DR. R. C. COFFEY ATTACKED IN MEDICAL SENTINEL.

Other Physicians Say Dr. H. W. Coe, Editor, Fears That He Will Lose Paying Publication.

Epithets fly thick and fast in the current issue of the Medical Sentinel. There is a full broadside, directed for the most part at Dr. R. C. Coffey, former president of the Oregon Medical Association. The attack is made by Dr. H. W. Coe. And while Dr. Coffey declines to make any reply, further than to say the assault of the property of t full broadside, directed for the most part last night. "It is a case of much ado about nothing. Something has been pub-lished about all Portland physicians being worked up in the matter. The only man really aroused is Dr. Coe. His ar-ticles will not be answered. I think Dr. Coffey's friends understand."

The article in question is not a direct

The article in question is not a direct attack. It wends its way over several columns of innuendo, sarcasm and velled columns of innuendo, sarcasm and veiled accusations. It refers in sarcastic vein to Dr. Coffey's experimental dissection of guinea pigs, of his profuse writing of technical papers, of the numerous color prints for these papers prepared by a special artist. It auggests that much of Dr. Coffey's scientific work is purely spectacular and intimates that he plagiarized his ideas, dressing them up with irrelevant additions. Commercialism of a most unscientific character, surgery as a trade, are two of the phrases used by Dr. Coe. Extracts from the article follow:

"The claim is made that much of the of printed matter emanating from his pub-leity bureau, in 10,000 lots, the vast pro-portion is rehash from other writers, with additions of immaterial value.

"The claim is also made that the 10,000 reprints from his works are not an evidence of high-class scientific attainments, but of a commercialism of the most un-scientific character. That the publicity room savors more of a patent medicine joint than of a high-class medical man, such as the president of the State Med-ical Society should be."

He also set out in the article that Dr.

It is also set out in the article that Dr. Coffey was selected as president of the state association on a slate prepared at the annual meeting a year ago at Seaside, and that only his friends get position on the programme at annual meetings. It is charged that the doctor divides fees while Dr. Coffey declines to make any reply, further than to say the assault of words is beneath his notice, there is not a little comment pro and con in the local medical world.

If is charged directly that Dr. Coe is attempting to obscure the real issue in the efforts of Dr. Coffey and other physicians to have the Pacific Coast medical publications taken over by the medical ecceities of Oregon, Washington and idaho, thus putting them out as official papers. It is urged that Dr. Coe has a mint in the Medical Sentinel and naturally does not wish to part with the property.

"Dr. Coe's attack on Dr. Coffey grows out of this plan to take over the publications," said a well-known physician last night. "It is a case of much ado about nothing. Something has been published about all Portland physicians of the class working the mouth as a case inst night and Dr. Coe was out to the proposition of having and Dr. Coe was out of this plan to take over the publications." said a well-known physician last night. "It is a case of much ado about nothing. Something has been published about all Portland physicians of the class work of the class working the session, the clans working the session, the class the class working the session, the class working the session, the
