SLOW PROGRESS ON STREET JOB.—The extension and widening of Villa avenue from the west line of the Ladd farm to the east line of Montavilla is proceeding slowly. The street is to be 80 feet wide. At first the viewers partly prepared their report assessing 100 feet on each side, but this was increased to 1000 feet on each side, so as to distribute the cost and make the burden light. It is now proposed to reduce the territory to 600 feet on each side of the street. The Montavilla Board of Trade, on the request of interested property-owners, has indorzed interested property-owners, has indorsed the 690-feet limit and has asked the viewers to fix the territory to be assessed for damages accordingly, if not too late. It is held that Villa avenue will be a general highway and will benefit a large district, and hence it would not be just to require the advance requerty owners who must the adjacent property-owners, who must give ten-foot strips from their lots and blocks, to pay for the damages sustained by those who have to move their build ings. By distributing the assessment for these damages over a large district it is thought the cost on each individual property-owner will be so light that no objec-tions will be raised. Extension of the street beyond Montavilla will be taken the widening west has been

WOULD PROTECT BRIDGE.-In view of the probable delay in the final rebuilding of Madison bridge, either on present loca-tion or somewhere else, City Treasurer Werlein and others think that the present structure should be better protected and its life prolonged. Mr. Werlein says that the bridge is carrying long and heavy trains of electric cars, which frequently extend from one side of the bridge to the other, filled with women and children, the other, filled with women and children, which is a load it was not built to carry, and he suggests that the County Court should take action to limit the number of cars crossing the bridge at the same time. For the protection of the long trainloads of people he insists that no further chances of a terrible accident should be taken. For an ordinary load the bridge may be safe, he said, but he calls attention to the vibrations under the pounding of the long trains which he noticed white walking over the bridge. noticed while walking over the bridge,

Wins Fight for Hydrants.—The North Albina Improvement Association has won its fight for fire protection for the district on Killingsworth avenue. Fire hydrants are distributed at intersections on Killingsworth avenue between Williams and Patton avenues, which is the business section, and they are being connected up with the large main. Buildings on the street have had no fire protection, except what was afforded by a single hydrant on Albina avenue and Killingsworth avenue, which was put in at the expense of W. H. Foster, who owns a two-story frame on that corner. Committees from this club have fairly camped at the City Hall whenever there was a possibility of getting a hearing on the fire protection question. While other civic clubs took a vacation, it has met every Monday night INVITE DELEGATES TO PORTLAND.—George S. Shepherd, president of the Multnomab Bar Association, has appointed Arthur P. Tifft, R. GRESHAM FAIR PLANE—A. P. Miller, of Sellwood, who was elected superintendent of exhibits for the fair at Gresham, which will open October 8, said yesterday that it is desired to interest Portland business men in that fair. It will be controlled, he said, by a local board of directors for the betterment of farmers and farm life, to stimulate better methods in both agriculture and horticulture, and he calls attention to the fact that business men of Porland are invited to make displays. As the fair will be held in a strictly farming community, Mr. Miller is confident that it will pay Portland business men to take an interest and make exhibits. He says that the farmers of the county are preparing to make a better showing than they had a year ago. Some farmers started in at the conclusion of last year's fair to prepare for the comins fair. ### RECEPTION AT BUNGALOW

New Home of Baker Stock Company Open to Public Free Tonight.

Manager George L. Baker has expended in the neighborhood of $12,000 remodeling the Empire Theater during the Summer months and making it into the new and elegant playhouse it will be found to be when the public drops in tonight and inspects it. It is like an entirely new theater, and on the exterior and lobby the bungalow effect has been adhered to with most artistic and coxy effect. The interior has been redecorated and refurnished throughout with new hangings, loges and draperies as well as new loges and draperies as well as new leather covered divans in front of the loges, all presenting a rich and comfortable effect, well calculated to give that homelike feeling" so essential to the welfare of a high-class stock theater.

fare of a high-class stock theater.

Every one interested in the Baker Stock Company and its new home, is invited tonight to inspect the new theater, which has been so spily named the Bungalow. Griffin's Baker orchestra will furnish music, and members of the company and staff of assistants will be present. By visiting the theater tonight one can form a good idea of the best location for season seats, and will have that advantage when the box office opens for reserving seats next Wednesday morning. The Baker Stock Company will open at the Bungalow on Sunday afternoon, Sep-tember 6, and the first play will be the dramatization of Charles Majoria cele-brated novel. "Dorothy Vernon of Had-don Hall," as produced in New York with great success by Bertha Galland.

