A comedy of errors, poor management and much hitting were the order of the day at the Vaughn street grounds yesterday, when Los Angeles won a 12 to 5 game from Portland. It was Ladies' Day and a big crowd of the fair sex were on hand to enjoy the game. Perhaps they did, but it is certain none of the men did, as the whole affair seemed like a farce. Portland used four pitchers, Graney, Rose, Groom and finally Johnson, and 18 safe hits were registered against the quartet, while Nagle, for the Southrons, was connected with almost as regularly. Graney was the first to offer his benders, and in the first inning retired the side in one, two, three order. Portland, ers, and in the first inning retired the side in one, two, three order. Portland, in their half of the same session connected with Nagle for five safeties and four runs, which should have put the game on ice. In the second inning, after Los Angeles had connected safely three times are recent three runs. Grancy was taken Angeles had connected safely three times and scored three runs, Grancy was taken from the box and Rose substituted. One run was made off him in each of the succeeding innings, and as Portland had gathered one in the third the score remained a lie at five to five until the eighth.

Brashear led off this disastrous cante with a single and a sacrifice sent him to second. Ellis fouled to Whaling, making two out and one man on base, when Mc-Credle signaled for Groom to take Rose's place. This seemed uncalled for at the time as did Grancy's retirement earlier time as did Graney's retirement earlier and later developments proved the absurdity of the move on McCredie's part. Groom went in cold and on the first play Brashear stole third while Groom was belding the ball. Delmas singled, Hogan singled, Nagle doubled and Bernard beat out an infield tap.

Five runs were in but Groom was permitted to finish the game and allowed four more hits and three runs in the ninth. The Beavers came to bat, seven runs behind, in the ninth, and the best they could do was four, all of which were gifts by Bernard on Ryan's error. The Washington 2-0; Philadelphia 1-2. Oregon Senator Returns After Two Years' Absence.

COMES TO WORK FOR TAFT

No Question That Republican Nominces Will Be Elected, He Says. Will Not Talk About Postmastership.

After an absence from Oregon of over two years, United States Senator Jonathan Bourne, Jr., returned to Portland last night to remain until after the November election. The Senator was accompanied by Mrs. Bourne and drove immediately to their residence on Seventh street. Senator Bourne was met at the depot by a small delegation of friends, consisting of Thomas McCusker, A. W. Orton, State Representative-elect; Major J. P. Kennedy, chairman of the Republican county central committee; W. E. Williamson, chairman second district Congressional committee; Surveyor-General G. A. Westgate, N. J. Sinnott, State Senator-elect from Wasco County, and Frederick V. Holman.

when informed that the state central committee, owing to the absence of Chairman Cake, had not yet formally inaugurated a campaign, the Senator in-dicated some surprise, but remarked that effective work undoubtedly soon would be started. "Who will be Portland's next postmascancy, is there."

Although assured that the position would continue to be filled until some time in December, to which time Postmaster Minto's commission extends, and that there was considerable interest locally in the appointment of the incumbent's successor, Senator Bourns dismissed the subject and would not intimate whom he will name for the $6000 per snum plum. The Senator has the per annum plum. The Senator has the appointment of Postmaster Minto's successor and the successful one of several rivals for the place undoubtedly will be determined before he returns to Washington in November.

Golf-playing and vigorous athletic stunts evidently have agreed with the stunts evidently have agreed with the Senator, who returns to Oregon weigh-ing probably 50 pounds more than when he went to Washington in the Summer of 1906. Thoroughly tanned face and hands further testify to the Senator's daily outdoor exercises. He complained of the trip from Washington, which, he said, was quite fatiguing.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Sept. 11.—(Special.)—Through delay of a Denver & Rio Grande train, the Oregon world champion athletes are prevented from reaching Portland Saturday night, as planned, and are tonight quartered at the Salt Lake Y. M. C. A. At Denver we were assured that there would be no delay in the trip and that the party would reach Portland on schedule time, but the train pulled into Salt Lake City just four hours and ten minutes behind time. On being informed that it was absolutely impossible to connect with the Oregon Short Line, it was decided to stop over at Salt Lake and await advices from Portland.

The members of the Salt Lake Y. M. C. A. met us at the depot and escorted us to their handsome quarters. An autous to their handsome quarters. An auto-mobile ride about the city and a theater party constituted the evening's entertain-The association members have a large streamer containing the following inscription:

"Welcome to Oregon's famous athletes, who performed so nobly at London."

