Majority Much Reduced in Four Years.

PROHIBITION CUTS FIGURE

All Four Republicans Elected to Congress.

PLURALITY ABOUT 8,000

Fernald Defeats Gardiner for Governor, but Liquor Issue Causes Large Increase in Democratic Vote in Four Years.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Renomination of Governor Hughes by the Republican state convention at its session tomorrow seemed at a late hour tonight the probable outcome of a battle in which most of the fighting has been done by the opposition. Impartial observers see no means by which the defeat of the Governor can actually be accomplished and the anti-Hughes leaders themselves begin to admit that their cause is probably hopeless.

Authorized dispatches from Oyster Bay reiterating the opinion of President Roosevelt that Governor Hughes should be nominated, created somewhat of a sensation, even though the announcement was not entirely unexpected, and it is therefore not too much to say that they added appreciably to the bitterness of the "allies" opposing Hughes. It is thoroughly understood here that the opposition could have defeated the renomination of the Governor if they could have agreed upon some other man of adequate political size and induced him to accept the nomination. But all efforts to find such a man have proved fruitless.

Root Refuses Nomination.

Secretary of State Elihu Root, who is acting as chairman of the convention, has been the subject of appeals to assume the onus of the situation. Mr. Root told the leaders tonight, however, that he could not think of such a thing.

"I am the senior member of President Roosevelt's cabinet," he was quoted as saying. "If I should do such a thing, either I would be accused, and rightly, of disloyalty to President Roosevelt, or he would be accused wrongfully of insincerity in his attitude toward the Governor's renomination."

Prohibition Chief Issue.

The Republicans were on the defensive throughout the campaign, seeking to hold the state by the usual plurality by answering the various Democratic questions, which were mainly for submission of the prohibition law, the action on the wild lands and reform in administration methods. But little was said of National issues. The Republicans strongly defended the so-called Sturge's law and invited the voters to support its stringent methods in the enforcement of the cause of prohibition.

Nearly 140,000 voters went to the polls, a number which was within a few thousand of the record for the state.

The Democrats gain over four years ago in nearly every county and city, although some of the municipalities which went Democratic two years ago returned to the Republican fold today.

Congressmen Allen, Burleigh, John G. Swayze and Frank E. Guernsey, Republican, are elected.

The next legislature will undoubtedly be Republican.

MACK CROWS OVER RESULT

Predicts Other States Will Follow Example of Maine.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 14.—The early returns from the Maine elections were received by the Democratic leaders tonight with much gratification. National Chairman Mack said:

"Maine has always been regarded as a hidebound Republican state and the returns from there tonight indicate clearly that the sentiment of the people is thoroughly aroused for the cause of Democracy. What has happened in Maine clearly forecasts what will be the outcome in other states at the coming election and tonight I am more confident than ever that Mr. Bryan will be elected."

RESULT GRATIFIES BRYAN

Says Maine Election Shows Democratic Victory Is Certain.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 14.—Upon his return from the Fifth Regiment armory, where he delivered a political speech, W. J. Bryan was shown the Associated Press bulletin regarding the results of the Maine election. He was elated over the great Democratic gain and said:

"I am very much gratified at the returns from Maine. They indicate that the trend toward the Democratic party extends over the whole country. They encourage Democrats to believe that victory in November is certain."

DR. GOODWIN DIES OF BROKEN HEART

END HASTENED BY PROSECUTION FOR LAND FRAUD.

Los Angeles Physician Leaves Remnant of Fortune to Bride of Broken Heart.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Heartbroken, and the end hastened by humiliation incident to Oregon land-fraud charges brought against him, Dr. David M. Goodwin, formerly a prominent practitioner and one of this city's wealthy men, passed away today, without having been informed that a United States Commissioner had ordered his removal north for trial. Dr. Goodwin was 75 years of age. He leaves a widow, his bride of three days, who was Miss Mary A. King, whom his skill once saved from the grave, and whom he crowned her devotion by marrying on his deathbed, in accordance with his dying wish. Mrs. Goodwin is 54 years old.

Thousands of friends who knew Dr. Goodwin well all along maintained that he was innocent of any wrongdoing, and for months, as he lay on his bed, unable even to sit up, he insisted, over and over again, that he was guiltless. Long before the close of the physician's once large fortune, and his alleged associates and his alleged property.

CLOSED BANK HAS PAID UP

Morse Will Again Take Charge and Reopen North American.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Following receipt of advices from Washington that the Controller of the Currency has authorized payment of the fourth and final dividend of 25 per cent to the depositors of the suspended National Bank of North America, Receiver Charles A. Hanna today announced that checks would be ready for depositors on Friday. This means the early turning over of the bank to the stockholders and final arrangements for that process, it is said, will be perfected at a conference Wednesday between Mr. Hanna, Controller of the Currency Murray and Charles W. Morse, ex-vice-president of and still the largest stockholder in the bank.

