

GREAT TRADE BUILDINGSALE

During the entire month of September, in our Great Special Woolen Mills Trade

Building Sale, we will give the pick and choice, without reserve, of any Suit in the store for ONLY

There are now over Five Thousand Suits on hand-all marked in the plain figures at which they sell. These regular everyday selling prices being $15, $17.50, $18.50, $20.00, $22.50, $25.00, $27.50 and some $30. No matter what the suit cost or what it sells at, Fifteen Dollars will buy it if taken before October first, at which time all suits will again be sold at regular prices.

THE REASON for this sale is that we have enlarged the store, taking in the entire second floor, and we are now in a position to accommodate at least two thousand new customers. This is the object of this cut-price sale. We are willing to lose the entire profits of the best month of the year for the sake of gaining new friends. For this sale extra salesmen have been provided on both floors, but if desired, every man can be his own salesman. Look carefully over the stock, select the pattern liked best, pay only $15 for it, no matter if it's the best $30 suit in the house

BROWNSVILLE WOOLEN

MILL TO MILL STORE THIRD AND STARK STREETS

Lawyer Explains to Court in Famous Conspiracy Case.

QUESTION OF OWNERSHIP

Sentence of Defendants Does Not Become Operative Until the Supreme Court Mandate Ar-

Questioned yesterday regarding the identity of the persons who advanced ball money for E. E. Radding and Mrs. Belle Waymire, in the conspiracy case, Seneca Fouts, attorney for the convicted defendants, said that he obtained the money from 30 persons. These he said, are friends of Radding and Mrs.

After he had been successful in raising the bail money, and when it was decided to appeal the case to the Su preme Court, Mr. Fouts said that he was in need of money for that purpose, and hypothecated the funds to George Armstrong, president of the New Era Paint & Varnish Company. Mr. Fouts

Paint & varnish Company. Mr. Fours gave Radding an order on the County Clerk for the money, and the latter assigned it to Mr. Armstrong. A local attorney telephoned to Coun-ty Clerk Fields yesterday morning that the money be held for Attorney W. R. McGarry, it being asserted that it is the property of the latter. McGarry. the property of the latter. McGarry, it was said, is in a local hospital, and therefore, could not speak to the Coun-

Mr. Fields will refuse, he says, to turn the money over to anyone but Mr. Fouts, or some person holding Mr. Fours' order, as he was the one who deposited the $1900 bail for Radding and the $750 bail for Mrs. Waymirs. It and the $759 bail for hira. Waymire. It appears that the only recourse Mr. McGarry can have, if he feally claims the money, it to take the matter into court in the regular way, and have the County Clerk mandamussed.

"Armstrong is the only man who has any claim on that money now," said Mr. Fouts yesterday. "McGarry had Fouts yesterday. "McGarry had nothing to do with it, and took no part in the appeal. He received $150 for his services in defending Radding, and that was all the interest he had. I can Association Row.

That the only object of Harry Yanck-wich and J. E. Trisg in placing a fictitious value of $1000 upon the books and records of the State Spiritualist Association was to make the bond so high that Mrs. Sophia Slep could not cover it, is the allegation made in the answer to their complaint, which her attorney. their complaint, which her attorney, Ralph R. Duniway, field in the Circuit Court yesterday. She characterizes the Raiph R. Duniway hen in the Court yesterday. She characterizes the allegations of Yanckwich and Trigg as to the value of the books as being "extravagant and untrue." They cost, when new, only $46.90, says Mrs. Seip. Mrs. Seip says Yanckwich and Trigg's only purpose was to deprive her of the possession of the books during the sessions of the annual convention next Saturday and Sunday. It is alleged that this is in violation of law and that the suit has been brought in bad faith after Yanckwich, as attorney for Green C. Love, had failed in his quo warranto proceedings. Mrs. Seip admits that she has no right to the property except as an officer of the association, but dentes that either of the plaintiffs have any right to it. She of the plaintiffs have any right to it. She asks that the property be returned, and that she be awarded such damages as the court may deem just COURT TO DECIDE TODAY

Packing Plant Controversy Will

Be Ended by Federal Judge. Presiding Judge Gamtenbein, in the Cir-uit Court, will decide this morning cuit Court, will decide this morning whether or not it is lawful for the Zimmerman Packing Company and Schwarzchild & Suizberger to maintain packing plants within the city limits. The latter firm is involved in the suit because it recently purchased the Zimmerman plant. J. M. Parke and others brought the suit, asking that as injunction be issued restraining the owners from operating the plant on the ground that it gives off offensive odors. The corporations demurred to the complaint, and the court will decide whether the demurrer is well taken.

