

Revolution in Full Swing in South and West,

TEHERAN, Aug. 28 .- The latest news that has reached here by courier confirms the reports that the revolu-tion is in full swing in the western and southern parts of Persia. All three tribes in Persian Kurdistan have raised the banner of revolution under the leadership of constitutionalists, and demand the immediate convocation of parliament; otherwise they threaten to declare for independence. The govern-ment officials are failing into the hands of the insurgents everywhere. and a large number of soldiers have been killed. The governor of Sultanieh has fled with a small remnant of loyal troops, the remainder of the troops hav-ing joined the insurgeous. ing joined the insurgents. The gover-nor's residence was pillaged and and burned. The uprising in the provinces of Floristan and Karman, reports of which were received here a few days are is rapidly gaining ground. The ago, is rapidly gaining ground. The city of Karman is entirely in the hands of the revolutionists, the government officials having either fied or submitted. The vice-governor has been killed. The seizure of the city was preceded by a bloody battle, hundreds being killed or wounded. The insur-gent leaders, who include Kazim Khan, have organized a temporary govern-ment, and declared their intention to ignore the central government until the parliament shall be convoked. The Sultan lacks the necessary corps for the suppression of the revolts in the different provinces. The serimitted. The vice-governor has been in the different provinces. The seri-ousness of the situation is mitigated only by the absence of a strong preten-der to the throne, around whom constitutionalists could gather.

AMERICAS IN ALLIANCE

Brazilian Ambassador Approves

Monroe Doctrine in Speech.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Senor Joaquim Nabuco, Brazilian Ambassador to the United States, was the principal speaker today at the 65th convocation of the University of Chicago, when 185 degrees were conferred. Senor Na-buco's subject was "The Mutual Apoach of the Two Americas." Discussing the Monroe Doctrine, he sald: "You keep away from the entangling alliances which the father of your country deprecated and yet a concen-tration of the American republics with the idea that they all form, under different flags, a single political sys-tem, is already a moral alliance."

Attempts Novel Swindle.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28 .- Edwin Sesster f San Francisco, was arraigned before of San Francisco, was arraigned before Judge Walker yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct. He is accused of having persuaded Miss Clara Martin to leave her home in the West and come to Chicago, after promising to marry her. He took her to 322 West Monroe street and disappeared. Later, it is charged, he telegraphed her rela-tives in San Francisco that she was dead and requested them to forward tives in San Francisco that she was dead and requested them to forward money to ship her body back. Miss Martin's sister made inquiries among friends in Chicago and learned that her sister was working as a waitress in a restaurant. Sesser's arrest followed. The ence was continued total followed. case was continued until August 31.

suffragists, who were utterly ignored by the Republican state convention yester-day, and failed to obtain recognition, after marching to the convention hall, 300 strong, and later appearing before the committee on platform and resolutions. today indignantly refused to accept a vote of thanks tendered by the conven-tion to the "ladies who attended the ses-WATER CARRIES AWAY HOUSES ions." and literally huried it back into the face of the delegates. When, just before the final adjourn-ment, Frank Dominguez, a Low Angeles ment, Frank Dominguez, a Los Angeles delegate, suggested that it would be the proper thing to give the ladles in attend-ance a vote of thanks and the motion was carried, Mrs. Agnes E. Pesse, a prominent suffragist from Salt Lake, who has been assisting the leaders of the control of the sector o California Equal Suffrage Association in their campaign, arose in the balcony and, walking to the rail, shouted: "Mr. Chairman! Mr. Chairman! The women refuse that vote." Laughter and cheers greeted her words.

