

GUNS YIELDS TO STANDPATTERS

Defers Senatorial Election Till Voters Have Made Choice.

HIS ENEMIES JUBILANT

Governor Yields Ambition Temporarily for Sake of Party Success. Legislature Will Meet Again After Election.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 10.—(Special.)—Beaten by the "revoters" who deeded the Legislature, Governor Cummins in a voice that was "funeral and crepe-day" asked his friends this afternoon to cease pressing him as a candidate for the short term for United States Senator, and accept the terms which the Standpatters offered. The Progressives were forced to submit. The extra session of the Legislature therefore adjourned to reconvene November 24 after the general election. It will then elect the person to the Senate receiving the largest vote at the primary in November.

The joint convention met at noon and the roll call disclosed the fact that the Standpatters were as firm as ever. Mr. Cummins still lacking a dozen votes of a majority. After the convention dissolved a caucus of the supporters of the Governor was called and the Governor asked to be present. Mr. Cummins read a statement to the caucus in which he said:

Sacrifice to Party Success.

"The deadlock which now exists has become a matter of grave party concern. I have hitherto yielded unhesitatingly to the majority in order that the party welfare might be promoted. I am now willing to yield to the minority to secure party peace and harmony. Far above my ambition, I put Republican success, and I am prepared to accept any nomination which will give the party a chance to win in the campaign now in progress and, no matter how unjust the action of the minority seems to be, I cannot allow my own views and my own interests to stand in the way of complete party victory."

The Governor said he had doubted the legality of the election of an adjourned session in November, but since many good lawyers, who had signed the statement, believed otherwise, he would "wax his own opinion to attain good feeling."

Supporters Reluctantly Agree.

The Governor's counsel were finally accepted and the agreement indorsed by all but Senators Allen and Turner and Representatives Marston, Van Houten and Weeks. In both houses the Democrats resisted the passage of the resolution. In lieu they offered a resolution for adjournment sine die. They said it was not fair to them to compel them to return to Des Moines to be exposed to the jeers and jeopards, simply to look on and see the Republicans perform the "harmony act." The resolution, however, was adopted easily in both houses by practically a strict party vote.

Leaders of the Standpatters are feeling jubilant tonight. They say they do not want to be understood to expect the election of a United States Senator for the short term, but that they wanted the people to declare themselves on the matter of the candidates first.

CANNOT FIND HORSEMAN

Driver Who Caused Death of Lillenthal Hides His Identity.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—The police spent the night searching for the driver of the fractions horse which caused the accident to an automobile, by which Philip N. Lillenthal was killed, but no trace of the man could be found, and no witnesses to the accident were able to furnish an accurate description.

The statement that Mr. Lillenthal was returning from the Grand-Nelson Hotel at the time of the accident is incorrect. He had been down the Peninsula with a couple of friends, and merely passed through Colma, where the prizefight was in progress.

LAUNCH HUGE WARSHIP

St. Vincent, England's Largest Battleship, Leaves Ways.

PORTSMOUTH, Sept. 10.—The St. Vincent, the largest and heaviest battleship ever built for the British navy, was launched successfully here today. A great crowd saw the vessel take the water. As the warship slipped from her blocks, she was christened by the Countess Beauchamp. Counting the three cruising battleships of the Invincible class, the St. Vincent is the eighth vessel of the Dreadnaught type to be launched in this country. The admiralty has observed the usual reticence with regard to the details of the design and construction of the St. Vincent, but from certain figures that were given out, it is manifest that the experience gained from the construction of the Dreadnaught has been utilized in this vessel.

She was christened Minas Geraes.

NEWSPAPERS SING TOLSTOI'S PRAISES

Jubilee Numbers Devote Pages to Life and Works of Premier Novelist.

OFFICIAL CIRCLES FROWN

Schools Forbidden to Hold Memorial Exercises, and Display of Busts and Pictures Placed Under Ban.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10.—The newspapers of Russia appear today, almost without exception, as Tolstoi jubilee numbers, and they publish pages devoted to the events of his life, criticisms of his literary work and anecdotes of his career. Many of the articles are naturally phrased in terms of extravagant adulation, but in general the criticisms are discriminating and just.