Mr. Morse has been active ever since the bank suspended eight months ago in raising the funds to rehabilitate it. That Mr. Morse will again take control of the bank is assumed here.

MAKING ARRESTS AT ASTORIA

Thirty-five Gillnetters and Trappers Must Answer Charges.

ASTORIA, Or., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Oregon fish wardens are still arresting violators of the new initiative fishing law. Up to the present time about 35 arrests have been made of gillnetters and trappers and complaints are being filed against them.

Complaints are also being made against ten trappers for fishing during the closed season on the morning of September 10, and against two seiners for fishing without licenses.

The officers received instructions today to continue arresting all violators of the new law, no matter whether they have Oregon or Washington licenses, or in what section of the river they may be found.

M'ALLISTER NABS SEUFERT

Master Fish Warden Arrests Dalles Canneryman, Who Gives Bonds.

THE DALLES, Or., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—R. A. Seufert, a wealthy canneryman, was arrested late today by Master Fish Warden McAllister, who made a secret trip to Celilo on a special engine of the portage railway to capture his man.

With the arrest of Seufert the Master Fish Warden seized three tons of salmon, which were confiscated and will be shipped to Portland in the morning.

Seufert is charged with fishing on both the Oregon and Washington sides of the Columbia. He furnished bonds and waived examination, desiring to hasten the trial of the case in the Circuit Court, which is now in session.

Mr. Seufert has declared that he will contest the law and is necessary will carry his case to the Supreme Court for final decision.

OREGON WELCOMES OLYMPIC HEROES

Honor Paid by State to Athletic Sons.

BRILLIANT PAGEANT AT NIGHT

Thousands Cheer Big Parade on Portland Streets.

CLIMAX AT CLUB GROUNDS

Bonfires and Lanterns Illuminate Multnomah Field While Speakers Loudly Victories of Smithson, Gilbert and Kelly.

Crowds of laurel leaves, more modern and spectacular, of course, than the simple taken of victory of ancient Greece, were pressed upon the brows of Oregon's victorious athletes last night on the triumphal return of Smithson, Gilbert and Kelly from the Olympic games in London.

All Oregon joined in the demonstration and no Olympic winner, even in the days when poets sang of heroes and of men who sailed from the shores of Troy to bring back honor, ever received a more royally enthusiastic welcome on his homecoming. On their journey across the continent honors and attentions were heaped upon them, and on their entrance into the borders of their native state admiring multitudes contended to do them homage.

Pageant is Gorgeous One.

In Portland last night enthusiasm reached a climax in a gorgeous pageant, rivaling in spectacular brilliancy and displaying an ampler scene that has been presented in this city. Aged men and women participated, children look part and small boys yelled themselves hoarse in an intoxication of admiration.

Flags of all nations, with the stars and stripes predominating, floated from every window throughout the day and miles of bunting added to the gala appearance of the city. Torches, transparencies and banners, mingling their glow with the sparks and sudden gleam of rockets and Roman-candles, threw a lurid illumination upon the decorations at night.

Throngs Line the Streets.

The most spectacular feature of the demonstration was the big parade. Thousands of persons witnessed it and thousands cheered it as it passed. In every street through which the parade passed sidewalks were lined, while windows and every available point of vantage were crowded.

Before the parade the victorious trio were honored guests of the Commercial Club, where they dined and enjoyed an informal reception. The demonstration concluded in a final burst of enthusiasm at Multnomah Club, where a spectacular review of the parade was held on the athletic field, and where speeches extolling their deeds were made and they were officially welcomed by Mayor Lane in behalf of the city, and Colonel James

HARRIMAN ROADS MAKE BIG PROFITS

NET EARNINGS SMASH ALL RECORDS FOR JULY.

Saving in Operating Expenses of Southern and Union Pacific Is Responsible.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—(Special.)—The net earnings of the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific Railroads for the month of July were the largest that either of these roads has reported for that month in their history. In the cases of both, however, the gross earnings showed a material decrease as compared with last year. A good showing in net earnings was brought about by a material reduction in operating expenses.

In July of last year the operating ratio of the Union Pacific was 55.6 per cent of the gross earnings. This year it was brought down to 47.2 per cent. In the same way the operating ratio of the Southern Pacific was brought down from 67.4 per cent of the gross earnings in July of last year to 59 per cent for the same month this year.

While the gross earnings did not make a comparative showing so good as the net, when they are analyzed the showing shows much of its unsatisfactory character, when it is considered that this is due solely to the fact that July last year was a banner month in the history of these roads.