The convention this morning without de-bate adopted the platform reported by the committee on platform and resolutions through Chairman John L. McNab; nomi-nated 10 Presidential Electors, two al-large and one from each of the eight Congressional Districts, and heard the re-port from the various Senatorial and As-Mrs. R. B. Wenger, Miss Daisy Wenger, Congressional Districts, and heard the re-ports from the various Senatorial and As-sembly district conventions. The platform adopted enthusiastically indorses the principles of Republicanism as expressed in the Chicago platform, which is termed "The concrete expression of a vigorous and progressive age." After sulogialing Taft and Sherman, the platform pledges them loyal support, with confident assurance that California's elec-torate will informs their selection by an Miss Lucy Creighton. T. W. Wheeler. Mrs. T. W. Wheeler. Three Wheeler children. Mrs. Rooke. W. Wheeler's sister-in-law, whose name could not be learned. name could not be learned. Meager advices received here today say that the entire city was swept by the floods caused by the cloudburst. Many houses were swept completely away and nearly every house in the town was damaged to some extent. torate will indorse their selection by an unprecedented majority. The platform demands the enforce-ment by the Federal officials of the laws limiting Astatic immigration, and asks that such amendment be adopted The advices say searching parties have been formed and that it is ex-pected many more bodies will be found as will check the influx of undersirable Astatics before night.

The following Electors to the National Folsom is in the northeastern part of New Mexico, near Raton, on the Santa Fe Railroad. Its elevation is about 7000 feet and it is constantly in danger of floods which sweep down The following Electors to the National Electoral College were selected: At large, U. S. Grant, Jr., of San Diego, and Samuel M. Shortridge, of San Francisco: Dr. D. G. Dwinall, Siskiyou; Alden Anderson, Sacramento: Francis M. Smith, Oakland; H. G. W. Dinkelspiel, San Francisco; D. O. Druffel, Santa Clara; Thomas G. Field, Santa Cruz; Byron Erk-enbrecher, Los Angeles; Lyman M. King, Redlands. from the surrounding mountains when ever there is a cloudburst or heavy rain in the hills.

COLORADO'S HEAVIEST RAIN Redlands. Senator Perkins addressed the conven-tion at length on the political situation,

JAPANESE BANK LOOTED Officers of San Francisco Institution

Follow American System.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—The, Im-perial Japanese Bank, located at 1543 La Guna street, was closed today by the bank commissioners. It is alleged that the officers of the institution have been making loans to themselves. The bank is capitalized at $27,000 paid up, with a reserve fund of $7000. The amount due depositors is $12,141, and other Habilities are fixed at $5699. today. All roads running into the city report considerable damage. On the Colorado & Southern Railroad, in the dred feet of track have been washed away. Wires are down, and north-bound passenger No. 1, from Fort Worth to Denver, due here at $330 A. M., has not been heard from since 3 other Habilities are fixed at $5699. Only $400 in cash was found in the bank, with a number of unsecured per-A. M.

A. M. On the Santa Fe east and west of Trinidad the track is badly damaged in several places. Much damage was done to the road on Raton Mountain by land and rock slides. Between here and La Junta it is reported considerable mark is washed out onal notes. BUNCOED BY CLAIRVOYANT

Women Who Speculated on His Advice Cause Arrest.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 .- Fortune telling. which led two aged women at Newark, ction of the grand jury today on a harge of the murder of William E. CLOUDBURST KILLS FIFTEEN Captain Hains and his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, a writer for magazines, who, it is charged, held the spectators at bay while the Captain did the killing, were arraigned in a magistrate's court in Long Island City today, T. Jenkins Hains is ac-cused of being an accessory to the mur-der, while the Captain is alleged to be der, while the Captain is alleged to be the principal. The announced intention of Captain Hains' counsel to plead insanity as his defense, together with sensational charges which Captain Hains' counsel have made against the Captain's wife, involving an alleged confession by her of improper triendship for sunis have given the case Heavy Rains in Colorado Do Much friendship for Annis, have given the case

TRINIDAD, Colo., Aug. 28.—A flood-in the Cimmaron River, following a cloudburst, washed away a number of dwellings at Folsom, N. M., last night. The Hains brothers were taken from the Queens County jall, handcuffed to-gether, and rode in a streetcar in custody of a deputy sheriff to Magistrate Gilroy's court. Captain Hains, who, when he last appeared in court, wore the uniform of his dwellings at Foisom, N. M., last night, and 15 persons are reported to have been drowned. Twelve bodies have been recovered. Two miles of track and 12 bridges on the Colorado & appeared in court, wore the uniform of his Army rank, today was clad in citizen's clothes, and his pallor and unshaven ap-pearance indicated the effects of his con-Southern Raliroad were washed out. Trains will be laid out 48 hours. The known dead are:

Three witnesses testified for the prose-cution. Patrolman Charles W. Baker, who arrested the brothers after the shooting, said that when he arrived on the yacht club float Annis was lying there wounded.

