was over.
"My wife has been nervous and ill," said Mr. Hoover last night, "and this condition caused her to leave home and bring this suit for divorce. She has come back home and has agreed to drop the whole thing. She had no cause to complain of her treatment and had she not been ill she would not have done such a thing."
The complaint in the divorce case filed by Mrs. Hoover's attorneys alleges cruel and inhuman treatment and was filed shortly after noon yesterday. The plaintiff represented that life with Hoover had become an unbearable burden because of his ill treatment of her and that she desired the marital bonds severed.
The happy outcome of the Hoovers' troubles clears up what was believed to be the mysterious disappearance of the woman, who left home wearing six diamond rings and carrying almost $1000 in money. Instead of meeting with violence from thieves, as was feared, or trying

WIKINGS TO HONOR QUEEN

GOLDEN CROSS FOR SOVEREIGN OF ASTORIA REGATTA.

MUST PAY OR GO "DRY"

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 24 (Special).—"A mighty thirst" will reign in the prominent clubs in and about the city for some time to come. Judge Reid today overruled the demurrers filed by the clubs to the informations filed against them by the prosecuting attorney. This means that the clubs will either have to stop selling liquor or pay a license fee every year of $1000, and the amount of intoxicants sold by the clubs does not amount to nearly enough to enable them to pay this fee. The clubs affected are the Union Club, University Club, Commercial Club, Country Club and the Elks Lodge. The bars have been maintained as a convenience for members.