REMARRIES HIS AFFINITY

F. L. Magaw, Los Angeles Clubman, Again Astounds Friends.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—If the friends of Frederick L. Magaw, wealthy club man, rancher and real estate dealer, were surprised when he married Sophia L. Goos, a year ago, they were amazed when they learned that the couple were remarried today. The notorious given the first marriage and Magaw's suit to have it annulled, cost him his membership in the exclusive Jonathan Club and seemed to preclude the possibility of remarriage, as Magaw, in his suit, alleged facts that ordinarily make remarriage impossible.

Magaw, who is 54, first met the woman, 34 years his junior, in a restaurant. They were students of astrology and this brought them to the altar after six weeks' acquaintance. Last March the marriage was annulled, Magaw making unprintable charges. The woman later asked to have the case reopened, but Magaw paid her $1000 to withdraw her motion. She went to New York with her astrological adviser, C. H. Vandora, but returned and pleaded for a reconciliation. Vandora kept the woman in hiding, it is alleged, while Magaw's suit was pending.

ARM TORN OFF BY BELT

Engineer Is Dragged Through Narrow Aperture Into Deep Well.

SAN JOSE, Sept. 14.—Charles E. Rothe, an engineer of the San Jose Water Company's pumping station, was caught in a belt which runs into the well and dragged through the small hole in which the belt plays into the well, a drop of 40 feet, this evening. His left arm was torn from his body by the planking about the belt and it is thought that death will result soon.

The severed arm was left on the platform at the ground surface, and it was by this means the tragedy was discovered by a fellow workman.

Rothe has a wife and two children. He is 33 years of age and a Mason and an Odd Fellow.

ALL-NIGHT CONFERENCE

Expected to End in Recognition of Defeat—Roosevelt Urges Hughes' Renomination and Bosses Will Make Him Bear Onus.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 14.—The Republicans carried Maine today by about 8000 plurality as against 26,515 in the last Presidential year and 984 in 1904. At midnight returns for Governor from 48 out of 519 cities, towns and plantations give Bert M. Fernald (Rep.), 72,117; Obadiah Gardiner (Dem.), 64,263. The same places in 1904 gave Cobb (Rep.), 75,334; Davis (Dem.), 49,416. The remaining places in 1904 gave Cobb 1600, Davis 730. The missing towns, which are small, four years ago cast 1500 Republican votes and 700 Democratic.

Democrats Gain 13,000.

The Democratic vote increased more than 13,000 over that of 1904, while the Republican vote fell off about 2500. The Republican plurality is the smallest recorded in a Presidential year in 25 years. The two parties split even in the 30 cities, each capturing ten. The voting was particularly heavy in the rural districts owing largely to the popularity of Mr. Gardiner among the farmers as head of the State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, the Democrats making large gains.

All four Republican candidates for Congress were elected and for State Auditor Charles P. Hatch (Rep.), of Augusta, defeated his opponent.

The matter reached its crisis tonight in a conference of the leaders after a meeting of the executive committee of the Republican state committee. This conference was still in session at a late hour and the general belief was that it could have but one ending—a recognition of the defeat of the anti-Hughes forces.

May Fight About Platform.

Meanwhile the committee on resolutions appointed a subcommittee to draft and recommend a platform and adjourned until tomorrow. There were threats tonight by anti-Hughes members of the main committee of opposition to any endorsement of Mr. Hughes beyond the most perfunctory, but the cooler counsels were set to work and it seems likely that the matter will be settled without a protracted struggle.

Mr. Root was the central figure in the first session of the convention. The convention effected temporary organization, heard the speech of Mr. Root as temporary chairman and adjourned until tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The welcome accorded to Mr. Root surpassed in enthusiasm, if not in duration, those

WRESTLE BEAR TO SAVE BOY'S LIFE

MILLIONAIRE IN HAND-TO-HAND TUSSELE WITH BRUIN.

Animal Drags Lad Into Cave and When Pulled Out Attacks Boy's Rescuer.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—James A. MacDonell, millionaire MacDonell, Gzowski Co., wrestled with an enraged black bear last night to save the life of Jimmie Lynes, son of a conductor of the Canadian Pacific Railway. MacDonell, who is a giant in stature, happened to be loitering on the verandah of Mount Stephen House at Field, a resort in the Rocky Mountains, when he saw the Lynes boy being attacked by the bear. The latter was a full-grown animal which for five years has been kept as an attraction at the Mountain Hotel. He was chained and provided with a den dug out of the side of the hill and built in with heavy railroad ties.

The boy screamed as the bear carried him into the den. Unable to find a stick or heavy stone, MacDonell rushed up and tried to crawl into the cave where the bear was snarling and growling as he mauled the boy. But the entrance was too small for the big man, who put all his strength into hauling out the bear on the end of the chain.