The following cases will also be de-The following cases will also be decided: Bank of British Columbia vs. Martine Gaglietto; demurrer to complaint. Rosa Littlepage vs. James Pounder; motion to vacate restraining order.

Scott vs. Black; motion to make com-plaint more definite and certain. J. K. Armsby Company vs. Grays Har-bor Commercial Company: demugar imercial Company; demurrer to

INDICTMENTS ARE DROPPED

Conviction of Dave Smith for Criminal Offense Impossible.

Believing that Dave Smith could not be hardly believe that he will lay any claim to the money."

As the mandate of the Supreme Court has not yet been received by Presiding Judge Gantenbein. Radding will not go to lail until it arrives. He has sent two suit cases and a pasteboard box containing two suits of clothes to the county jail preparatory to making a six-months stay there.

ANSWER FILED BY MRS. SEIP

Another Round in State Spiritualist. In the other case Smith was charged.

was filed September 1, 1907, is derective. In the other case Smith was charged jointly with Dr. William Elsen and Ernest Heyman with contributing to the delinquency of the Seighers girl. As a jury has already disagreed on this case and Jennie Seighers, the complaining witness, has left the state, it was believed a conviction could not be had. Another Round in State Spiritualist lieved a conviction could not be had.

Although William Elsen was convicted, he appealed his case to the State Supreme Court, and it is now pending there. Heyman has never been tried, as he disappeared about the time action was taken assistant him and has not been was taken against him and has not been found since.

Jury of Six Will Hear Evidence Against Jackson Reid.

Jackson C. Reid, the 11-year-old slayer of George F. De Mars, will be tried by a jury of six men in the Juvenile Court September 14, a week from next Mon-day. These men will be selected from the regular panel of 199, who have been subpensed to serve during the Septem-ber term of the Circuit Court. Judge Gantenbein will preside.

The jury will decide whether or not young Reid is a delinquent child. If he is not, his bondsmen will be released and he will be exonerated. If he is, it will be in Judge Gantenbein's discretion either to sentence him to the Reform School or to turn him over to the Grand Jury. In that event the case would go through the regular routine of investi-gation and indictment or acquittal. Judge Gantenbein, Deputy District At-torney Vreeland and Attorney H. M. Es-terly, chief counsel for the lad, paid a visit yesterday afternoon to the old light-house at Guild's Lake, on the Exposi-tion grounds, that they might see for themselves the scene of the shooting.

JURY TO TRY STEVENS CASE

Lawyer Arranges for Trial of Mrs. Louise Powell Stevens Suit.

The suit of Mrs. Louise Powell Stevens against T. M. Stevens for $3000 which she alleges to be due on a contract will be tried before a jury of 12 men, as Attorney A. E. Clark, representing Stevens' former putative wife, made application for a jury trial yesterday morning and in an effort to secure tangible assets belonging to Stavens. Deputy Sheriff N. H. Bird served garnishments yesterday on T. M. Stevens, W. H. Stevens and Lillian Monk Stevens. No property which would guarantee the payment of the 13000 has yet come into the hands of the Sheriff.

MANUFRS' MISTAKE; PEOPLE'S GAIN $25,000 Stock New Fall Style Shoes Labeled

Caught by Officers.

ROMANCE IS SHATTERED

BOY MURDERER TO BE TRIED Prisoner Identified by Girl Who Placed Confidence in Him and Expected to Become His Wife.

> With the arrest last night of E. G. Adams, allas R. E. Ferree, allas B. B. Ferry, detectives believe they have apprehended one of the cleverest check forgers who ever operated in this city Since the latter part of August he has been here, passing scores of worthless checks upon merchants, securing in many cases, large sums, and pesing as a business man of responsibility. In connection with his arrest there dean connection with his arrest there de-veloped a romance which was cruelly shattered. As a result there is a broken-hearted girl, who loved and believed in him, and had promised to leave her home Saturday and accompany him to San Francisco, where they were to have been > married.

>
> Pearl Ferree is the name she gave, and she lives at Fifth and Montgomery streets. A pretty is-year-old girl, her dreams of love and happiness were rudely dissipated yesterday evening when detectives called upon her and informed her of the arrest of the man to whom she was engaged. She accompanied them to headquarters and there told a story of her implicit confidence and trust in him. Adams has been in Portland since the latter part of July. He was known as R. Adams has been in roll of the latter part of July. He was known as R. E. Ferree and also as B. B. Ferry. As Ferree, he lived at the Bushmark Hotel on Washington street. As B. B. Ferry he opened an office in Room 22, Concord building, and established himself as a real extra and investment broker.

real estate and investment broker. Warrants for Larceny.

