SATS CONDEMN THE GROUND.-Council-man Wills does not believe that because the nine-acro tract at the foot of Spo-kane avenue, in Selfwood, which was kane avenue, in Seliwood, which was wanted for park purposes, is lost because it has been sold to the East Side Sawmill Company. He said yesterday that the land could be had by starting condemna-tion proceedings at once. The truct is the only available piece on the river at Seliwood. Councilman Wills said that no time should now be lost in obtaining a number of small tracts for parks before the available pieces are sold for residence or business purposes and the cost becomes or business purposes and the cost become very high. He said that he was oppose to the purchase of large tracts anywhere in the city, either on the East Side or West Side, but favors a number of smaller West Side, but favore a number of smaller parks close to the people. "The trouble with some of the members of the Park Commission," declared Mr. Wills, "is that they are not practical. We want a sys-tem that will accommodate the people. If Mr. Lang had about $10,000,000 he would be a good man to turn loose in Portland, but we have not that much money and must cut our cloth accordingly. Let us have a number of small parks, breathing mote bere and there, and not great tracks ere and there, and not great tracts anywhere anywhere." Comprisering County Exhibit.-A. F. Miller, of Sellwood, who is preparing the fait exhibit for Multinomali County, aya that the display of grasses and provide the sensor of the second the full and vegetables, owing to the back-wordness of the sensor, it has been diffi-full to collect a creditable display. In small fruits, including cherries, straw-worthes, blackberries and peaches, Mr. Miller has got togother a very fine dis-play. In cherries Multinomah County will take high rank. Mr. Miller hast week for on Columbia Slough, which he con-siders the best he has seen. In potatoes, farm on Columbia Floring, which he cost siders the best he has seen. In potatoes, apples and vegetables the collection is promplete, but as there is nearly a month yet before the state fair opens Mr. Mil-ler expects to bring these up in time. Run Down at GRAVEL WAGON.-Alex Carter, a laborer, 51 years of age, was crossing the street at First and Alder streets late yesterday aftermoon, when he was run over by a gravel wagon carry-ling a load weighing two tons. His right foot was terribly crushed and the old man sank to the pavement with a scream of pain. H. Hawley, a real estate broker, who has an office on First street just opposite where the accident occurred, went to the old man's assistance and heiped him to the sidewalk. In the mean-time the driver of the wagon had gone off totally indifferent as to what had helonged to C. J. Cook, the contractor. Mr. Cook was telephoned for and came one was sure that it was his wagon which had run over the injured man, his dut with the ssiftsince of one of the bystanders, and conveyed him to St. Vin-onet's Hospital, where he made arrange-ments for the man's cite. Cartor was on his way from Salem, where he had byted for a number of years, to Bridal Vell, where he expected to get work. He will probably be confined to the hospital. TO BE ENTERTAINED HERE

Oregon Association Will Meet to Plan Reception to Lawyers Returning From National Convention at Scattle.

Members of the Oregon Bar Association will have an opportunity to entertain prominent members of the profession, who will stop here on their way home from the gathering of the American Bar Association in Seattle. Plans are being laid to give the visitors a good impres-sion of the city, and features of enter-tainment are now being discussed. President R. W. Montague, of the Ore-gon Bar Association, has called a meet-ing of the organization for tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in department No. 1 of the Circuit Court, when the enter-tainment of the visitors will be consid-ered. President Montague desires a large attendance of the attorneys of the city and state, and asks that members of the profession outside of the city attend if Members of the Oregon Bar Association and state, and asks that members of the profession outside of the city attend if possible. Invitations are being sent to havyers in the city asking them to at-tend the meeting, but on second of the lack of time for the outside lawyers to be notified in that way it is requested that they come without waiting for in-vitations. A committee, headed by R. T. Platt,

Mammoth Display of Men's Fall Clothes

> Our unique position as Portland's largest purveyors of male attire, and leading anthority on correct clothes for men of every walk and station of life, will be more sharply emphasized this Fall than ever before.

> Words don't tell it; this is a free country and the language belongs to us all. Poor stuff sounds as good in advertising as the best. You need to see the clothes; and wear them. If you come and look here you'll get a good clothes education; you'll know correct style, best fabrics and patterns. You'll learn why this has become the greatest good clothes business in Portland. a bartender, was held up at East Sev-enth and Burnside streets at 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning, while on his way to work. Two men did the job, one com-manding his position with artillery, while the other conducted a foraging expedi-tion through his raiment. The price of a quart of wine was taken from his vest a quart of whe was taken from his vest pocket, together with a cheap watch. In looking for the hold-up men the police took Edward Jackson, a railroad man. In on suspicion, Jackson had a revolver in his pocket, but managed to prove that he was not in the hold-up business. He was taken into the Municipal Court and fined 316 for carrying a fun fined $16 for carrying a gun, Will TAKE CARE OF THE WATER.

WILL TAKE CARE OF THE WATER-Water from Hawthorne Springs will be taken care of at East Ninth and Sulmon streets, where there is already a fill. The spillway under the fill will be closed up, which will raise the water high enough to conduct the overflow into the constraint processory is large lotter colla up, which will inlice the ward has enough to conduct this overflow into the Sunnyside sewer by a large terra cotta pipe. This method will cause a consid-erable lake south of East Salimon street, but it is the only feasible way to pro-vide an outlet from the slough. CHARTER COMMISSION TONIGHT. - The charter commission will hold its second session at the City Hall tonight, when reports will be made by three commit-tees, one on the Des Moines plan of city government and one on the present sys-tem. It is thought probable that, because of the brief time which the committees have had to work in, they will not be ready to report at much length, and that they will ask further time.