Charles Roberts, a member of Charles Roberts, a member of the Bayside Yacht Club, testified that he witnessed the shooting and helped An-nis from the water, which was crimson with his blood. Annis, the witness tes-tified, said to Captain Hains: "You have made a horrible mistake." The witness stated that he wanted to interfere at the sound of the first shot

The witness stated that he wanted to interfere at the sound of the first shot, but that T. Jenkins Hains thrust a re-volver into his face and shouled: "Keep back or I will kill you." Afterward he said T. Jenkins Hains asked the witness, "What could I do? He was my brother. I have been try-ing to persuade him from doing this for some time." At this point Captain Hains inter-rupted his brother, saying: "Keep still; this is my affair." Dr. Frey, the coroner's physician, de-

Dr. Frey, the coroner's physician, de-scribed Annis' wounds, of which he said there were 20, four of which would have been fatal. No testimony was given in defense.

NEMMER'S FRIEND IN JAIL

George Reid Denies Knowledge of Syrian Boy's Murder.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28 .- George Reid, the 18-year-old companion of Hassin Nemmer the alleged murderer of Tuffa Shishem was arrested last night. Reid denied that he knew the little Syrian lad whose dis membered body was found in South Lawndale early in the month, but he told of many other acquaintances who visited the lake. Reid had been in New York since the murder, fleeing the day after the arrest of Nemmer. He returned only a few days ago and was working in a restaurant. Reid told the police of his flight when he learned of the murder and the search started. Although he denies that he saw the Syrian boy in the Turk's home, he said Hassin Nemmer, Instead of retiring to bed early on the night that Tuffa dis-appeared, was awake and unusually ner-yous when he knocked for entrance.

weakened. Leaving his small oil lamp dimity burn-ing in the tumbledown bedroom, the al-bassador a Rooseveit, are the pallbei we are going to be let alone and al lowed to run our own business. De-H. S. Sanderson, representing the New stroy that hope and we will have in York Lodge of Elks; John T. Kelly, rep-resenting the Brooklyn lodge of the same this country an era of misery that will send to eternal damnation those who order; Ralph Delmore, the Actors' Order of Friendship; Clay M. Greene, the Lambs Club; James J. Morton, the Comedy Club; Timothy Cronin, the White Rats; James are responsible for it.

are responsible for it. Continuing he called transportation the handmailden of prosperity and said it is certainly proper to see that her feet tread the right path, but that the malden should not be loaded with fet-ters if she is to serve her mistress with seal and success. H. Stack and Charles E. Shober. . The family seemed pleased that the first telegram of condolence should come from Lillian Russell, who owed her start and with zeal and success. He said:

The railroads are entitled to a fair price The railroads are entitled to a fair prior for what they have to sell, which is trans portation, just as any other corporation or merchant. In the face of increased cost of operation and maintenance and with wide spread demands for extensions and better-MASKED MEN ROB DEPOT Hold Up Night Operator at Kennet. spread tendents for extension gradually going down. In the last ten years the price of farm produce has increased 25 per cent and the price of food has increased nearly 9 per cent. But the average freight rate has decreased REDDING, Cal., Aug. 28.-Two masked ten entered the Southern Pacific Rallroad depot at Kennet at 3 o'clock this morning and covering William Wood, the night telegraph operator, with revolvers