They came out, bear, boy and all. MacDonell seized the bear around the neck and the man and animal wrestled for possession of the bloodstained lad. They rolled over and over and the unconscious boy was rescued by a bystander. Another man by this time had obtained a rifle with which the bear, with MacDonell still clinging to its neck, was killed. The big man was scratched but not seriously hurt. The lad's right arm was chewed to a pulp, but he will recover.

GIRL ATTACKED BY COUGAR

Clatskanie Young Woman So Frightened She May Not Recover.

CLATSKANIE, Or., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—While driving alone in a buggy along a densely wooded private road, going from this place to her home near Fishhawk, in the Nehalem Valley, where her parents live on a homestead, Miss Mignon Dippold, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Dippold, was attacked by a cougar and frightened so badly that she may not recover.

The young woman was less than a quarter of a mile from home and her father, who was driving cows home, heard her screams and went to her aid. When her father arrived she was lying in the road beside the buggy. She was unable to speak further than to say a cougar had jumped at her. Afterward she became hysterical and is still unable to talk.

The young woman was brought to Clatskanie for medical attention and her condition is reported as almost bordering on insanity from the terrible fright received. The Dippolds formerly conducted a hotel at Mist, but have been living at University Park, Portland, the past year, returning about one month ago.

MAROONED ON OLD YACHT

Armour Freshmen Fight Sophomores Until Police Interfere.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—The police, summoned to the Farragut boathouse by a riot call, arrested more than 50 students of Armour Institute of Technology, who were indulging in a scrimmage resulting from the marooning of a score of freshmen by a larger number of sophomores in an abandoned yacht.

Other freshmen came to the rescue of their companions and while the fight was at its height the police swooped down upon them. The affair was preliminary to the class supper tomorrow.

HEARST ATTACKS BRYAN

Editor Again Charges Nebraskan With Betraying People.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 14.—Thomas L. Higgin, nominee for President, and John Temple Graves, candidate for Vice-President, William R. Hearst and other leaders of the Independence party, were greeted by a large crowd at the Hippodrome tonight.

Mr. Hearst reviewed the causes of the formation of the Independence party, severely attacking the old parties and charging William J. Bryan, the Democratic nominee, with bad faith toward the people's interest.

Parade to Exposition Building Follows Arrival of Candidate for President in the Celebrated "Red Special" Train.

Ten thousand persons at the Exposition building last night heard Eugene V. Debs, Socialist nominee for President, ex-coriolate the Republican and Democratic parties as the instruments of the capitalist class. Working people were urged to organize on a co-operative basis as the only means for accomplishing their economic emancipation, which, he declared, was an impossibility by continuing existing conditions.

The Socialist party was commended as the only party which stands for the laboring classes and as the only organization having the necessary revolutionary spirit and programme to attain the necessary results.

Only Ridicule for Bryan.

Bryan was ridiculed as the friend of labor and his inactivity at this time in representing himself as the friend of the "common people" was exposed by reference to his attitude during the arrest and prosecution of the officers of the Western Federation of Labor. Although appealed to at that time for assistance, Mr. Debs declared that Bryan remained silent for fear of offending the mineowners, only to break into print after the men had been tried and vindicated, and say that he always had considered them innocent.

Speaker Chered on Arrival.

The demonstration that attended Mr. Debs' appearance in the Exposition building was remarkable. The instant the Socialist leader entered the hall, the signal was given and the band started up a lively air. Simultaneously the entire audience arose as one man and with shouts that shook the rafters of the building greeted their chief, who was hurriedly escorted to the platform. In presenting Debs to the audience, E. J. Lewis, chairman of the meeting, proposed three cheers, which were given with an enthusiasm which left no doubt of the abiding faith the audience had in their leader and the principles for which he stands.

"This is, indeed, a flattering reception to an undesirable citizen," began Mr. Debs, who had difficulty in addressing because of a bad cold. "We have the

WHY NOT LEAVE IT TO ROOSEVELT?

ROOSEVELT'S EULOGY OF BRYAN

To a flaming hatred of injustice, to a scorn of all that is base and mean, to a hearty sympathy with the oppressed, Mr. Taft unites disinterestedness, courage, both moral and physical, of the very highest type, and a kindly generosity of nature which makes him feel that all of his fellow-countrymen are in very truth his friends and brothers, that their interests are his and that all his great qualities are to be spent with lavish freedom in their service. The honest wage-worker, the honest laboring man, the honest farmer, the honest mechanic or small trader, or man of small means, can feel that in a peculiar sense Mr. Taft will be his representative because of the very fact that he has the same scorn for the demagogue that he has for the corruptionist, and that he would front threats of personal violence from a mob with the unquelling and lofty indifference with which he would front the bitter anger of the wealthiest and most powerful corporations. Broad though his sympathies are, there is in him not the slightest tinge of weakness. No consideration of personal interest, any more than of fear for his personal safety, could make him swerve a hair's breadth from the course which he regards as right and in the interest of the whole people.
