PENDLETON INVITES TRAVELING MEN.—President Willis Fisher and Secretary Joseph C. Gilson, of the Oregon and Washington division of the Travelers' Protective Association, have received from the officers of the Third Eastern Oregon District Agricultural Society, an invitation asking the members of that association to attend the annual district fair which will be held in Pendleton September 28 to October 3.

Reviews MURPHY CASE.—The City Civil Service Commission, which consumed the entire day yesterday hearing evidence in the case of Matt P. Murphy, who was recently discharged from the police service by the Executive Board, is now charged with drunkenness, conduct unbecoming an officer and with insulting young women in his district, which is being investigated by the police.

Registration Now 17,034.—Attendance at the public schools is increasing daily. Yesterday the registration showed that there were in attendance 17,034, a gain of 200 over the previous day's enrollment.

Kenilworth Wants Mail.—An effort is being made to have a 12-inch mail laid from the station to the Kenilworth tract, which is held up on account of uncertainty relative to the dedication of streets in Kenilworth, and also as to who shall pay for the main. The streets, while laid out, have never been dedicated, but measures to have them dedicated have been taken through the City Attorney. A petition was circulated for this main, but when it was discovered that the property-owners benefited would have to pay for it, the matter was dropped.

Young Member of Harriman Staff Wanders Around Company's Offices Seeking an Impossible Hand-car Statement.

George Strauss Miller, a clerk in the office of J. P. O'Brien, general manager of the Harriman lines in this territory, is leading a troubled life. The fact that he is new to the business has called down on his head a number of practical jokes from his fellow clerks.

Coming Attractions. "A Gilded Fool" Next Week. One of the rarest comedy troupes of the clean, high-class order is Nat Goodwin's noted troupe, "A Gilded Fool," which the Baker Stock Company will present all next week at the Bungalow.

Millinery Supremacy. Why Courteous Saleswomen, Superior Talent and Moderate Prices are always found at Fraley's.

Millinery Supremacy. At Fraley's, where correct style and exclusiveness are supreme, shopping is a real pleasure, for courteous and experienced saleswomen gladly exhibit their most beautiful creations, without urging one to buy.

Millinery Supremacy. Situated in a district where rents are low, Fraley's can profitably pay the high salaries demanded by expert millinery artists and competent saleswomen.

Millinery Supremacy. Having an unusually large clientele, they are enabled to purchase direct from the wholesaler, instead of through the local jobber. Extremely moderate prices are the direct result of the saving thus effected.

Millinery Supremacy. Mrs. N. A. Warren, well known as millinery manager in a local department store is now at Fraley's and will be pleased to see friends there.

Millinery Supremacy. Storage Space for Rent.—Brick warehouse, Tenth and Johnson streets. Telephone: Main 461. A 3500.

Remember Rube Welch? Rube Welch, the man who built the Heilig Theater and was its first manager, comes to the grand next week in "The Flip Mr. Pop." With him is little Francis, one of the best-known comedians of the stage in her line.

Seats Selling for Kolb and Dill. Seats are now selling at the box office of the Heilig Theater for the favorite comedians, Kolb and Dill who will begin an engagement of one week next Sunday night, in the merry musical-comedy, "Lonesome Town."

Dancing Mitchell—Orpheum. The three dancing Mitchell are colored entertainers, who have long been identified with Black Patti, Ernest Hogan and the Williams & Walker shows, and for characteristic dancing of their race they have few equals.

Pantages Next Bill. Mlle. Louise and her troupe of trained acrobatic monkeys, will be the featured attraction at Pantages Theater next week. The great Leator, ventriloquist, will be one of the special added features.

Tennessee's Partner Sunday. The offering at the Lyric for Sunday afternoon and all week will be the exciting Western drama, "Tennessee's Partner," with Mamie Haskell in the title role.

Ben Welch—Orpheum. Ben Welch, in his Hebrew and Italian impersonations, is making an awful hit with his audience. Last night it was fairly a scream. His work is clean and devoid of wit. His singing is good and his dancing is of a class peculiar to himself.

Music at Pantages. The four musical Hodges, presenting their high-class spectacular military musical act, and the fascinating Maud Rockwell, are drawing big houses at the Pantages Theater this week.

Where to Dine. All the delicacies of the season at the Portland Restaurant; fine private apartments for ladies, 339 Wash., near Fifth.

BANK WITH A STRONG BANK ILLUSTRATION NO. 9 The Oldest Trust Company in Oregon

Early one Spring a firm of general agents deposited $5000 with us on a certificate payable on thirty days' trial, with interest at three and one-half per cent. They were so well pleased with the arrangement, that in the Fall they took another certificate for $5000, payable on ninety days' call, with interest at four per cent.

These gentlemen also kept a check account with us, and they found their certificates of deposit formed an excellent reserve in case of emergency. Will not the same arrangement work in your business?

Call on us and learn further ways in which these certificates can be used.
