

TAFT AND BRYAN TO MEET AT BANQUET

Invited to Attend Dinner Given by Chicago Association of Commerce.

MARKS POLITICAL EPOCH

Rival Candidates for Presidency Never Yet Have Met During Campaign—Speeches Will Be Confined to Waterways.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—For the first time in the history of modern politics, two rival candidates for the Presidency of the United States will meet at the same audience, when William H. Taft, Republican, of Ohio, and William J. Bryan, Democrat, of Nebraska, are to be the guests of honor at the annual banquet of the Chicago Association of Commerce at the Auditorium on the evening of October 7.

This announcement was made today at the headquarters of the Chicago Association of Commerce which organization already had secured assurances of the presence of the two Presidential nominees on different days for the third convention of the Association for the Deep Water Association, for which the Association of Commerce will act as host.

In addition to Mr. Bryan and Mr. Taft, it is expected that some 15 Governors of states and a number of Congressmen and Senators will be at the banquet. Mr. Taft's acceptance was obtained at Cincinnati, recently, when a committee of prominent members of the Association of Commerce, accompanied by a committee of the Deep Waterways Association, which will begin a three days' session here on October 5, called on the Republican candidate.

Rouses Bryan From Bed.

Mr. Bryan agreed to be present during a long-distance telephone conversation which he had last night with Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic National Committee. Mr. Bryan was called from his bed about a train at 1 A. M. Mr. Taft's acceptance was obtained at Cincinnati, recently, when a committee of prominent members of the Association of Commerce, accompanied by a committee of the Deep Waterways Association, which will begin a three days' session here on October 5, called on the Republican candidate.

The coming together of the two men in present looming largest in the public eye was made possible by the deep waterways convention, at which from 500 to 600 delegates are expected to be present. As this movement, as well as the Chicago Association of Commerce, is non-partisan, it was felt that the occasion was an auspicious one for the meeting of the two candidates.

Politics Will Be Barred.

In extending both invitations the non-political motive of the banquet was emphasized and it is believed Mr. Bryan and Mr. Taft will confine their remarks to waterways and possibly business matters.

It is hoped to secure the attendance of J. P. Morgan and a committee of the local organization left here today for New York to call upon the financial expert. Mr. Moody declared this afternoon that he had searched the records in vain for a previous instance of the meeting of two of the leading Presidential candidates during a campaign.

ROOSEVELT FIGHTS CHAMPION IN GARY

Head of Steel Trust Defends President to British Audience.

NOT ENEMY OF CAPITAL

Banqueted by British Men, Gary Denies Agreement to Maintain Prices, but Says Manufacturers Co-operate.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation, eulogized President Roosevelt and spoke in favor of co-operation and a better understanding among the steel manufacturers of the world at a dinner given in his honor at the Reform Club tonight by Sir Hugh Bell, president of the Iron and Steel Institute, and the Counsel of the institute.

Will Not Build in England.

Mr. Gary came over from Paris for the function. He told the Associated Press that his visit to London was solely for this purpose and that no meeting with the British steel interests was contemplated.

He said he would return to Paris Saturday and sail for New York next Wednesday.

Mr. Gary declared that the report that he is current that the new patent would compel the United States Steel Corporation to build works in England was without foundation.

In his speech at the banquet last night, after paying a tribute to the British Government and King Edward, he said:

Defense of Roosevelt.

"May I digress for a moment to speak of our President, Mr. Roosevelt, who has been sometimes misunderstood, if not misrepresented? He is not an enemy of capital or of business prosperity. He believes that right conduct is the first essential of National health, he also believes that material growth is necessary. He does not attack individuals as such, but they rich or poor, but opposes what he conceives to be wrong, whoever perpetrates it."

Speaking of the recent financial crisis in the United States, Mr. Gary said that in such times everyone sold his products, whatever they might be, and for whatever price he could obtain.

How Prices Are Maintained.

In relating the plans made during the financial crisis in the United States last November for co-operation in the industry, Mr. Gary said there was no agreement to maintain prices, restrict output or divide territory.

The companies kept one another fully informed, each recognizing the rights and interests of all the others. The effort was a successful one, he declared, and prices were maintained, demoralization and insolvency prevented and greater profits realized.

In conclusion Mr. Gary said:

"The manufacturers of iron and steel of all countries should be working together and for one another. Do not advocate antagonistic and inimical laws or public welfare. What I propose is the utilization of all of our opportunities for the advancement of all of our interests, to close the door to no understanding, full and free interchange of ideas and information by one to another concerning all business in question and an organized committee of men whose advice should always be followed."

KILLS SNAKE IN NURSERY

St. Louis Woman Slays Rattler With Hatpin and Hot Water.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—With a hatpin, Mrs. F. H. Jordan, 5024 Garfield avenue, today killed a three-foot rattlesnake, which had invaded her home.

Mrs. Jordan found the snake upstairs in the nursery where it lay coiled within striking distance of her baby, 3 months old, which was cooling and struggling to reach the serpent.

