DOCTORS ENGAGE VERBAL STRIFE

Professional Ethics Continue Bone of Contention in Medical War.

FIGHT RESUMED BY COE

Editor of Medical Publication Again Attacks Coffey Faction Following Stormy Meeting at Walla Walla.

Bitter warfare between Dr. Henry Waldo Coe, editor of the Medical Sc and Dr. R. C. Coffey goes merrily on. In its latest issue the Sentinel printed a second broadside with charges and countercharges.

Professional ethics is still the bone of Professional ethics is still the bone of contention and Dr. Coe strikes at his brother practitioner. Whether the latter will be able to strike back remains to be seen. The second clash is of a nature severs and possibly damaging.

The Sentinel charges that Dr. Coffey, as secretary of the State Medical Examining Board, delights to turn down graduates of Oregon medical schools who appear before him for licenses to practice the profession. Further, the accusation is made that Dr. Coffey divides fees and cuts prices. Even this would not so agitate the editor of the Sentinel except for the charge that, on some occasions, the division is not fairly made.

Dr. Coe charges in the current issue of his publication that of 22 recent graduates from the Oregon medical schools, three only received certificates from the board. The others," says Dr. Coe's periodical, "deemed it prudent to remain away, or, going, were plucked."

In the last issue of the Sentinel, Editor Coe promised his readers to investigate the convenient that of Oregon

Coe promised his readers to investigate Coe promised his readers to investigate the complaint that graduates of Oregon medical schools were not being treated fairly in examinations before Dr. Coffey of the examining board. In order to pursue his investigations, Editor Coe asked Dr. Coffey for copies of his questions and answers in cases where the applicant for a license to practice had failed.

Dr. Coe sets forth that he wrote the following letter to Dr. Coffey asking for the required data to conduct the Sentinel's investigation:

investigation:

Portland, Or., Aug. 16, 1908.
Dr. R. C. Coffey, Secretary State Board of Medical Examiners, Fortland, Or.—

Dear Sir: We hardly need say to you that there is a good deal of discussion abroad in the medical profession as to the relationship existing between the State Examining Board and the medical colleges of Oregon. Perhaps haff the dectors sympathic with the board and half with the colleges. In the meantime, the unfortunate students, many of whom are poor boys and girls who have labored hard to strape together a few hundred dollars to attain a medical education, are made the victims of a failure to be licensed in the State of Oregon, after having devoted four years of their time, and what to them is a very large sum of money, in trying to acquire a reputation for practice in their own state.

We feel that there is no medical subject today of greater importance before the profession of Oregon than this question in controversy, and the profession entitled to know just where the fault lies.

We wish to go into this matter in detail, and would therefore ask that you furnish the Medical Sentinel with a copy of the questions propounded to and answers received from, the students of the Oregon school or schools, who falled to pass at the last meeting. We do not ask for the names of the Students. If this meets with your approval, we shall be glad to have these questions and answers at once.

Yours respectfully.

By HENRY WALDO COB, Editor.

If. Coe prints Dr. Coffey's reply to this request as follows:

Portland, Or., Aug. 11, 1908.

Dr. H. W. Coe, City—
Dear Doctor: In answer to your letter I will state that I will be very glad to furnish any applicant who has appeared before the Cregon State Hoard since I have been a momber with a certified copy of my questions and his answers, to be disposed of as he seed fit, provided of course that he pay the ordinary price for the copy work.

Inasmuch as each examiner's papers are individual property, I would not feel at liberty to speak for the other members of the Board.

Yours very truly.

Thereupon, says the editor, he made a second request for the desired data, to which no reply was received. Another letter was written asking that the data be submitted in time for the September issue but Dr. Coe says that to neither of these letters was an answer made.

Non-ethical practice in publishing to the world the blunders of other members of the medical profession, as the Sentinel charges Dr. Coffey with doing, is a part of the roast Editor Coe hands to his fellow practitioner. He says Dr. Coffey made known the lurid story of the discovery of 28 inches of gauze in the smaller intestines of a patient in one of Dr. Coffey's operations, left there years before fey's operations, left there years before by a physician in the South during an

What he styled the "Coffey Medical What he styled the "Coffey Medical Congress" in the last issue of the Sentinel gave Dr. Coe much opportunity to reflect upon Dr. Coffey, and he continues along this same line in the latest number of his periodical. He suggests that a contract be drawn up whereby division of fees will be equitable or according to agreement. Dr. Coe says this would reagreement. Dr. Coe says this would re-move some of the dissatisfaction felt a

Dr. R. C. Coffey, when asked last night if he had any reply to make to the accusations of Dr. H. W. Coe in the urrent issue of the Medical Sentine said he had no interest in the matter.
"Dr. Coe may go as far as he likes," declared Dr. Coffey. "It pleases him and don't hurt me, so let him aling ink all he wants to. I have nothing whatever to Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show Has Interesting Exhibit.

