

To this document were added the follow-ing articles: A copy of the Catholic Sentinel Arch-angel, Northwest News, Daily Oregonian, Daily Standard and Evening Telegram. All printed constitutions of Catholic so-cleties of this city. One-dollar piece of 1883. The names of Otto Kleeman, the archi-tect: of Shorno & Davison, the contractors, and of J. Wilson, P. Maloney and J. Hart-man, the building committee. Also the names of Father Bouchard, S. J., the orator of the day; of the singers, organ-ist and conductor; the names of the Sun-day school trachers and of the rector of the parish.

Long Address of Abuse. Lewis, a very young man with a strikcity, 25; Beasie B. Whitmer, 21.

Wedding and visiting cards. W. G. Smith & Co., Washington bldg., 4th and Wash.

There is an ordinance on the city's books now which gives to every one the right to lay bitulithic pavement, but with the sin-ble exception of the Pacific Bridge Com-pany, which has an arrangement to do so, none dare lay it. Competition, it is said by Mr. Kellaher and others, is ab-solutely eliminated, which is also true of the asphalt and Hassam brands of bacd surface attracts.

"What I am waging this fight for is that we may have in Portland what the charter calls for-open and competitive bids for all of our street improvements."

charter calls for-open and competitive bids for all of our street improvements." said Mr. Keilaher. "As matters now are, the Warren Construction Company has a monopoly, and it is positively in violation to the charter. If the Council continues to order these patent pavements, it is the Warren Construction Company has a monopoly, and it is positively in violation to the charter. If the Council continues to order these patent pavements, it is going to result in the city having to pay going to result in the city having to pay for some of the streets so paved, for any property-owner can refuse to pay for his improvement, carry the matter toto the courts and make the city pay it out of the general fund." There has been loud complaint from property-owners all over the city, as to the character and cost of the birdithic character and cost of the bitulithic avement, and scarcely a street is ac epted without one or more remon

PLANS FOR NEW QUARTERS

Christian Association Decides to Raise Money to Furnish Structure.

At a meeting last night in the Y. W. C. A. rooms on Oak street plans were formulated for the raising of funds for the furnishings of the new building at Seventh and Taylor streets. It is com-puted that the cost of furnishing the new quarters will approximate $10,000. The professional women of the city have assumed the responsibility for the fit-ings of the symnasium, which are con-dered the most expensive in the build-

According to the plan originated at last night's meeting each person will be provided with a strip of cloth one yard in length. Each person accepting this piece of cloth obligates himself to this piece of close obligates himself to obtain coins aggregating one yard in length. About 709 yards of coins so ob-tained will, it is estimated, in addition to funds already subscribed, provide suitable furnishings for the new build-

The new building will be ready for occupancy about the first of November and gymnasium classes will be formed soon after. The association has secured for this department Miss Alberta Cary, of New York City, formerly in charge of the gymnasium classes in the Harlem, New York association, and for six years similar classes in Oberiln College.

At last night's meeting addresses were made by the president. Miss Cartle A. Holbrook, and Miss Constance McCorkle. secretary, on the plans for the coming year. Solos were rendered by Margaret Bekker. At the conclusion Frat the meeting light refreshments served.

ADVOCATES BETTER ROADS

Judge Scott, of Marion, Talks of

Improvement of Highways.

Improvement of Highways. Index the auspices of the Portland Automobile Club a meeting of those in-foregon was called for last night. The sided over by R. D., Inman, chairman, Will Lipman, secretary of the club, and other officers were present The feature of the evening's meeting was an address by Judge John H. Scott, of Marion County. He ouillned what

GEORGE WYATT IS GUILTY

Grewsome Evidence Revealed in Steamship Company.

Robbery Charge at Chehalis,

CHEHALIS, Wash., Sept. 18.-(Spe-cial.)-George Wyatt today pleaded guilty to robbing A. Toepel's store in Doty, this county, in November, last year. He was sentenced to the peni-tentiary for 1 to 14 years. He was also charged with a statutory offense against Susie Patton. She testified against Wyatt, and will be freed by the casts and returned to har West Vir-

state and returned to her West Vir-

R. Kuhn, of Doty, was alleged to be implicated in the robbery charge, but was found not guilty yesterday by a jury. In the trial it developed that Wyatt had talked of killing Kuhn's 4-year-old child, disemboweling it and ahlpping the jeweiry in the child's body to West Virginia, where it could be later exhumed and the jeweiry dis-

Last Spring Wyait escaped from the Lewis County jall and went to West Virginia. He was captured and Sheriff Deggeller made the trip East after FINDS GOLD IN WHEAT BELT Umatilla Farmer Files Mining Claim on 40-Acre Tract.

PENDLETON, Or., Sept. 18.-(Special.)--James Conlan, a rancher in Juniper Canyon, in the northern part of Umatilla County, has discovered gold on his farm and yesterday filed on 40 acres as a placer claim. This is near the center of the wheat belt and it is the first time that any one has discovered any indication of the existence of the yellow metal in that

EDUCATION IN VALUES.

