LEAVES RECORD OF MANY CRIMES

Southerland's Letters Tell of Train Hold-ups at Mission and Yakima.

ONCE TERROR OF MISSOURI

Burglar Who Murdered Auble and Committed Suicide Tells of Long and Varied Career of Crime in West.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 11.—Carl Southerland, the youthful self-slain murderer of Captain of Police Walter H. Auble, left letters which, if the contents be true, prove him to have been a most remarkable criminal. One of these letters, containing many thousand words, written in a fine hand, was at first believed to be fiction, but several features of the confessed have since been verified. Southerland said he was born at Lamar, Mo., and early became a member of a gang which terrorized that locality. He first added two criminals, who were wanted for robbing a depot at Oswego, Kan., and shooting a Deputy Sheriff, in escaping in a canoe on the Neosho River, and later joined them and others in holding up an iron mountain train at Malvern, Ark.

Near Ponca, Okla., he was captured by a vigilance committee, but escaped by knocking down his guard with a club and later holding up one of the vigilantes and robbing him of his gun, purse and horse. Members of his gang killed several men at different times in this vicinity. He aided in a jailbreak at Lamar and later helped hold up a Choctaw train, near Memphis. He was finally arrested at Okmulgee in the Creek Nation and taken to Lamar by Sheriff Harlow, where he was sentenced to the reform school for 12 months at Booneville, Mo.

A telegram received in Los Angeles this afternoon from the superintendent of the reform school at Booneville, Mo., says that Southerland was an inmate of the reformatory during the years 1902-3. Several former Missouri residents in this city have confirmed parts of Southerland's history. He joined the Army as a musician and deserted in Monterey, Cal. After working as a waiter in the California Club in Los Angeles he went to Canada, where he and others held up a train at Mission Junction and another at Yakima, Wash. Afterward he held up and robbed a street-car in South San Francisco and after an unsuccessful attempt on a Kentucky street car in San Francisco, fled to Los Angeles. Southerland confessed to a number of local crimes. He gave names of the members of the gang with which he was associated and accounted for the violent deaths of several of them. Southerland married in this city and his wife has been working as a waitress at Long Beach. She knew nothing of the criminal record of her husband. He gave aliases of Joseph Palmer, Jack Ames and Carl Sherwood.

FLAMES ARE NOW DYING OUT

Forest Fires in Ontario Not Likely to Spread. PORT ARTHUR, Ont., Sept. 11.—Bush fires surround Port Arthur and Fort William, and all day yesterday firemen and citizens fought the flames. The whole country east and west is ablaze, and the fire is gaining headway. On Thunder Cap the whole section is lighted up with flames from forest fires.

Along the Duluth extension several villages are threatened. According to a report received by the fire in on a short distance from the village of Hymera. From the international boundary to Hymera, a distance of 30 miles, the whole country is ablaze. Forest fires destroyed the camp owned by George Mooring on Pigeon River yesterday, with the complete outfit. One camp owned by the Pigeon River Lumber Company and located on Arrow River, was today totally destroyed, while another owned by the same company was partially destroyed. The fire on Thunder Cap is still burning, and Silver Islet buildings are believed to be in great danger. The city is surrounded in zones. Later reports state that the fires in

TAUGHT EXPENSIVE LESSON

States Learn Value of Systematic Forest Fire Protection.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Government officials here say that in the whole northern half of the United States, from Coast to Coast, it is likely that the year will go down as one of the worst, for forest fires, in the last quarter century. This year's actual losses from forest fires in all parts of the country will be up high in the millions. The officials say the fires have started a wide-spread movement in many states to check them by adopting rational systems of fire protection. The total cost of the forest fires on the carefully patrolled National forest reserves for the season, exclusive of the salaries of forestry officers, will not be more than $20,000.

CAVALRYMEN FIGHT FLAMES

Forest Fires Again Raging in South Dakota Reserve. STURGIS, S. D., Sept. 11.—The forest fire which started early in the week at the Mumford mines, near Galena, and which at one time was under control, broke out anew last night and is burning more fiercely than ever. Four troops of the Fourth Cavalry have been out all day and will be relieved tonight by others. The fire is now in the Millwood Reserve destroying timber and cordwood. A great scope of country has been burned over. It seems nothing but a heavy rain will put the fire out. The Homestake Company is said to be offering $60 cents an hour to protect its property.

SENDS AID TO BEAVER CITY

Governor Johnson Orders Steamer to Rescue Inhabitants. ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 11.—Governor Johnson tonight received a message from Mayor R. D. Haven, of Duluth, to the effect that Beaver Bay in the Lake Superior is being destroyed by fire and asking that help be sent to the settlement at once. Governor Johnson sent a message to the captain of the ocean steamer, the Port Arthur, asking him to go at once to the threatened town.

