ROOSEVELT PAYS OREGON TRIBUTE

Gives State's Olympic Win-Special Notice at Oyster Bay Reception.

PROUD OF GREAT WEST

"I Sincerely Trust Your State Will Keep Up Great Record She Has Made in Athletics," President's Parting Word.

BY W. J. PETRAIN. NEW YORK, Sept. 1 .- (Staff Correpondence.)-New York's demonstration in honor of the returning Olympic victors is over, but the lesson taught by the grand reception tendered the athletes will linger long in the memory of the American people, and will be especially cherished by the members of the sucable experiences of their lives. To have witnessed the wildly cheering crowds along the line of march in the great city along the line of march in the was a sight the equal of which had not been seen in the metropolis since the giorious welcome extended Admiral George Dewsy and his men on their home-coming some ten years ago. Some New Yorkers say the Olympic reception eclipsed even the Dewey evation both in the size of the parade and in the enthu-

The final honor shown the boys was the reception given them by Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, who, for two hours, entertained States, who, for two hours, entertained the team at his Summer home at Oyster Bay. The President was like a school-boy witnessing his first big athletic event. He displayed the utmost enthusinsm in greeting the victors, and so inances that at times he was almost moved to tears and his voice became husky with emotion. Our strenuous President is an emotion. Our actional and in extending his greeting to the young men who so gallantly upheld the supremacy of this country against the athletes of the world, he allowed his feelings full play.

Not a man of the 68 athletes and 30 members of the committee, who were so fortunate enough as to visit the President was not visibly impressed by the address of the President. Mr. Roosevelt's remarks in part were as follows:

President Roosevelt's Address.

"Gentlemen, it is with the utmost pleasure that I greet this splendid gathering of the young manhood of our glorious country. Your feats on foreign soil have been of the greatest of importance to me, and I have read with pleasure of each successive victory. It is such men as you who form the foundation of our stability. Your fathers did it before you, and now you are on the way to follow

While I have never been an athlete the strict sense of the term, I have rid-den, camped, hunted and lived in the open of our glorious far West, and therefore have some idea of what is required to become a successful competitor in feats of strength and endurance.

"Yes, gentlemen, this day is one which I shall long cherish as one of the memorable events in the history of my life, for nothing could please me more than a visit from such splendid specimens of American manhood as are now grouped try are represented among you, but it gives me especial pleasure to notice that Oregon, that splendid state bordering on the mighty Pacific, possesses three sons among the finest bunch of athletic talent the world has ever seen.

"Ah! that is a great state, Oregon, and well may she be proud of Smithson, Kelly and Gilbert.

The other members of your party are safly from the East, but I do not see his California friend here, Ralph se. Where is he?"

Just at this moment Rose who, with Lawson Robertson had missed the excursion boat and been compelled to take a train, was spied coming up the path to Sagamore Hill.

Glad That All Come.

"By Jove, here he comes now," con-tinued the President. "I am glad that none of you remained away, for I carneatly desire to greet each of you and tel you how proud I am of you. My friend, Martin Sheridan, is still in Europe, I have been informed, but I can see him on At this juncture Melvin W. Sheppard, who had been highly commended by the President, and John J. Flannagan epped forward and each presented Mr. Roosevelt with one of the several Olym-pic medals they had won at London. Mrs. Roosevelt, Kermit Roosevelt and Congressman Longworth were also with the Fresident Mrs. Longworth is at Newport, but her husband came down especially to assist the President in re-celving the athletes.

Kermit Roosevelt took an especial interest in Johnny Hayes, the Marathon winner, and Alfred Gilbert, and the trio were together practically throughout the reception. Gilbert amused the President's son by displaying his dexterity at sleight-of-hand tricks with coins and cards. When the party broke up the President was importuned for his autograph by some of the boys. After he had signed a score or more, he announced that he would autograph all the cards the boys wanted if they would submit them to him through James E. Sullivan, presi-dent of the A. A. U.

for the march back to the boat, Mr. Sul-livan called the Oregon party back in order that the President might say a few words to them in particular. Forrest Smithson, Dan Kelly and Alfred Gilbert returned and were greeted as follows:

His Message to Oregon.

"My boys, I am proud of you not only because you scored so splendidly at Lon-don, but also because you are of our great West. I wish you to convey my heartiest congratulations to Oregon and your fellow-citizens, and I sincerely trust that your state will keep up the great record she has made in athletics. Good-bye and good luck." Then he shock hands enthusiastically with the three hands entities as the first hoys, and while in the act was caught by the cameras. The pictures were printed in several of the New York papers the next day.

After the big parade and demonstration Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Will J. Kelly, formerly of Portland, uncle and aunt of Dan Kelly, invited the Oregon contingent to dinner. After the dinner the entire party went to Celtic Park, where athletic sports were held in honor of the returning athletes.

Sunday afternoon and evening the athletes spent at Coney Island, where they were the guests of the management of nearly every show.

