

CANNON PLAYED BY LABOR CHIEF

Gompers Asserts Speaker Is Worse Enemy of Reform Than Rockefeller.

NARROW OLD POLITICIAN

Head of Labor Federation Invades Cannon's Home and Denounces Him for Appointing Labor Committee Hostile to Labor.

DANVILLE, Ill., Sept. 7.—(Special.)—If "Uncle Joe" Cannon listened hard this afternoon as he sat on the porch of his home here, talking to old neighbors and enjoying the beauty of an early fall day, his mind at rest and his feet cocked with the same angle as his black cigar, he might have heard the applause of 25,000 labor men in Lincoln Park, as they listened in evident delight to a nice, brown-roasting administered to the venerable statesman by President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor. Among the things Mr. Gompers said was this: "Uncle Joe Cannon stands in this country as the worst enemy of economic, social and political reform that the people have."

Mr. Gompers read and indorsed an editorial which appears in the current issue of a weekly magazine, which declares that of the two evils menacing this country—the Rockefeller and Cannon—the Speaker is the greater evil. The Speaker was pictured by Mr. Gompers as an obstructionist of the deepest, most corporation-bound type.

Mr. Cannon was a hide-bound, narrow, old politician who sees no good in any reform, according to the labor leader, who berated the people for getting "sheeplike" to the polls every election and sending this man to Congress. He said:

"The committee on labor in the House of Representatives was created by the demand of labor. The members always are appointed with the idea of shaping bills according to the needs of labor. Under Mr. Cannon this committee developed such hostility that I asked him to appoint another one composed of more sympathetic members. He not only ignored my letter, but the committee he appointed was much more antagonistic than the first one. Chairman Gardner was at one time browbeaten by Cannon because he introduced a bill we wanted. Vreeland, a henchman of the genial Uncle Joe, is now practically the chairman."

"Labor leaders have constantly appeared in Congress asking for legislation favorable to the laboring men. All they got was some flimsy bit of statute of no practical benefit. Then we went before the last National Republican convention. Some one said we got a plank on labor there. I want to tell you it was nearly a whole woodpile that he was talking about."

UNEMPLOYED MARCH STREETS

Hold Labor Day Counter Demonstration in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—A perfect autumn day, with cloudless skies, cool, invigorating air, gave labor's hosts the opportunity for display today, and they made the most of it. Forty thousand strong, they marched from early morning until mid-afternoon through thronged streets. At the same time hundreds of less fortunate, who had banded themselves together under the banner of the unemployed, were participating in a counter-demonstration. The holiday throughout the city was practically general, and hundreds of thousands taking advantage of the delightful weather crowded trains, trolleys and steamers to shore resorts.

A quarrel between the members of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, who marched in the parade, and the members of the American Teamsters' Association, who did not, intensified the march and threatened to make serious trouble. Policemen prevented any serious disorder.

PEACEFUL IN SAN FRANCISCO

City Has First Strikeless Labor Day in Years.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—With industrial peace for the first time in several years prevailing in every branch of organized labor in San Francisco, Labor day was celebrated in this city today with two monster parades of organized labor in the morning and literary exercises, athletic sports and picnics in the afternoon and evening. The absence of all industrial strife and the peace and quiet with which today's celebrations were held was in sharp contrast to the turbulent scenes, riots and bloodshed of Labor day last year during the strike of the streetcar men and other organizations, when several people were killed and maimed.

RAPID ADVANCE OF LABORER

Mitchell Scores "Rich-Richer" Theory—Flings Away Ambition.

MARION, Ill., Sept. 7.—John Mitchell, ex-president of the United Mine Workers of America, addressed 2,000 people at a Labor Day celebration here today. Mr. Mitchell spoke of the rapid advance of the laboring classes, and denounced the idea that the rich are growing richer and the poor poorer.

He said that recently he had political ambition, but had abandoned all aspirations in that direction. He spoke highly of the judiciary, but criticized its course in some injunction cases.

CRANK AFTER ROOSEVELT

Sloan came to his assistance. Sloan searched the prisoner and found in his hip pocket a .33-caliber revolver of the "bulldog" type. The weapon was wrapped in a woolen bag and according to the secret service men, was not loaded.

The slight struggle near the tennis court had not been observed at the house and the secret service men without alarming the President's family, got automobiles and carried Coughlin to the Oyster Bay town hall, where he was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Franklin on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Justice Franklin committed Coughlin to the county jail at Mineola. Coughlin was examined at his early. According to the secret service men, Coughlin told them that he had been confined for three years in an asylum for the insane.

The President had returned from a horseback ride only a short time before Coughlin appeared at Sagamore Hill. He did not witness the arrest of the crank and had not been informed of the occurrence this evening.

The news that an armed crank had attempted to reach the President at Sagamore Hill started a rumor that a shot had been fired at the President while he was out horseback riding last Saturday. It was said that the President was riding along the Cove road near the house of his cousin, W. Emlen Roosevelt, when he was fired upon by some one concealed in a clump of bushes at the roadside.