Without losing her presence of mind, the frantic mother ran for a pot of boiling water. As she returned she snatched up from her dressing table a big hatpin with an ornamental knob.

As she approached the rattler, it coiled and twice struck at her, both times failing short. Then Mrs. Jordan dashed the boiling water over his snakeship and he fled, seeking refuge in the corner.

The hot water had taken all the fight out of the snake and Mrs. Jordan finished him with the hatpin. Then she screamed for help and fainted.

Orton Visits in Hillsboro.

HILLSBORO, Or., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—A. W. Orton, of Multnomah County, and elected to the House of Representatives on the Statement No. 1 ticket, last Spring, was in town today in the interests of his candidacy for the Speakership of the next House.

one demand, Cal Ewing is trying to act as a peacemaker and bring the two magnates to an understanding. He has with him a resolution to be at the last meeting of the directors of the league in January, stating that in the event of an enlargement being made to include six cities in the league, that one franchise would be granted to E. P. Golings and his associates for a town not more than 30 miles from Los Angeles.

This would give Los Angeles continuous ball and of course this is what Mr. Berry wants. Cal Ewing takes the stand that if any change is made the directors should abide by their resolution passed on in the last meeting and so practically he takes Berry's view of the matter.

Since this resolution was taken Judge McCredie has looked over the situation thoroughly in the Northwest and he comes to the conclusion that the best and natural way out of the present entanglement is to form an eight-city league, with four Northern cities and four Southern.

This would be the ideal way and one by which the entire Coast will be treated to class A ball. It is also the logical and broad way of looking at the matter and, while Judge McCredie dislikes to revoke the promise made to Mr. Golings that he should have a franchise in the event of any change being made, at the same time he is thoroughly assured that his views are right.

He is willing to admit the mistake made at the last meeting, but declares that two wrongs never made a right.

President Ewing wired last night for Flynn who is working in San Francisco, to come to Portland to finish the season umpiring. "Bull" Perine will be sent South on his arrival and Flynn and Chayne, who was seen here this week, will work together.

Shares in Ovation Given His Vice-Presidential Nominee and Thomas as L. Hisgen—Democratic Party Given Severe Drubbing.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 11.—Two thousand persons witnessed to the formal notification of John Temple Graves of his nomination by the Independence party for Vice-President of the United States at the Casino Theater tonight. The Presidential nominee, Thomas L. Hisgen, William R. Hearst and a score of other prominent men in the party were on the platform. Mr. Graves was given an ovation.

Edward E. Clapp opened the meeting, introducing Clarence J. Shearn, of New York.

The mention of Hearst and Hisgen was the signal for great cheering, the climax coming with the mention of Mr. Graves. While the band played "Dixie" the 2000 persons in the hall cheered until Graves stopped them by raising his hand for quiet.

After a fling at the platforms of the old parties and a word of praise for that of his own party, Mr. Graves paid a tribute to Mr. Hisgen, his colleague, on the ticket.

Mr. Hearst in his address explained his leaving the Democratic party. He declared that if William J. Bryan was sincere he would not have approached him four months ago with the proposition to support him (W. J. Bryan) in the campaign and he (Bryan) would support him (Hearst) in the next campaign.

Mr. Hearst said in part:

"Mr. Bryan has hailed down his flag and surrendered. Where in all of Mr. Bryan's vacillating course, with its ignominious conclusion could I have found an inspiration for further devotion or opportunity for honorable approval? I have to regard Mr. Bryan as a trickster, a trimmer, a traitor.

"Mr. Bryan alleges that I am angry with him because he did not support me

"Mr. Bryan alleges that I am angry with him because he did not support me for the Presidency at St. Louis four years ago. That is not true. If Mr. Bryan thought I was the most available candidate, it was his duty to oppose me. But if Mr. Bryan thought I was not the proper candidate, he should not have approached me in New York four months ago with a proposition to support me in the next convention if I would support him in this campaign.

When Hisgen was introduced the audience shouted with enthusiasm. The Presidential candidate talked about 30 minutes and was frequently interrupted by applause. He said:

"My friends, I believe that what the people want today is business ability and simple honesty in the conduct of their Government. Government is business. The coming election is simply a shareholders' meeting, called under the articles of incorporation—Constitution—to choose a list of officers for the company, the Nation.

"The labor planks in our platform are honest and straightforward. We demand for workers the same kind of justice meted out to all others. We demand for them the right of trial by jury. The Republicans are frankly against the trial by jury in injunction cases. The Democrats have a plank on that question that means nothing and was meant to mean nothing."

Hearst Ticket Shut Out. ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 11.—Attorney-General E. T. Young ruled that the Independence party is not a political party in this state and therefore the names of the candidates for state officers and those for Presidential electors cannot be placed upon the ticket without a convention. Individual petitions bearing 3000 names each must be secured before the names will be allowed to go on the state ticket.