The Salt Lake boys have done everything in their power to cheer up the depressed spirits of the disappointed Oregon boys, and while their effortst are heartily appreciated, the crowd is not in as lively a mood as has hitherto been noticeable. Gilbert, especially, is most depressed. Unless otherwise instructed, we will leave Salt Lake tomorrow at noon and reach Baker City Sunday morning.

Reception and Parade for Oregon Athletes Is Put Off.

Owing to the fact that the Denver & Rio Grande train bearing the Oregon athletes was three hours late at Salt Lake, the celebration in their honor, scheduled for tonight, will, of necessity, be postponed until Monday night. While the change in the time of arrival is a matter of considerable regret on the part of the members of the committee it will have no effect whatever san Francisco, Sept. 11.—Despite recent predictions to the effect that Stanley Ketchell would not soon obtain another match with Billy Papke, who defeated him at Los Angeles last Monday, the men agreed last night to meet, under the former conditions, in this city the night of November 25. Promoter John J. Gleason made the match, and half of the receipts will be divided between the fighters on a basis of 30 and 40 per cent. "Denver & Rio Grande only three hours sale by all leading druggists.

late now. Arrive Salt Lake. Make Baker tomorrow; Portland Monday."

The inability of the party to make through connections at Salt Lake gave the people of that city a much-desired opportunity to entertain the Oregon boys. They will be guests of the Salt Lake Y. M. C. A. until this afternoon, when they will leave for Baker City, afriving there tomorrow. They will remain there throughout the day, leaving at 8 P. M. for The Dalles. At The Dalles they will be met by Dr. H. I. Keeney, of the Portland reception committee, leaving for this city at 1:45, reaching here at 5:15. Instead of the original plan of having the parade form at the Union Depot, the starting form at the Union Depot, the starting point will be the Portland Commercial Club, at 8 o'clock. The route will be practically the same as originally outlined, that is: Up Sixth to Washington, Washington to Third, along Third down Washington to Multnomah to Morrison, up Morrison to Multnomah

Field.

Members of the general committee met at the Multnomah Club last night and completed the arrangements for the reception and parade.

The impression has gone abroad that the banquet at the Commercial Club, postponed from Monday night to Tuesday night, in honor of the returning athletes, is an invitation function. The public is invited to attend the banquet and arrangements for seats can be made with the chairman of the committee, General Charles F. Beebe, who will supply tickets at $1.50 each.

C. McAllister Declares Illegal Fishing Must Stop and Increases Corps of Deputies to Effect Wholesale Arrests.

General disregard of the fish laws enacted by the people last June is being shown by fishermen both on the upper and lower Columbia River as threatened. As a result wholesale arrests of persons violating these statutes are being made by H. C. McAllister, Master Fish Warden, and his increased force of deputies who are parcelling the river thoroughly from and his increased force of deputies who are patrolling the river thoroughly from its mouth to its source. The situation is bound to result in extensive litigation in the courts in order that the constitutionality of the acts and the powers of the state authorities thereunder may be determined. Open defiance of the laws has been declared by the fishing interests and it is believed trouble is certain to attend the determination of Mr. McAllister in their enforcement.

Three boats, in charge of deputies of the Fish Warden's office, are patrolling the lower river and all persons found fishing in violation of the law are being arrested. Mr. McAllister returned yearerday morning from the upper river, which he covered in one of the boats he has employed to enable him to patrol the river properly and insist on a lawful recognition of the laws that have been passed. He descended the river during the night and found nothing of a suspicious nature on the river north of Vanin their enforcement, picious nature on the river north of Van-courver, Wash, where the wheelmen had declared they would continue fishing re-gardless of the provisions of the law which practically put them out of busi-

It is not improbable that F. A. Seufert, a wealthy canner at The Dalles, will be among those placed under arrest, for he has notified the Master Fish Warden that it is his intention to fish in the river law or no law. If it becomes necessary to assert and estab-lish his rights to engage in fishing Mr. Seufert has threatened to carry the mat-ter into the courts and there test the into the courts and there test the validity of the law by which he is pre-vented from following his vocation. Mr. Seufert bases his threatened action

Mr. McAllister does not relish the po-sition he occupies, but as a state officer and authorized by the state authorities to enforce the laws as they have been enacted, he says there is but one course for him to pursue and that is his duty, regardless of consequences. In his efforts to enforce the laws Mr. McAllister has been promised the assistance of Attorney-General Crawford, who personally will General Crawlord, who personally will prosecute for the state all violations, when the resident District Attorneys de-cline to fulfil their duty. On his return today Mr. McAllister expects to be able to announce the arrest of all offending parties on the upper river.
