Portland and Los Angeles split even in the doubleheader yesterday. The home team taking the first and the southerners the second game. The first game went to 13 innings and was a splendid pitchers' battle between Gray and Kinsella. After the fifth inning, batmen were moved down almost as quickly as they came to the plate and the game might never have ended had not Happy Hogan throw the ball to the outfield in an attempt to catch Johnson stealing third.

The five runs made by the two teams were all due to errors. Nevertheless there was some fast fielding at other times which cut off runs. Four men were out at the plate and there were two striking double plays. Kinsella was lucky in the first inning to get off with a clean slate and it was only by the sharpest kind of fielding by Johnson that he did so.

Bernard was safe on a slow roller to Cooney. Oakea beat out his hit when Kinsella juggled the ball and Dillon also beat out a bunt, filling the bases with none out. Brashear bunted and forced Bernard at the plate. Smith tried the same play and Johnson ran in quickly, getting Oakea at the plate. Whaling threw quickly to first and doubled Smith.

Champs Score in Second. The southerners got their only runs in the second without a hit. Gray was used, sole second, and took third when Cooney threw the ball away. He scored from third on Oakea's grounder which Cooney threw low to the plate. Oakea pitched second and scored when Whaling's throw was a bunt. Johnson scored on a fly. Ryan opened the fifth for Portland with a hit and Danzig followed with a single. Kinsella sacrificed them to second and third and Casey was passed, filling the bases. Cooney forced Ryan at the plate but Johnson scored Danzig and Casey when Bernard remained at 2 to 2 until the 12th inning. Johnson singled after Cooney had gone out and took second on McCredie's out at first. Rafferty pitched purposely. With Johnson at bat Johnson made a dash for third as Gray pitched the ball and Hogan, in his hurry to catch him, threw over his shoulder. Johnson ambled home with the winning run.

Second Game Is Short. The second game was called after five innings by agreement. Portland's record here was the slimmest and the Angel twirler had no difficulty in shutting out McCredie's men. Patrick pitched the first three innings in good style, fanning four batsmen but was touched up in the fourth for a double and a single which, with a passed ball and an out at first, scored two runs. San Francisco's offense was not as good as there will be a tussle for second place.

FOOTBALL STARS OF WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 13.—(Special.)—Roder, Holm and Cave are regarded as three of the best football men ever turned out at Washington State College. Roder played at Willamette University for three years before coming to Pullman. He has been selected twice for the All-Northwest eleven. There is some doubt about his eligibility this year, but under a liberal interpretation of the four-year rule, he will be allowed to compete. Holm has played guard for two years. At the close of last season he was chosen for the All-Northwest team. Holm recently pitched a semi-professional baseball game at Wallace, Idaho, and may be protested this season. His loss would be a severe blow to the State College. Cave played halfback in a number of important games last year. He is a big fellow and very fast. His ability at line-bucking, end-running and handling punts, together with his superior defense make him an invaluable man for his team.

Sacrifice hits—Cooney, Stolen bases—Smith, Bernard. 2. First base on errors—Johnson, Dillon, Ryan, Johnson. Left on bases—Los Angeles, 2; Portland, 2. Time of game—Fifty minutes. Umpire—Perine.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Oakland and San Francisco took a game of today's doubleheader. In the morning game Oakland could do nothing with Browning and was shut out. Oakland won the afternoon game in the eighth when nine runs were scored off eight hits. Jones started in to pitch for San Francisco, but in the sixth he weakened and was replaced by Henley, who in turn gave way to Sutor in the eighth. Oakland scored three runs off Sutor and he gave way to Griffin, who scored again in the sixth and eighth. Hogan was replaced by Loucks in the sixth and held San Francisco down to one hit made in the last inning. The scores:

ABERDEEN, Wash., Sept. 13.—(Special.)—Spokane defeated Aberdeen in both games today and captured the series here, a performance which had occurred on but one previous occasion. Spokane won the first game by a 5-4 score. The morning game was a rank exhibition on the part of the locals. Thompson pitched magnificent ball, but his teammates booted them and threw the ball away. Thompson struck out ten men and yet included but four hits. Holm was liberally hammered on the other hand, but dumb base-running kept down the score. In the afternoon Killilly had much the better of the argument with Pernoll, who allowed but five hits, while the Spokanans amassed 11 off Pernoll. The latter's support was uncertain. Scores:

Country Club Grounds Attract Visitors.

HUNT CLUB PEOPLE THERE

Final Details Are Being Pushed to Completion so All May Be in Readiness for Races Next Week.

Yesterday's gorgeous Indian Summer weather attracted thousands of people out to the picturesque site of the Country Club racetrack and livestock show. From morning till night the cars were filled and all told, during the day there were probably 100,000 spectators. The track to try the newly completed mile course, over which the fastest trotters and pacers of the West will contend for the $20,000 in purses hung up for next week's races. Not only were there a large number of local horses out which will appear in the show-ring in the harness classes, but there was a brilliant turn-out of pleasure vehicles which were sent around the track for the mere enjoyment of a spin around the speed course.

The Hunt Club was out in force, singly in small groups and large parties. The construction crews at work putting the finishing touches on the big grandstand, the bleachers, the paddock, the judges' stand and other parts of the necessary preliminaries put in full time yesterday, and every minute of time from now until the races begin a week from today will be needed to have everything in readiness.

The street railway extension from Sandy Road, which loops around the main entrance at the grandstand, will be completed so that cars can be put in service tomorrow or the next day. In order to give the best possible accommodations to second place, where the Pittsburg club had been a fixture for some time past. The New York leaders, not scheduled to play, gain a point of advantage by the transfer, having this morning 18 points lead over Chicago.

The standing of the leaders, Sunday's games included, is as follows:

GROUNDING OF MATHILDA

Writer Says Grays Harbor Needs Dredging to Float Steamers.

PORTLAND, Sept. 13.—(To the Editor.)—In an editorial in yesterday's Oregonian, under the caption "Pilot Charges Too High"—in connection with the Mathilda's grounding in Grays Harbor—an injustice has been unwittingly done to a good man in stating "it was very poor economy for a master to employ an incompetent pilot in order to save the expense of a good one."

Naturally, the Grays Harbor press would magnify the fact that it was not a local, but a Puget Sound pilot who was in charge of the Mathilda. But on the other side of the story has been published. I have no wish to disparage the harbor or minimize the advantages it has and its most favorable prospects for the future. The Grays Harbor country is bound to be heard from more and more frequently among those honorably mentioned. In their anxiety, however, to do the volume of business, the Grays Harbor people have perhaps invited steamers of too great tonnage and draft in the honest belief that they could handle these vessels.