The newspapers pass over the disputes aroused by the Count's latest writings and his attacks on the government and the liberal movement and unite in appreciations of the undoubted greatness of his life and the brilliance of his earlier novels, which introduced Russia to the world. Pride is expressed in Tolstoi's position abroad, particularly in England and the United States.

The Novoe Vremya entitles him the "Shakespeare of the Nineteenth Century," and calls his novel "War and Peace," the Russian Iliad, which created a standard of Russian patriotism. The fame of this novel, the paper says, never can be destroyed by the author's later attacks on Nationalism.

As regards Tolstoi's later moral and philosophical writings, the tone is either lukewarm or condemnatory. The Count considers his earlier romances insignificant when compared to his later philosophy.

No special celebration of the anniversary is being held in St. Petersburg today. The school authorities refuse to permit memorial exercises in the city institutions, and all attempts to decorate houses or exhibit portraits and busts of Tolstoi have been frowned upon.

Advices received here today from Yasnaya Poliana report marked improvement in the Count's health.

TWO CITIES HONOR TOLSTOI

School in Sebastopol, Square in Dobrinsk, Named After Him.

SEBASTOPOL, Sept. 10.—The municipality today conferred the freedom of the city on Count Leo Tolstoi and named a school after him.

DOBRIKSK, Russia, Sept. 10.—The Municipal Council today conferred the name of Tolstoi on the square in the center of the city and sent a congratulatory telegram to the author.

FLEET REACHES ALBANY

WELCOMED BY CROWDS AT WEST AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL.

Voyage in Smooth Sea From Melbourne Occupied in Exercise. Greetings by Wireless.

ALBANY, West Australia, Sept. 11.—After a 1900-mile voyage from Melbourne, the American battleships dropped anchor at 7 o'clock this morning off King's point at the entrance to Princess Royal harbor in King George's Sound. Great crowds witnessed the coming of the fleet, the sighting of which from Breaksea Island was reported several hours before.

Fine weather was experienced during the trip from Melbourne, from which port the fleet sailed on Saturday morning. The ships encountered smooth seas and fair winds, and the time of the men was largely taken up in routine drills and exercises.

In answer to a wireless message of welcome to the fleet by M. J. Moore, the premier of West Australia, Rear-Admiral Sperry dispatched the following by wireless from the Connecticut:

"On behalf of the officers and men of the United States fleet, I thank you and the people of Western Australia for your cordial greetings."

ALBANY IS READY FOR FLEET

Thousands Pour Into Australian City to Attend Festivities.

ALBANY, West Australia, Sept. 10.—Notwithstanding the fact that Albany is 340 miles from Perth, the trains from there today are crowded with people who have come to Albany to help welcome the American battleship fleet, which is expected to arrive here tomorrow. The city is gaily decorated for the occasion. Triumphal arches span many of the principal streets and buildings are covered with festooned bunting and blended British and American flags. The British protected cruiser Gibraltar, with a crew of 600 officers Jewels, was found today in the private pleasure lake on the estate of Stewart Hartshorn, at Short Hills, N. J., by bloodhounds, which had been set to work seeking her.

Mrs. Harvey was the wife of Ashton Harvey, a millionaire corporation lawyer at 22 Broadway, and lived on their magnificent country estate at Short Hills.

Mrs. Harvey, who was residing in her own right, had been acting peculiarly for several weeks past, and her daughter, Dorothy, and son, Harold, became alarmed yesterday afternoon when she left the house dressed in white, even to her shoes and stockings, and wearing all of her jewels. About her neck she wore a $5,000 pearl necklace and on her head she had placed a rich diamond tiara. Her breast was covered with sunbursts and other brooches set with diamonds, and her fingers were bedecked in jeweled rings. This was prior to her ordering a carriage to go to the home of Miss Duharry, at Madison.

Mr. Harvey and his daughter searched the roads in the moonlight until dark, when they called in the police. Bloodhounds from New York arrived at 2 A. M., and after an all-night search, the animals pointed out the body in the lake. Mrs. Harvey's remains were taken out by grappling irons. Her husband believes she committed suicide. She had been a sufferer from headaches for nine years. She had also grieved over the death of her eldest son, Ashton.
