

DOORS OF DENEEER SEEN IN PRIMARY

Illinois Republican Leaders Fear Triumph of Stevenson Impends.

LEGISLATURE IN DANGER

Hope Expressed That Situation Will Improve and That National Ticket May Yet Drag State Ticket to Success.

BY FRANK B. LORD. CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—When in trouble, cuss the primary law. This is what the Republican leaders of the state are doing today. Illinois has a new primary law; it was tried out a month ago, and in the opinion of Republican leaders it was found wanting. They would like to seal it up in an iron chest, take it away out on Lake Michigan and dump the whole thing overboard.

Present Situation Grave.

Republicans of this class want everybody to know just how they feel regarding conditions that want everybody to understand that in their opinion, if the election were to be held this week, Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic nominee, would be the next Governor of Illinois. They argue that the Republicans have got to be made aware of this fact, to the end that they shall bury their differences, harmonize, and get down to good strong hard work for the ticket. The situation now is so far as the state ticket is concerned, is rather dark for the Republicans; still, they are cheerful and optimistic. They say, "Wait a while, the election is two months away, and soon we will be whopping things up for Taft all over the state from Evanston to Cairo, and then you will see a change. In the enthusiasm for the National Ticket Republicans will forget their factional differences, we will be able to smooth matters out and all will be well."

Reliance Is on Taft.

That is to be their line of campaigning. They are going to rely on Taft to pull the state ticket through after him. If Taft has a lead of 50,000 in the state, then Governor Deneen may reasonably hope to succeed himself; but if the plurality should fall below that figure, then look out for Stevenson. The primary fight will be whopping things up for Taft all over the state from Evanston to Cairo, and then you will see a change. In the enthusiasm for the National Ticket Republicans will forget their factional differences, we will be able to smooth matters out and all will be well."

Primary Law Made Fight Bitter.

If it had not been for the primary law, where the fight had to be made in the open, the feeling engendered would not have been so bitter, and the contest would not have taken so deep a hold on the rank and file. The Chicago newspapers and some of the progressive forces of the primary law. The politicians did not want it, but were forced to accept it, and it has developed just about what they expected—a bitter factional fight. To an outsider it is difficult to see where Deneen has failed to do his duty as the Executive of the State, but the charge is made that state institutions have been mismanaged and neglected by politicians in the interest of politics. General Stevenson has promised to take them out of politics. They are already under civil service, and he has promised to make any difference now that the cry for reform has gone up.

Deneen Likely to Be Knifed.

Unless something can be done to promote harmony, it is expected that the Yates crowd will plunge the knife into Deneen and turn it around. Yates' strength in Chicago was a surprise to everyone, and therein lies the danger. The National campaign thus far has failed to arouse the usual degree of interest. That grizzled old warrior, General Yates, seems to be in the gutter, and the effort of both parties will be to unhorse him. In Chicago especially, there is a great deal more interest manifested in baseball than in politics.

Temperance Question Fought.

The temperance question promises to add to the troubles of the Republicans at their State Convention. If they increase local option, they will lose the support of the Personal Liberty League, which is very strong in Chicago. If they oppose it, then they antagonize the temperance people who are numerous down the state. Consequently the warning has been sent out to "let it alone." The same problem is up to the Democrats. Your Uncle Adlai is planning to make the day the greatest event of the campaign. Perhaps it may have some effect, but to anyone except a never-say-die Democrat, that majority of 285,000 in Illinois four years ago would look absolutely hopeless and impossible to overcome.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Surgeon-General Wyman, of the Public Health and Marine Service, has issued in pamphlet form a paper prepared by Assistant Surgeon-General J. M. Eager, giving a history of the spread of bubonic plague during the last 14 years. No study presents more important and difficult sanitary problems, Dr. Eager says, than the lines of march taken by the bubonic plague during the period mentioned in the advance from the remote endemic focus of the disease in the province of Yunnan, China, to the numerous countries in all parts of the globe, where in many instances it has established itself in defiance of the most carefully planned preventive measures.

DOUBLE PARK GARRISON

Yellowstone Stage Robbery Results in Order.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Provision is being made at the War Department to increase the garrison at Yellowstone National Park. It is proposed to double the garrison, and to add a long high-wayman of seven tourist coaches with 120 passengers, calls attention to the necessity of a more thorough supervision of the park precincts.

A NEW DEPARTURE

The cost of interments has been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking Company. It has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidents connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking Company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When a casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, casket, and flowers. This amounts to a saving of $25 to $35 on each funeral.
