For the last 10 years, while I have been Governor of New York and President, I have been thrown into the closest intimacy with him, and he and I have on every essen-tial point stood in heartlest agreement, shoulder to shoulder. We have the same views as to what is demanded by National Interest and honor, both with in our borders and as regards the rela-tions of this Nation with other nations. There is no fight for decency and fair dealing which I have waged in which I have not had his heartlest and most effective sympathy and support, and the policies for which I stand are his policles as much as mine. Let him be judged by what he has himself done and by what the administration, in which he has played so conspicuous a part, has done

"But to illustrate just what his attitude is, let me touch on two matters now prominent in the public mind. The railroad problem is liself one of the

that no conduct will be tolerated that would spell destruction to the Nation as a whole. No responsible organization would now hesitate to condemn the abuses against which Judge Tatt's injunctions were aimed. The principles which he therein so wisely and fearlessly laid down serve as a charter of liberty for all of us, for wage workers, for employers, for the general public; for they rest on the principles of fair dealing for all, of even handed justice for all. They mark the judge who rendered them as standing for the rights of the whole people; as far as Hearst Reiterates Charge Against Democratic Keen Sense of Justice.

"in one of his decisions upon the bench "In one of his decisions upon the bench Judge Taft upheld in the strongest fashion, and for the first time gave full vitality to the principle of employers' lability for injuries done workmen. This was before any National law on the sub-ject was enacted. Judge Taft's sense of right, his indignation against oppression in any form, against any attitude that is not fair and just, drove him to take a position which was violently condemned by short-sighted capitalists and employ-ers of labor, which was so far in ad-"If You Support Me This Time I Will. of Course, Support You Next Campaign," Is What Peerless One Said.

"I have striven as President to cham-pion in every proper way the interests of the wageworker. I would for no consid-eration advise the wageworker to do what I thought was against his Interest. I ask his aupport for Mr. Taft exactly as I ask such support from every far-sight-ed and right-thinking American citizen, because I believe with all my heart that nowhere within the borders of our great country can there be found another man who will as vigilantly and efficiently as Mr. Taft support the rights of the work-ingman as he will the rights of every man who in good faith strives to do his duty as an American citizen. SARATOGA, Sept. 13 .- An idea that the Republican State Convention, which will be assembled here at 3 P. M. tomorrow, will be a cut-and-dried affair was dispelled by the development today of a situation which may provoke a bitter situation which may provoke a Ditter fight and end in the nomination of Gov-ernor Hughes for Governor, or of any one of the several men about whom the oppo-sition has been trying to gather. The name of Secretary of State Eilhu Root was on many tongues late today. Mr. Root arrived at the United States Hotel this afternoon. He is to act as both temporary and permanent chairman both temporary and permanent chairman of the convention. of the convention. Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff, of the Republican State Committee, went to Mr. Root's room and was in conference with him for an hour. As they left the room together Mr. Root was told of the ru-mors connecting his name with the nomi-nation as the choice of the anti-Hughes forces. At first he declined to say a word on the subject. Pressed for an an-swer to the direct question, Mr. Root at last said: "Well, you know I am a delegate to this

"Well, you know I am a delegate to this convention from Oneida County. The people up there are against Hughes." The situation on the eve of the confer-ence is apparently accurately stated in the following words of a county leader bittarly opposed to the renomination of Governor Hughes: bitterly opposed to Governor Hughes:

Governor Hughes: "There are more than enough anti-Hughes votes in the convention, pledged or otherwise certain to prevent his nomi-nation and those will prevent it if they made the the second seco nation and those will prevent it integ-can be united for any one else. The leaders opposed to the renomination of the Governor are trying to agree on some other candidate. It is possible they will succeed. The trouble is that they are in-tensely jealous of each other, each fear-ing that some other may in some way in some they are seeking

Such advantage might be of a local char-acter or it might be very important, for instance, it might materially affect for better or worse some candidate for the United States senatorship which will outnumber those in the Governor's favor and all that is lacking appears to be a combination in support of some one else. After a day of almost continuous confer-ence among the "allies," as the anti-Hughes leaders have come to be called there was a marked increase early to-night in their show of confidence. On the other hand there is an evident lack of organization if not of political acumen and experience on the part of the Hughes wing: Lossenb H. Chose and ex-Governor wing. Joseph H. Choate and ex-Governor Black have been mentioned for Governor Tomorrow's session is expected to b brief, consisting of preliminary and per-manent organization and the speech of Secretary Root. DEER PARK, Md., Sept. 13 .- William Bryan today put his stamp of disapproval on Sunday political speechmak-ing when, without his knowledge, the residents around Mountain Lake Park were notified to assemble there at 3 o'clock today to hear him talk. Over 1200 of them gathered while Mr. Bryan at Deer Park, was protesting to a local committee that he would make no speech. the finally was prevailed upon to take the three-mile drive and shake hands with those in the assemblage, with the understanding that he should not speak and that there should be no handclapping.

He will promise nothing on this subject unless he firmly nothing on this subject unless he firmly believes he can make his promise good. During the ten years of my intimate ac-quaintance with him, since I have myself. as Governor and President, been colled to deal practically with labor problems, he has been one of the men upon whose judgment and aid I could always rely in doing everything possible for the cause of the wageworker, of the man who works with his hands, or with both hands and head.

Promises All Fulfilled.

"Mr. Taft has been attacked because of the injunctions he delivered while on the bench. I am content to rest his case on bench. I am content to rest his case on these very injunctions. He will not con-sent to limit the power of the courts to put a stop to wrongdoing wherever found. This very fact should make the labor people feel a peculiar confidence in him. The new Richmond School will receive a number of pupils from the Sunnyaide Giencos and Clinton-Kelly Schools, and Glencoe and Cinton-Kelly Schools, and will materially relieve the overcrowding in the latter buildings. The new school at Peninsula will replace the obsolete structure occupied by the pupils of that district last year. The additions to the Shaver. Arieta and Sellwood Schools are completed, and will afford improved fa-cilities in those districts. While the al-terations in the Shattuck School are not yet completed, they are of such a nature that the class work can be carried on that the class work can be carried on without inconvenience. The recently authorized trade school