Buffalo Bill's herd of buffaloes, which he exhibits with his Wild West, consti-tutes one of the few herds of bison still in existence. There are less than 300 bufin existence. There are less than 300 buffaloes all told remaining on the continent, the remnant of millions which once roamed the prairies. They constitute one of the most interesting exhibits with Buffalo Bill's Wild West, and are used in the exhibition to illustrate the methods of the hunter in the olden days, when Buffalo Bill was a youth, and when the Indians were monarchs of the Middle West.

Mrs. G. E. Hill, wife of a former member of the Portland Fire Department, the most pitiful letters ever received him to sign the warrant for her husband's pay, aggregating $43.05, which had been "shaved" by C. E. Rummelin, a former City Councilman and at present a money-broker.

In the letter Mrs. Hill explains to Mayor Lane that she wished him tosign her husband's warrant, which the Mayor had refused to sign previously,

Hon. Harry Lane, Mayor, Portland, Or.— Dear Sir; This is to inform you that I am entirely without means of support and in absolutely destitute circumstances at this time. I have a daughter living in Seattle who is ill and whose husband is also ill in the hospital with typhoid fever, and to whom I could be of assistance if I were in that city.

I could be of assistance if I were in that city.

I have related the facts of my circumstances to C. E. Riummellin, the money broker, of this city, who holds the warrant for $43.05 due to my husband. George Hill, for pay se a fireman, and Mr. Riummelin has offered to pay me $50 if I will give up all my claim as the wife of Mr. Hill to the amount due him from the city, and my husband having gone away and left me permises. EXPORTER DESIRES TO REACH SETTLEMENT.

Louise Powell-Stevens Also Hopes to Prevent Scandal From Being Aired in Court.

The domestic affairs of T. M. Stevens and Mrs. Louise Powell-Stevens will not be aired in court if negotiations that have been going on between them for about a week result in a settlement of the case. This is said by their counsel to be probable, but further than this they refuse to discuss the matter. Judge O'Day, Mrs. Sievens' attorney, when asked last night what the terms of agreement would probably be, said he was not free to talk. He said that both parties had agreed that it was a case which should not be taken with headquarters in New York City Mr. Edwards is also president of the Aero Club of America, the Automobile Club of America, and vice-president of two banks, as well as being prominent in a number of other financial institutions. Brokers Smash Straw Hats.

Mr. Edwards expressed his pleasure at the entertainment given him and regretted that he could stay no longer in this city.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.-There was a NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—There was a big smash in Wall street yesterday. Fully 1000 straw hats went down to ruin. September 15 is the date set by the financial district for the end of Summer headgear, and numerous brokers who ventured into the region of the bulls and bears in defiance of the rule, soon saw their "straws" look like a naval practice target. Although there was less demolishing of hats on the Stock Exchange than in former years, the curb market and Consolidated Stock Exchange, as well as the lower corridor of the Produce Exchange, kept up precedent in good shape.

Lawyer Who Charged Jury-Bribing Is Missing.

FELL INTO BURNS' TRAP

Ruef's Lawyer Disappears After Blake's Indictment for Attempting to Buy Talesman Who Was Acting for Burns.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16 .- Forenan McFarland, of the grand jury, to day instructed the District Attorney's office to find Frank Murphy, who is wanted in connection with the further investigation of the alleged attemp to bribe Joseph Kelly, one of the veniremen in the Reuf case, to render veniremen in the Keur case, to render a verdict in favor of the defendant. It is now stated that Murphy has been absent from the proceedings in the Ruef case ever slace Kelly made his declaration, and Detective William J. Burns, of the graft prosecution forces, is said to have been seeking the attorney for the past two days. Murphy was not at his home last night, and an associate of Murphy's whereabouts.

a statement from Kelly, in which the latter declared that he had been ap-proached by A. S. Blake with an offer of money for his vote in favor of Ruef. said that both parties had agreed that it was a case which should not be taken into court, and that each side had made overtures to the other.

The validity of the Powell-Stevens marriage is believed to be the question upon which the suit hinges. If the wealthy importer will admit that Mrs. Powell-Stevens was legally married to him, thus giving her the opportunity to obtain a divorce, it is believed that the money matters can be settled between them without difficulty.

At a former session of the grand jury the former had reported the attempted bribery and had endeavored to secure actual payment of the bribe. At a former session of the grand jury to investigate the matter, Blake was indicted and arrested at South San Franclaco.
