Injuries From Fall Fatal.

Eugene V. Debs, Socialist nominee for President, will reach Portland in his "Red Special" at 8 o'clock tonight, and two hours later will deliver an address in the Exposition skating rink under the auspices of the Socialists of this city. In the parade, which will precede the address by Mr. Debs, Portland Socialists promise something decidedly unique in the way of street demonstrations. The line of march will form at the Union depot promptly at 7:15 o'clock, and after moving through the principal streets, will proceed to the Exposition building. In the parade there will be a number of floats characteristic of the Socialist party and numerous transparencies. It was planned to hold tonight's meeting in the Armory, but the committee on arrangements was refused the use of that building and then engaged the Exposition skating rink. Resenting the action of the Armory management, the Socialists had several hundred dodgers printed for advertising the meeting. On these bills is printed the following paragraph: "Owing to the fact that the officers of that scab-herding aggregation of legalized murderers—misnamed militia—but better known as N. G.—refused to rent us the Armory—the building in which they practice how to shoot down union men on strike—we are forced to take the Exposition building, which is a little

DEBS' MESSAGE TO OREGON

Says Present Campaign Is General Breaking Up of Party Lines. MEDFORD, Or., Sept. 12.—Eugene V. Debs, Socialist candidate for President, offers the following message to the people of Oregon: With regard to the people of Oregon, I have not the least misgiving for I know they have the fine brave spirit so characteristic of the Far West. Whether they agree with me or not they are kindly receptive and open to conviction. This I have reason to know from my previous and repeated visits to the state. The distinguishing feature of the present campaign is the unusually large number of people, especially working men, who are thinking and acting for themselves. Political bosses and professional politicians will find their task a more difficult one this year than ever before. There is what may be called a general breaking up of old party affiliations and a new political alignment which will astonish the country when the returns are announced in November. Debs Speaks at Grants Pass. GRANTS PASS, Or., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Eugene V. Debs, Socialist candidate for President, arrived here at 7:30 o'clock, in his "Red Special" and was immediately escorted to the opera-house by a special committee and uniform band. Marcus W. Robbins presided at the meeting and introduced the speaker. STOLE HORSE, IS CHARGE Charles and Oliver Erickson Arrested at Brownsville.