On his cards he gave the Merchants National Bank as a reference as to his reliability, and had in his possession, when arrested, a blank checkbook. He also had a checkbook of the Seattle

National Bank. Two warrants had been issued against him, both charging larceny by embezzlement. He is accused of having passed 100 or more worthless checks in this city. He purchased a rifle and shotgun of the H. T. Hudson Company and in payment gave a check that the payment gave a check that the payment had be gun

Admit mistake and order shoes sold.

Bannister, Kneeland, Slater and Moral;
$6 and $7 grades, $2.85; $4 and $5 grades,
$2.85; women's $3.50 and $4 grades, $2.45.

Dellar, 291 Morrison, bet. 4th and 5th.

Prescriptions at Eyssell's, 289 Mor.

when arrested was a pawnshop ticket valuable diamond ring. for a valuable diamond ring. He re-fused to tell the officers where he ob-tained it.

At the store of McAllen & McDonnell At the store of McAllen & McDonnell he purchased a quantity of silk with which his bride-to-be was to have been gowned on her wedding day. In payment he gave a worthless check. Numerous similar charges are made by the detectives.

Many Suits of Clothes.

Ferry lived in style during his brief career in this city. He stopped only at first-class botels and had many suits of clothing. Detectives say that he never wore the same suit twice in suc-

His arrest was effected by Detective His arrest was enected by Detectives Price, though Captain of Detectives Baty had assigned a number of plain clothes men on the case. He tried vainly to escape and dodged the officer back and forth through the big department stores of Olds, Wortman & King and Meler & Frank for an hour or more before being captured.

Then it was only with the aid of Patrolman Hyde that the detective overpowered him at Fourth and Aider streets. Ferry made a desperate fight streets. Ferry made a desperate fight for liberty but was soon subdued. He declared last night that he intended, before his arrest, to leave the city Saturday. He feared arrest and had intended to take the girl with him to San Francisco

Selling Estate Worth $185,242. The estate of Philip Selling is worth

Now on Sale By Dealers Everywhere E. A. MALLORY & SONS, Inc. NEW YORK

appraisers, filed in the County Court yesterday afternoon. At the time of his death Belling had $500.42 cash in his possession, besides $9742.42 in the First National Bank. His half interest in the Selling-Hirsch building has been appraised at $175,000, which would place the value of the structure at $350,000. The building stands on lots 1. 2. 7 and 8, block 216 Portland on Washington street, above

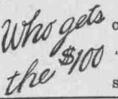

216, Portland, on Washington street, above

May Attend O. R. & N. Meeting. The annual directors' meeting of the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company, which was sevheduled for yesterday, was postponed one week because of the ab sence of a number of prominent officials of the company from the city. It is expected that they will have returned to town by next week, when the directors will meet and re-elect the present officers. It is quite likely that E. H. Har-riman, president of the company, will be able to attend the meeting, which will be the first time in the history of the company that he has done so. Mr. Hareral days next week, probably arriving here tomorrow or Sunday.

REED PIANO STORE FRENCH ON BURNSIDE PIANOS STREET

See advertisement on Page 6.

Watch for Columbia Woolen Mills Co.'s 'Reason Why'' Contest in Sunday Papers.

TWO DELIGHTFUL DAYS AT NORTH BEACH $3 ROUND TRIP

All because Labor Day comes Monday, September 6th, the last trip of the O. R. & N. steamer

T. J. POTTER

has been changed to that day.

Passengers may go to North Beach Saturday and return Sunday night or Monday afternoon at the special Saturday round trip rate of $3.00.

Schedule of Potter

TO MEGLER

Lv. Portland....1:00 P. M. Sat. Lv. Megler.....9:00 P. M. Sun. Ar. Megler......7:15 P. M. Sat. Ar. Portland...4:00 A. M. Mon. Lv. Portland...8:30 A. M. Mon. Lv. Megler.... 3.00 P. M. Mon. Ar. Megler. . . . . 2:45 P. M. Mon. Ar. Portland. . . 10:30 P. M. Mon.

TICKETS AT THIRD AND WASHINGTON STS. OR ASH ST. DOCK

Wm. McMurray, Gen. Pas. Agt., Portland