MORE STRIFE FOR WILKINS Woodstock Man Declares Boys Pelted House With Rocks.

M. W. Wilkins, of Woodstock, complained to Judge Gantenbein, in the Juvenile Court yesterday afternoon, that a gang of boys had been pelting his house with rocks. He said he was awakened Wednesday night, August 19, by a shower of missiles landing on the roof and against the side of the house, one of them breaking a window. He thought it was about 11 o'clock. The next day he asked one of the boys next day he asked one of the boys why they bothered him so much, and was informed that it was because he turned a woman out of her home in

After the case against the boys had After the case against the boys had been dismissed for lack of sufficient evidence to substantiate the charge, and a report of the matter had been read to the police and Sheriff, Wilkins returned to the court with the assertion that the parents of one of the lads had called him "an infernal liar" in the Courthouse corridor. He wanted the parent brought into court and punished.

City Employes in Trouble for Selling Salary Warrants.

AUDITOR COMPILES LIST

Men in Municipal Service Must Answer to Executive Board for Falling to Obey Instruction of Mayor Lane.

Mayor Lane and his Executive Board will not tolerate the practice of municipal employes selling their salary micipal employes selling their cataly warrants to brokers, and trouble is in store for a large number of men in the street-cleaning and fire departments and City Engineer's office. They are the stand stand ments and City Engineer and stand trial for "shaving" their July pay checks. ...is action was taken by the Executive Board yesterday afternoon

Mayor Lane recently called upon City Auditor Barbur for a list of the city employes who sell their salary war-rants to brokers, and this list has been furnished. When the Executive Board met yesterday afternoon, the matter came up for action, and T. G. Greene moved that all of the men on the list be cited to appear before the commitpartments where the men are employed to stand trial for violation of the order of the board. This carried, and the trials will probably be held within a

The names on the list and the departments to which the men belong, as disclosed by City Auditor Barbur, are

Street-cleaning department — Robert Smith, E. P. Harris, D. C. Cohen, G. S. Anderson, W. C. Blair, W. F. Davidson, W. R. Carrington, V. P. Mitchell, C. H. Rinehart, C. F. Smith, C. R. Thompson, W. M. Vale, Edward Ward, W. A. Williams as follows:

Fire department-N. E. Jaques, F. J. Lust, J. L. Ambrose, E. J. Craig, E. J. Charereau, James Dougal, V. V. Eyston, G. Finney, B. D. Hutchins, M. C. Toyson, M. Howe, S. B. Kelly, C. M. Krepps, Mellon, M. E. McCue, E. T. Rablor, L. R. Single, W. E. Smith, H. V. Swan, L. Simon

In the City Engineer's department there are only two-C. R. Fones and C. R. Crumps. In the police department the names of M. P. Murphy and James F. Anderson appear, but Murphy was discharged recently and Anderson resigned to go into the saloon business.

In former years, "warrant shavers," as the brokers are commonly known, reaped a veritable harvest from "shaving" the salary warrants of the city's employes. Mayor Lane denounced the practice and issued orders that it must he stopped. The large majority of the municipal employes at once discon-tinued the habit, but it now develops that some did not, and thereby they have caused official investigation to

DR. COTTEL TO APOLOGIZE

REGRETS HASTY REMARK TO COUNCILMAN BELDING.

Fight Is Not Ended, However, on South End Packing-Plant That Caused Controversy.

Councilman Cottel, who gave the lie direct to Councilman Belding, during a session of the Council last Wednesday afternoon, announced yesterday that he internoon, announced yesterday that he intends to apologize to the Council at the next meeting for his hasty words. Having reflected upon the matter, he has decided it was impolite and perhaps undignified for him to speak as he did of Mr. Belding in public session.

"It was hardly right for me to speak as I did during a Council session," said Dr. Cottel. "I owe the Council an apol-Dr. Cottel. ogy. It was, however, a great aggrava-tion for Mr. Belding to charge me with grafting and to intimate that the Union Meat Company bought me my new auto-mobile, and I lost my temper because of his remarks. I will therefore apologize to the Council."