If you would be posted as to clothing values visit the Brownsville Woolen Mill Store, Third and Stark streets. They are giving free and unrestricted choice of their 15.00, $17.50, $15.50, $20.00, $22.50, $25.00, $27.50 and $20.00 suits for $15.50. Fabrics, and $20.00 suits for $15.50. Fabrics, cut, finish and style are sure to meet with your sanction, and the price-well, you'll be simply delighted.

A Paying Investment of over $17,000, had an additional sum of $1560 sewed in the lining of his coat, ac-cording to a document filed with the County Clerk's office, yesterday. Charles Schmabel, lawyer for Burrell's hairs, filed an amended inventory revealing the loca-tions of this additional amount. "I thought a man of Burrell's habits might have money in his clothing," said Mr. Schnabel. "Although the Coroner found nothing in the man's pockets I thought it advisable to search the lining." I did this last Saturday and found $1560 in currency in the lining of the coat it speaks well for the Coroner's office succeeded so far. Many people have come to believe that there may be some other cause for the damage than electricity. Williams avenue is a clay street, which is said to facilitate the action of electricity in the destruction of pipe, if such be the The conditions there are practically the same as in Eastern Multhomah, wh for four miles near Gresham the I Run pipeline is in constant need of where Bull Run pipeline is in constant need of the pairs. A crew of men has been working there nearly all Summer to stop the leaks, but new ones are constantly breaking out. The soil where these leaks occur is a heavy clay, and it has been noticed that they do not occur in rocky or gravely MOTHER WEEPS IN COURT

Pathetic Scene When Ralph Kad-

derly Is Sentenced to Reformatory.

The persistent badness of 13-year-old Ralph Kadderly got him a term in the Reform School yesterday, and drove his sorrowing mother into hysterics. The boy was tried before Circuit Judge Gan-tenbeln for incorrigibility. He had been let off on probalion once before and the judge thought he was entitled to no further consideration. further consideration. The boy broke two windows of a Mount

The boy broke two windows of a Mount Scott car several nights ago. He used a slungshot and narrowly missed a wom-an with an infant in her arms. He de-nied the offense, but one of his play-mates confessed to having been present at the time and on this testimony the youngster was sent to the reformatory: He was arrested by Special Agent W. P. Lillis of the O. W. P. Company. In all, a dozen bad boys, ranging in age from 12 to 29 years, have been arrested for mis-conduct on the Mount Scott line. Several have been placed on probation and one or two of the older ones have been fined. Kadderly is the first to go to the Reform School. citizen, celebrated his 71st birthday Thurs-

When it was ordered that he be sent to the House of Correction there was just eight minutes left in which to got him aboard the train for Salem. Bailiff Courtney hustled the little fellow out of the room. He cried pitifully for his mother, and the mother threw herself on the floor in a fit of hysterical weeping. Most of the witnesses of the scene hur-ried away. Mrs. Kadderly was taken home in a carriage by friends.

WEALTH IN COAT'S LINING Fifteen Hundred Dollars Found in

Garment of Man Who Died.

L. B. Burrell, the aged miser who dropped dead at the Postoffice lately and whose hoard was found to reach a total of over $17,000, had an additional sum of

Well-Known Resident of Hood

River Celebrates Birthday. HOOD RIVER, Or., Sept. 18 .- (Special.)

SHOOTS WIFE ON STREET -E. I. Smith, Hood River's best known

E. L. Smith, Pioneer of Hood River, Celebrates Seventy-first Birthday.

day, hale and hearty. Mr. Smith has spent almost half his life at Hood River.

having come here in 1874. He

Everett Man Gives Himself Up, Claiming He Was Intoxicated.

EVERETT, Wash., Sept. 15 .- Richard EVERETT, Wash., Sept. 18.—Richard Quinn, a former employe of the Ferry Baker mill, this afternoon shot and fatally wounded his wife. He gave himself up an hour later, alleging the shooting had beeen accoldential and was due to the fact that he was intoxi-cated. Quinn met his wife this after-moon on the street. He was armed with a rifle. The two taiked for a moment and then the shot was fired moment and then the shot was fired Mrs. Quinn staggered to the house of a neighbor and Quinn rode away.

ABERDEEN, Wash, Sept. 18.-(Spe-clai.)-Clifton E. Jameson, aged 47, dx-Mayor of Montesano and at one time prominent in the social and financial life of Grays Harbor, died here today. Since leaving the Harbor Mr. Jameson had spent most of his time in Texas. He came-here to die among his old friends and children. His children are Mrs. R. P. Brown, wife of the manager of the P. Brown, whe of the manager of the Aberdeen ball team; Earl Jameson, aged IT, and Roma Jameson, a student in Aberdeen College. Mrs. H. H. Carter, wife of County Assessor Carter, is a sis-

STYLES TO SUIT ALL.