But the average freight rate has decreased more than 18 per cent. The only answer to this problem is that the railroade must get more for what they have to sell, the same as any other business under proper regulations. It does not help a situa-tion for one party to sin because another has sinned, or is thought to have sinned. What we want now is honcesy and fair deal-ing on both sides, and I tell you frankly that there can be no continued prosperity in any part of the country if the transporta-tion interests are unfairly dealt with. Poordered him to open the safe. After he had convinced them that he was ignor-ant of the combination the robbers pliant of the combination the robbers pli-fered the money drawer, getting $40. They then marched Wood around the business part of the town, half a mile away, down the railroad track, and let tion interests are unfairly dealt with. The depot is less than 200 feet from itical pygmics when in power can easily leg-islate money out of corporations, but the po-litical giants, of all the giants, cannot legis-The depot is less than 5k test from some all-night saloons, where crowds of men were gathered, and for that rea-son the robbery was particularly bold. The town officers and railroad detectives litical giants, of all the giants, cannot legi-late money into the corporations. In this period of business depression the railroads should be preparing for the return of the industrial activity. But not a mile of new track is being laid, nor is any equipment being purchased that is not absolutely es-sential to the present needs of the roads. Improvements involving hundreids of millions have been abandoned because of the vengeful spirit that has temporarily possessed the minds

In selection, proportion and combination of ingredients, In the process by which their remedial values are extracted and preserved, In effectiveness, usefulness and economy,

Curing the widest range of diseases, Doing the most good for the money, Having the most medicinal merit, And the greatest record of cures,- Tonnage and average rates per mile. All accidents and their results. The usual information regarding earn-ings, expenses, capitalizations, etc.

Weinhard's Malt Tea, a non-intoxicating beer, ready for delivery Satur-day, August 28, 1908. Phone orders to Henry Weinhard Brewery, Thirteenth and B streets. Main 72; A 1172. **

Special sale fine shoes at Rosenthal's.

Peculiar to Itself

Hood's Sarsaparilla

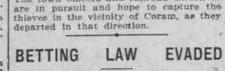

In usual liquid form or in chocolated tablets known as Sarsatabs. 100 doses $1.

TEA

Poor tea is poor comfort; there is no difficulty in getting it good.

Your grocer returns your money if you don't like Schilling's Best we pay him

Rich Bookmaker Makes $150,000 Under Oral System.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.-George Rose, the NEW YORK, Aug. a. Group the arcadia race millionaire owner of the Arcadia race track in California, and the bigsest book-maker in the country, served notice on his friends that he would go to Montreal o the race meeting which begins there at the funeral:

her stage name to Tony Pastor

Cal., and Secure $40.

"I have cleaned up $150,000 since Gover nor Hughes signed the anti-betting bill," said he, while commenting on the fact that he was not operating at the city track since his talk with Sheriff Lane on Wednesday. "All of my business was on the credit system. I took only oral bets. I had gook luck, but I would have made $50,000 more if some of my patrons had settled their markers with me."

sentative of United States.

STERNBERG FUNERAL HELD

Ambassador Hill Attends as Repre

LEIPSIC, Aug. 28.-The body of Baron Speck von Sternberg, the late Ambassador of Germany to the United States, was inerred in the family mausoleum, at Castle terred in the raining management, at control Luetzchra, today, after a simple funeral service. There were 60 representatives of both the American and German govern-ments and a distinguished gathering of friends and army comrades of the dead folomatist. David Jayne Hill, the American Amussador at Berlin, represented President track is washed out. The streets of Trinidad were flooded and the foundations of a few buildings vicinity of Trinchera, 40 miles south of here, 12 small bridges and several hun-

AT FOLSOM, N. M.

Damage to Railroad

Property.

Trinidad Practically Cut Off From Outside Communication. TRINIDAD, Colo., Aug. 28 .- The TRINIDAD, Cold., Aug. 20.- Inb heaviest rain ever known here, cover-ing a wide scope of country, fell during the night, and in consequence the town is practically cut off from communica-tion with the outside world by railroad

R. B. Wenger.