Among the most prized trophles and souvenirs collected by the Oregon boys are photos of the trio taken Thomas Lipton. Forrest Smithson has possession of the film.

OREGON BOYS POOR SAILORS

Fall Victims to Seasickness on Lake Michigan.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6—(Staff Correspondence.)—Before leaving for St. Louis on the 12 o'clock train tonight, the Oregon athletes availed themselves of the lavitation of President Charles A. Comiskey and Manager Fielder A. Jones, of the Chicago, White Soy and witnessed the Chicago White Sox, and witnessed the party was given a royal reception by the players of the two major league clubs. The men of both teams expressed the keenest delight at meeting the Ore-gon medal winners.

Fielder Jones congratulated the boys and in bidding them good-bye said:
"Boys, I am delighted to have met you and wish you the best of luck. I am proud of you, for I can now claim to be an Oregonian, and will be with you in the Fall."

It was with the sincerest regret that the Oregonians finally said farewell to the members of the Illinois Athletic Club, whose members were so courteous and solicitous for the welfare of the party. This morning Kelly, Smithson and Gil bert were the guests of Commodore F. H. Millard, of the yachting auxiliary to the Illinois Athletic Club, on a short cruise in the champion yacht Glad Tid-ings. Most of the party became seasick, but nevertheless enjoyed the trip im-

The Denver Ath-letic Club is planning a big demonstra-tion in honor of the athletes and the party will remain in that city from Wednesday afternoon until Thursday night. Friday the party will be at Baker City, the home of Dan Kelly, and will leave for Portland that night, arriving in Portland Saturday morning.

BOWLERS IN FINE FORM

Winter Ten-Pin Season Opens at Oregon Links.

Great interest was manifested by bowlers Saturday when the Winter ten-pla season opened at the Oregon alleys. The alleys have been resurfaced and are the fastest they have been in years. Several new bowlers have appeared this season, among them being Davies, of the Colo-Springs bowling team, and Arens, of Chicago.

The opening game last night was played between teams headed by Davies and West. Davies' team won by a score of 2481 to 2394. Stalk was the wo game he ever rolled on the local alleys. This record is regarded as most promising for tournament bowling. The score

Attell-Moran and Ketchel-Papke Battles Scheduled.

FIRST EVENT IN BAY CITY

San Francisco Pugilistic Fans Overjoyed by Moran's Declaration of Intention to "Bore Into" His Antagonist.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.-Three pur gilistic championships will be decided in this state this week. Tomorrow, Labor Day. Abe Attell and Owen Moran will contend in this city in a 23-round battle for the featherweight title and Stanley Ketchel and Billy Papke will meet Los Angeles in a 25-round contest for the middleweight bonor.

On Wednesday, Admission Day, Batthing Nelson and Joe Gans will fight for the lightweight supremacy in a 45-round bout just outside the limits of this city for the third time in their careers.

Attell, Moran, Ketchel and Papke have finished their training and all assert that they have nothing to complain of on the score of condition. The main interest tonight centered in the little fighters. but the Ketchel-Papke go at Los An geles was not overlooked. The odds today held steady at 10 to 7 with Attell on the long end.

English Backing Moran.

Moran is well thought of by the sporfollowers, however, and comes in for especially strong backing from the many Englishmen who have come from all parts of the state to see their country man in action. Today Moran gave several exhibition bouts for the benefit of a big crowd of English sport lovers who gathered at his quarters and he was enthusinstically applauded for his clever

His plan of battle, he frankly states will be to "bore in" all the time and the fight fans relish this statement, as it means fast work in the ring. Moran gives every appearance of being trained to the moment and will make his 122 pounds easily when he steps on the scales at 10 o'clock tomorrrow.

Attell Is Under Weight.

Attell wound up his work yesterday with a few rounds of fast boxing. As he is now a little under weight he decided to take it easy today and moved from his training quarters to his home in this city. He makes no declaration of the line he will follow in the ring tomorrow, but t is expected by those wise in ring lore that he will keep away and hammer his man at long range. He says that he is in perfect condition and expects to enter ring with strength to spare.
ids on the Ketchel-Papke contest hold even at 4 to 1 and the fight fans are condering whether the luck of the short-nders will be in evidence at Los Angeles tomorrrow as has been the case in so many instances recently.

Nelson 10 to 7 Favorite.

There is little new in the way of decamps. Both will be at the arena to see the little men dig into each other, and the heroes of the long struggle for light weight honors will undoubtedly come in for ovations when they are called into the ring. Betting on this match stays at 10 to 7, with the Dane a decided favorite, but there are many Gans sup-porters about town for all of that.

In this way there would be no general admission fee to the main organization; instead, each outside club applying for admittance to the league would pay an entrance fee, while the gate receipts from games would be handled by the so-called "central body." This proposed system is designed to make the path of individual players much easier. Last wear they had to put up $5 each for year they had to put up $5 each for membership and buy uniforms beside.