That there was any foundation for the story was denied by those in a position to know. James Sloan, Jr., the chief of the President's guard of choice secret service men, emphatically denied the story of the ambush.

MOORS ROUTED BY FRENCH

RELIEVING ARMY DISPERSES BESIEGING HORDES.

Fanatics Hurt Themselves on French Column, but Are Moved Down by Artillery.

COLOMB BEZAR, Sept. 7.—Dispatches received here from Colonel Allix, the commander of the reinforcements that went to the relief of Boudenhach, a French post on the Algerian frontier, where the small garrison was surrounded by Moors and in danger of annihilation, state that he has completely crushed the Berber tribesmen and captured their equipment.

The column of 6000 men under Colonel Allix marched out from Boudenhach this morning in the direction of the enemy's camp at Djorf. When half the distance had been traversed the French encountered the Arabs, who with reckless courage hurled themselves on the front and flanks simultaneously seeking to cut off Boudenhach, but the artillery kept up a terrific fire, in the face of which the Arabs were unable to approach to close quarters.

They returned again and again to the charge, leaving their dead in heaps, but finally became discouraged and retired. Colonel Allix followed up his advantage and occupied the camp, completely routing the enemy, who dispersed in all directions hotly pursued by the French cavalry.

HARRIMAN FEARS APATHY

Thinks Indifference May Cause Bryan's Election.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—E. H. Harriman and his party arrived in this city today from Portland and a tour of Western Oregon. He went at once to the Fairmont Hotel, where, during the afternoon he received a number of newspaper men and others. At 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon he will be given a reception at the Fairmont under the auspices of the Shippers & Producers Association. He will then be given an opportunity to hear from many representative men residing in all parts of the state something about the resources and interests of their various sections.

In an interview tonight Mr. Harriman said that no extensive improvement work would be begun on any lines under his control until the financial situation had relaxed considerably. Mr. Harriman commented upon what he termed the apathy shown over the Presidential election and said that the state of affairs might easily prove dangerous, as conservative voters possibly would not have sufficient interest to go to the polls.

Mr. Harriman declared that he was in favor of tariff revision, and that he believed the tariff should have been revised six or seven years ago, when other financial changes were made.

BANKERS' TEAMS AT TABLE

Money Changers' Game Followed by Dinner at Danmore.

If there was any sting in the defeat of the baseball team of Seattle bankers by the local bank clerks yesterday afternoon, it was wiped out entirely last night when the victors entertained the vanquished hosts at a banquet in the Navajo Grill at the Danmore. The hosts were the employees of the United States National and the First National banks of this city and the guests were the employees of the National Bank of Commerce of Seattle. R. W. Schmeier, cashier of the United States National Bank, officiated as toastmaster and a number of impromptu toasts were made. The visitors returned to Seattle at midnight last night.

Those attending the banquet were: R. W. Schmeier, T. B. Foster, Harry Peeling, Fred Silcock, C. M. Watson, C. H. Lewis, R. B. Nelson, E. Morris, W. Brinkgold, E. Shearer, J. Powell, O. Kerrigan, B. Nelson, J. Lewis, H. Hagadorn, D. Getty, R. A. Russell, S. Bennett, E. W. Brownell, C. Campbell, J. T. Johnson, F. V. Catterlin, Paul Dick, H. L. Johnson, A. O. Jones, R. Beddow, T. Ward, E. W. Burns, H. Hanson, C. A. Bemis, A. Cormack, C.

New Autumn Suits, Spc'l $24.75

We have for this week exceptionally clever Tailored Suits to offer. Styles that will add greatly to our reputation of being able to produce stylish garments at popular prices

Manufacturers anxious to have their goods strongly represented in our suit section and get their share of the enormous business that is done in this popular department, have made for us some fine suits for this early showing. The success of their garments at this first sale has much to do with the business that goes to them later on. Therefore, you may rest assured that these suits are made right in every respect.

We have 150 suits in the style here illustrated, which we are going to sell at this sale for $24.75. This is by far the best suit we have ever offered at this low price. It has the style and shape of the high-priced models, and is carefully tailored. We know of suits being sold this season at $35 that are not the equal of this one in any particular. We wish we had ten times the number, as every one would be picked up at this sale, and every purchaser would be a more than satisfied customer.

The suit above mentioned was sketched from life, and the graceful cut is plainly shown in the illustration. It is made of broadcloth, in pretty shades of blue, brown and green. The coat is semi-fitted and has the new slashes at the sides and back, trimmed with wide folds of satin and buttons with satin centers. The skirt is the latest gored model with wide fold at the bottom.

Another very stylish suit at this price is made of broadcloth, strictly tailored, with plaited skirt and long semi-fitted, single-breasted coat. The lapels of the coat are inlaid with satin matching the broadcloth in color, and the handsome woven satin buttons ornamenting the lapels and back of the coat are also of the same shade. The lining in both these suits is of an especially durable quality of taffeta.
