RAFTERY SAVES SHUT-OUT

Briswaller's Offerings Prove Too Mystifying for McCredie's Men, While Kinsella is Hit at Opportune Times.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Portland 1, Los Angeles 4. San Francisco 6, Oakland 6.

Not until the ninth inning yesterday could Portland connect with Briswaller's curves with any effect, and Los Angeles took the game to the tune of 4 to 1.

The inning started by Bernard being safe on a hot smash toward Cooney and reaching second on Oakes' sacrifice. Dillon beat out a bunt, placing Bernard on third, from where he scored a minute later when Brashear bunted.

Rafferty Saves Day. Smith, the next man up, forced Dillon at third, but Brashear scored from second when Ryan slipped in handling Ellis' grounder.

A certain element of the fans in the grandstand spent most of their time making things disagreeable for everybody by their talk to Umpire Perrine.

Public Becomes Aware of Fitness to Show its Appreciation of London Champions.

The public is gradually becoming aware of the fitness and necessity of showing its appreciation of the honor done to the city and state in the achievements of these young men at London.

Our boys should receive a most hearty good for them. Nothing should be left untried to make their names known and encourage others to follow in their footsteps.

The league last year was composed of three teams—the Columbias, Hornets and Crescents—and interest in the game has grown to such an extent that five new teams are now making application for membership.

The meeting last night was continued for two weeks, to allow the committee