La Crescenta Fire Spreads.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 11.—The fire which yesterday destroyed four houses in La Crescenta, and burned over a large acreage of brushlands, is still burning, although no more buildings have caught fire. It is reported as gaining headway and sweeping in the direction of the Big Tanager River. The rangers are back-firing along the ridges to prevent the spread of the fire to the heavier timber. Many orchards and vineyards have been burned.

FINDS NO CRIME IN GREGORI'S ACT

Jury Acquits Man Who Shot Dreyfus at Obsequies of Zola.

THOUGH HE BOASTS OF ACT

Enemies of Dreyfus Try Vainly to Reopen Controversy—Gregori Declares Ceremony at Pantheon Crowning Infamy.

PARIS, Sept. 11.—With the acquittal tonight by a jury in the assize court of Louis A. Gregori, who fired upon Major Dreyfus during the ceremonies last June incident to the placing of the body of Emile Zola in the Pantheon, the Dreyfus affair, which has divided France into two camps for the last 12 years, may be said to have been buried beyond all possibility of resurrection. The government, it was evident from the remarks of the advocate-general in the summing up, did not make a severe sentence, which would have made a martyr of M. Gregori, but merely a correctional sentence, which would allow the matter to die out. It was generally anticipated that the court would condemn Gregori to six months' imprisonment, and his complete acquittal partook of the nature of an anti-climax.

Shouts and Cheers in Court. Those present in the courtroom gave vent to their feelings according to their political views and the court resounded with mingled hoots and cheers. The president of the court, however, soon quelled the disturbances by ordering the court cleared. An attempt was made to start a manifestation outside the building, but this was also frustrated by the police. The presiding judge continued today, as yesterday, to rule out all attempts to reopen the old Dreyfus issue, and there was considerable turbulence in the courtroom as witness after witness was suppressed. These included M. Bertheaux, former Minister of War, and Colonel de Paty de Clam. Henri Rochefort took the stand for the defense.

Du Paty de Clam Silenced.

Colonel du Paty de Clam's rambling statement, in which he claimed the men now in power were in league to prevent the disclosure of the truth of the Dreyfus affair, was interrupted by the judge, who compelled him to leave the stand on the ground that his testimony was entirely irrelevant. Gregori asked M. Rochefort to disclose the deposition made before the Court of Cassation, but the judge refused to put the question. M. Rochefort left the stand with an appeal to the jury to acquit Gregori.

M. Bourboune, another witness for Gregori, when he had finished his deposition, made this explanation: "I wished only to speak of the Munster memoirs, which the German government seized and never published." Gregori thereupon shouted to the jury: "Now draw your own conclusions." After the various witnesses had finished giving their testimony, and as neither Premier Clemenceau, War Minister Picquart, nor any other member of the government appeared, M. Gregori began his address to the jury. He said: "Gregori's Passionate Speech. 'I appear before you because, at my own risk and peril, I made a personal protest against the impudence of the Dreyfusards in glorifying the author of 'Le Debauche' at the Pantheon and against the humiliation inflicted upon the army by being obliged to receive before the man who twice has been convicted by a court-martial.' 'For me,' the prisoner said, 'the decree of the Court of Cassation was a judicial error; the nomination of General Picquart to be Minister of War was a most violent blow to the morale of the army. The Legion of Honor was dishonored by the nomination of Dreyfus, and the ceremony at the Pantheon came as a crowning infamy.' The Advocate-General, in summing up the case for the state, charged that Gregori's act was a vulgar attempt at assassination.

ALBERTI'S DRAMATIC FALL

DANISH EX-MINISTER CONFESSED CRIMES OPENLY. Exposed Forgery to Detectives. Health Failing, but Will Tell All About Frauds. COPENHAGEN, Sept. 11.—The health of Alberti, the ex-Minister of Justice, who is under arrest charged with extensive frauds, has declined markedly in the last 48 hours. He has been attacked by a disease of the kidneys and it is believed he is not strong enough to live out a long term of imprisonment. In accordance with a request made by the judges, Alberti has commenced to write a report of the frauds of which he is accused, giving the exact figures of his alleged peculations. Alberti's surrender last Tuesday is said to have been most dramatic. When he entered police headquarters, all the officers immediately sprang to attention for their former chief. Alberti answered their salutes and proceeded to the office of the chief detective and requested him to take down a report. They he said: "I wish to surrender myself to justice for fraud and forgery." Then, producing a bank receipt for $200,000, signed by two directors, Alberti added: "Look at those signatures; they were forged by me."

FATHER'S WORK BARS SON

Chinese Merchant Digs in Garden. Can't Bring Over Boy. BAKER CITY, Or., Sept. 11.—J. H. Barbour, immigration inspector in charge with headquarters in Portland, has just made a unique ruling on a question of a Chinese entering this country. Wong Fong is a Chinese merchant of this city and wanted to send to China for his son, Wong Ling, fearing that he might experience trouble in landing the young Chinaman. Wong Fong appealed to the department for information. Agent Barbour came to Baker and found that Wong Fong is a Chinese merchant, which according to the law lets his children into this country. But he found further that besides being a merchant, Fong runs a China garden and occasionally works in it himself. This barred the Chinaman's son, for the work he does in that China garden, under United States laws, makes him a Chinaman of manual labor and children of this class are barred. The agent ruled that the boy could not come.