Mr. Belding was direct in what he said at the Council meeting. Mr. Belding was defending the Schwarzehild & Sulzberger interests, and was contending that they should be permitted to continue in busi-ness in the old Zimmerman plant on the Macadam road, without interference from the city authorities. Councilman Kella-her had just introduced a resolution, call-her had just introduced a resolution, calling upon the City Attorney to enforce the law in the case. Mr. Beiding, immediately after Dr. Cottel had spoken in favor of the measure, charged that both his colleagues were actuated by the "Beef Trust," otherwise the Union Meat Company, and Swift & Co.

While the Council at that session voted down the motion of Mr. Kellaher, the matter is far from settled, That further efforts will be made by Mr. Kellaher and Dr. Cottel to force the "S. & S." people out of the city limits is certain. It is known they are laying plans for further skirmishing, and that they propose to put up the hardest kind of a fight when the independent packing company's officials put in an application for a franchise, which it is understood will be done quite soon, possibly at the next Council meeting.

Mr. Kellaher and Dr. Cottel, it is known.

Mr. Kellaher and Dr. Cottel, it is known intend to fight the petition with all the power at their command, and they will contend that no packing-house should be allowed to operate within the city limits. If the one concern is granted such privileges, they will argue, every one who petitions for the same right, under the same conditions as to sanitary plants, should have the privilege.

"House Boat" at Orpheus

"House Boat" at Orpheum.

The striking vaudeville noveity to be seen at the Orpheum this week is the latest production of Jessie L. Lasky. The scento setting is that of an elaborate double-decked house boat saily decorated and featooned with garlands, flags and Japanese lanterns, the entire scene being enlivened by a party of young people all enjoying a Summer outing. The time is, the Fourth of July, and the merriment and songs are in keeping with the day, eleven artists singing, dancing and making merry; altogether one of the most entertaining musical novelties on the vandeville stage. Alf Grant and Ethel Hoag are also making a great hit and Miss Bertie Herron the "Original Missirel Miss" gives the auddience a slight insight into the "make-up" art of the black-

HUSBAND REFUSED TO GO OUT WITH MRS. TALLMAN.

Told Friend He Was "Through" With Her-Desertion Ground in Other Cases.

Three divorces were granted by Judge Gantenbein, in the Circuit Court yesterday morning, two on grounds of desertion, and one because of cruelty. Katherine Tallman testified that W. J. Tallman, a traveling salesman, refused to accompany her to the theater in the evening, to call with her upon her eighbors or friends, or even to go out in the evening for a stroll. Testimony was also introduced to show that the husband told Dr. E. D. Patton, a friend of his wife, that he was "through" with

Mrs. Tailman said that when she asked her husband to go out to spend the evening, he told her to call up some gentleman friend if she wanted

The unhappy wife said that her husband had furnished her the money to pay the house rent and grocery bills, but nothing for clothing, informing her that if she needed any more money she could go out and rustle for it. She has two children by a former marriage. She said he whipped them so hard that they were bruised for weeks, at other times slapping them in the face.

Judge Gantenbein said that he did not consider the refusal of the husband to go to places of amusement a sufficient ground for divorce, but, in view of the statement made by Mr. Tallman to another witness that he was "through" with his wife, the decree would be granted. They were married at Sait Lake City, August 18, 1903. in the face.

March 20, 1907. Minnie Burke was allowed to resum her maiden name, Minnie Branden-berg, after being granted a divorce from Michael J. Burke. She said she married Burke in Portland in 1898, and he deserted her in September, He had also failed to support her, she said.

ARCHITECTS WIN THEIR FIGHT

Board Must Produce High School Plans in Court.

Presiding Judge Gantenbein, in the Circuit Court, Issued a writ of mandamus yesterday afternoon against H. S. Allen, clerk of the Portland school district. He is directed to allow the architects of the city to examine the plans and estimates for the construction of the Albina High School, submitted to the Board of Education. The order must be compiled with by September 9 or Mr. Alien will be obliged to appear before the court and state his reason for not doing so.

The suit is that of E. Kroner, C. H. Kable, J. S. Kable, John V. Bennes, E. W. Hendricks, W. S. Tobey, H. F. Claussen and W. A. Claussen, Portland architects, against the Board of Education and the clark. The court's or cation and the clerk. The court's or-der instructs the clerk to permit an examination of the report of W.
