WHERE BRYAN STANDS.

Those numerous supporters of Bryan who justify their course by asserting that the Bryan of today is a materially different man from the Bryan of 1896 or 1900 cannot find any justification for their assertion in the addresses in which the Democratic nominee has declared his attitude upon public questions.

The Oregonian remembers the Tugwell and Baker case. These two worthies were sentenced by the Washington Supreme Court to jail for six months for commenting on a case while it was pending before the court.

Of course no court will ever make an issue with a critic, newspaper or otherwise, who is performing his duty as honestly as he can.

Could anything be clearer than that Mr. Bryan's election is yielding to his political opponents that he holds defiance at them at the very outset of the contest.

Having twice before been a candidate for the Presidency, in campaigns which ended in defeat, a third nomination, the result of the free and voluntary act of the voters of the party, can only be explained by a substantial improvement in his principles and policies for which he stands.

It is reported that Mr. Bryan has been elected to the position of Governor of Oregon. He is a man of noble character and his election is a matter of congratulation to all Oregonians.

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM.

Mr. John E. Humphries is a Seattle lawyer with a vast ambition to be a Supreme Court Justice. That is a worthy purpose, and Mr. Humphries is in no sense censurable for making what capital he can out of the mistakes and inconsistencies of the court, and the differences among its members, since there is a direct primary in Washington and every candidate for office must make a record.

Yes, the Oregonian knows that it is contempt, or may be constructively contempt, to comment on a case pending in any Washington court or before the Supreme Court of the United States, though there is a different rule in Oregon. But it knows, too, that no court will ever undertake to enforce such a rule, since it dare not, against any lawyer or newspaper, for reasonable and temperate criticism of an official act.

plowed under too late the soil will turn up in clods, causing difficulty in working down to a fine mulch, and perhaps causing injury to the fruit trees by reason of the soil drying out too rapidly.

The beneficial results of a cover crop will not be observed until the second year. It will then be found that an orchard where this practice has been adopted will have a loose, mellow soil, easily worked and capable of holding an immense amount of moisture.

Quite likely the production of leguminous cover crops might be overdone, though there have been no reports of experiences of that kind. Plowing under a heavy crop of vetch every year might produce too large a growth of wood.

The subject is one that should be impressed upon the minds of fruit-growers at this season of the year, for it is easy to neglect it until too late. A crop sown in November will make too small a growth to be of much benefit.

A dispatch from Omaha tells of a letter from one of the Zell boys, of Crook County, writing to the postmaster of that city to send him a wife and promising a reward of a double-egg if it is done.

flouring value is trifling. The Oregonian submits that Professor Jones was careless to say the least, to write this letter to Mr. Adams. He must have foreseen that it would be sent far and wide as an advertisement, and he ought to have known that it might possibly help forward a scheme which was not commendable.

In charity one has to assume that Professor Jones was careless and not mercenary, but even carelessness in a man with his responsibilities is not to be pardoned. The farmers have learned to look to the experiment stations for the exact scientific truth.

Mr. Bryan has discharged the second great bomb from his magazine. He has delivered his speech on trusts and a pretty good speech it is from his point of view.

Mr. Bryan's contention that the Republican party has encouraged socialism cannot be admitted for an instant. He refers, of course, to what has been done under the Roosevelt administration. The truth is that Mr. Roosevelt is the only statesman of the last quarter century who has done anything effective to stay the advance of socialism.

ATTACKS THE SUPREME COURT Seattle Lawyer's Caustic Comment on Washington Tribunal's Decision SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 24.—(To the Editor.)—I read the Oregonian's editorial of yesterday in regard to comments upon the decision in the Standard Oil rebate case, and notice that wonder is expressed why it was that lawyers would quietly submit to the decision without comment.

Examine the case of the State of Washington vs. A. R. Tugwell and F. R. Baker, 19 Wash. 238, 38 Pac. 554. It will be found that it is contempt of court to make such charges as are made in The Oregonian's editorial while the petition for rehearing is pending.

MENACE IN THE MILK SUPPLY To Banish Disease From Latter, Enforce System of Pasteurization. U. S. Department of Agriculture Report. The year book of the United States Department of Agriculture, just issued, contains a chapter on milk and infectious diseases from which the following extracts are made.

As has been repeatedly pointed out before the simplest, cheapest and surest way of minimizing these dangers is properly performed pasteurization of the entire low-grade milk supply of the city.