GREAT AUTO RACE TO LAST 24 HOURS

Eleven Cars Rushing Through Space at Brighton Beach. ONE DRIVER BADLY HURT

Collision Breaks Several Bones for Sartori, Frenchman, Whose Condition Is Critical—Lescant Leads After Six Hours.

LESCANT LEADS, FOLLOWED CLOSELY BY MICHENER. BRIGHTON BEACH, N. Y., Sept. 12.—The score of the leaders in the 24-hour endurance auto race at 2 o'clock this evening was as follows: Lescant, 278 miles. Michener, 278 miles. Crane, 268 miles.

BRIGHTON BEACH, N. Y., Sept. 11.

Eleven cars, eight of them American, two French and one Italian, started in the 24-hour automobile endurance race here at 12 o'clock this evening. President Roosevelt gave the starting signal by telephone from his home in Oyster Bay. The drivers and the nationalities of their cars follow: 1—Michener and Lynch, American. 2—Muller and Cole, American. 3—Capra and Parker, Italian. 4—Laurent and Martin, American. 5—Clement and Sartori, French. 6—Robertson and Lescant, American. 7—Strang and Rogers, American. 8—Roberts and Martin, American. 9—Kjelson and Jubose, French. 10—Van Line and Doty, American. 11—Crane and Rippigley, American. At the end of the first hour cars No. 1 and 2 were in the lead, having covered 45 miles each.

First Collision May Be Fatal.

The first collision occurred shortly after the end of the first hour, when Paul Sartori, driving the leading French car, No. 5, collided with Jubose, the other French driver. Sartori's left arm and several ribs were broken and he suffered severe contusions of the body. He was removed to the Coney Island Hospital in a critical condition. His mechanic was badly cut about the face and head. The crew of the other car was only slightly hurt, although the car was badly damaged.

At the end of the second hour

Robertson again assumed the lead, having covered 101 miles. Crane, in No. 11, was second, a couple of lengths behind, and Michener, No. 10, was third. The mile track has been equipped with searchlights which, aided by the brilliant headlights of the cars, minimized the danger of night racing and gave the 20,000 spectators present an opportunity to witness the progress of the race at all parts of the course.

Immediately after the start

Laurent, driving a 60-horsepower car driven by Rippigley bent its axle, necessitating his withdrawal. The only other driver to finish was F. J. Davis, whose time was 55:31. The five-mile race resulted practically in a walkaway for Ray Howard, driving an American 60-horsepower car. An accident to a motor put the only other contestant, a 35-horsepower car, out of the race. Time, 5 minutes 17-5 seconds. J. B. Marcus won the ten-mile race, driving a 60-horsepower American car. His time was 10 minutes 12-5 seconds. Paul Sartori, driving a French car, was his only competitor. Marcus held the lead from the start and won by 50 yards. In a five-mile match race Ralph de Palma, driving a 120-horsepower Italian car, defeated R. C. Buckley, in an 80-horsepower American machine. The winner's time was 6:11-5. The loser's time was 6:14-5.

LEAVE IT TO BANKS

Taft Favors Voluntary Guaranty of Deposits. NOT ENFORCED BY NATION

Approves Plan in Kansas Platform, but Still Opposes Democratic Scheme of Guaranty Enforced by United States.

TOPEKA, Kas., Sept. 11.—W. H. Taft, the Republican Presidential candidate, in a letter to Walter R. Stubbs, Republican candidate for Governor of Kansas, points out that the Kansas platform's reference to bank deposit insurance avoids the objections urged against the Democratic National platform. Mr. Taft's letter follows: "Middle Bass Island, Sept. 4.—I agree with you that the action of the Republicans of Kansas as to an enabling act by which banks in Kansas may voluntarily guarantee each other's deposits, is very different from the proposition in the Democratic platform enforcing a tax against all banks, which they are in effect to guarantee the recklessness and dishonesty of every other bank. Under the system proposed, for instance, in the state of Connecticut Mr. Hill has shown that in the course of four years the banks and depositors of Connecticut would pay out $400,000 and receive nothing back and that $400,000 would go to help the depositors in Wall Street banks, which through the manipulation of stock gamblers would use all the deposits of the people in promoting wildcat speculation. 'I do not have the statistics, but I have no doubt the same thing, perhaps in a less marked degree, would be true in Kansas. Of course, you could not expect me to express an opinion on a state measure of this sort, because state legislation is not involved in the National issue, but you are certainly at liberty to say what I sincerely believe, that the proposition in the Kansas platform avoids altogether the objection, which I urge in my speech of acceptance, to the Democratic proposition for a National enforced insurance of deposits in all banks. The Kansas proposition comes within the saving clause which I expressly inserted to show that the objection I had to make was not applicable to such a system.