No matter if you want a suit that shows all the late style kinks-or one that day that his first purchase of Hood River property was 500 acres. At that time he is simple and conservative-you can find just what you want at the Brownsylle Woolen Mill Store. Third and Stark. All you need pay is $15.00. At this price you have free choice of 5000 suits that sold at $15.00. $17.50. $13.50. $20.00. $22.50. $55.00. W750. and $20.00. Breach with the sold. says the now famous apple land went beg-

$27.50 and $20.00. Every suit is perfect and guaranteed to you by us and by the Brownsville and Salem woolen mills.

Record Catch of Trout.

LYLE, Wash., Sept. 18.-(Special.)-The record catch of trout fishing occurred yes-terday on the Big Klickitat River at Minterday on the Big Klickitaf River at Min-eral Springs, 16 miles from Lyle. The lucky angler was Ira Horinbrook from Goldendale, the recent successful candi-date in the primary for Republican nomi-nation for County Clerk. Ira began fishing at 11 A M. and by 7 P. M. he had caught 113 trout, including one rare catch of a big rainbow that measured 30 inches and weighed sight and one-half pounds. S. Benson, a well known lumberman, an angler of experi-ence, witnessed the catch and declared it equaled anything he ever saw.

Olympia Mait Extract, good for grand-ms or baby. Only 15-100 of 1 per cent alcohol. Phones: Main 571, A 2677, ** defend tham, as he agreed with Lewis past few weeks.

Indiana middle-weight whirlwind, did not elicit the enthusiasm that generally at-tends the meetings of local Socialists, altends the meetings of local Socialists, al-though there were many demonstrations from the less conservative element. His address consisted mainly of unqualified abuse. In beginning he said he would "expose the Young Men's Christian As-samination" and added that the organi-sation and all it stands for may be summed up in three words, rent, interest and profit. "The Y. M. C. A. stands for all the curses from which society suffers today," he averred, and added that a mysterious organization known as the "Citizens' Alliance" and The Ore-gonian is part of the system for pulling gonian is part of the system for pulling the wool over the workingman's eyes, while the militia is the power which in-timidates the workingman and keeps the wool there. Mr. Stone here inquired who made up the Cliffens' Alliance, but Lewis evaded the question with a flood of rhetoric and proceeded declaiming against the order of things in general and the Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. Quinn staggered to the house of a neighbor and Quinn rode away. DEATH ROLL IN NORTHWEST Clifton E. Jameson, of Aberdeen. and wages.

Says Stone Is Hypocrite.

"I understand that Mr. Stone pretends Siskiyou. to be a friend of labor," Lewis said, "but that cannot be. A man cannot repre-sent the capitalistic class and the work-ingman. I say that Mr. Stone in claiming to be the workingman's friend is as big a hypocrite as Pontius Pilate." Lewis also compared the general secretary to Judas Iscarlot. "The Y. M. C. A.," Lewis said in a burst of noise, "Is part of the system that is clutching the laboring man's throat. The Y. M. C. A. stands for murthroat. The Y. M. C. A. stands for mur-der, it stands for burglary, it stands for debauchery, for the white plague, it stands for rottenness and therefore I denounce the Y. M. C. A. "The Y. M. C. A. wants you to pray," he added. "It wants you on your knees, with your bands raised on hich. That he added. It wants you on your kneer, with your hands raised on high. That is a good attitude to have you in for picking your pockets and that's what the Y. M. C. A. wants to do to you."

Lewis ceased speaking when udlence showed signs of adjourning ody from exhaustion, and Mr. the was then given an opportunity to ad-dress those that had remained. He said he would be brief. Lewis asked that he be given every courtesy while on the platform and then took a seat behind him and smiled broadly while Mr. Stone behind that the Y. M. C. A. stood for the world ingman as much as any other man. work

Mr. Stone Makes Reply.

"We do not stand for the Socialist alone as you do," he said. "We want to help the banker as well. We want to to near the parter as well, we want to help every man, not alone the work-ingman, to a higher and better life. That is the aim and purpose of our organiza-tion and the charges Lewis makes here tonight are something I have never be-fore heard breathed in the 15 years of my assured.

DAILY METEOROLOGICAL REPORT.

PORTLAND. Sept. 18.—Maximum tempera-ture, 70.5 degrees; minimum, 42.2 degrees; River reading at 8 A.M., 2.1 feet; change in last 24 hours — 3 foot. Total rainfall (5, P. M. to 5 P. M.) none; total aince september 1, 1908, 09 inch; stormal, 35 inch; deficiency, 76 inch. Total emissing September 17, 38 hours, 36 minutes; possible, 18 hours, 24 minutes, Barometer treduced to sea-level), at 5 P. M., 20,89 inches.

PACIFIC COAST WEATHER. Observatione taken at 5 P. M., Pacific time, eptember 18:

STATIONS.	Maximum temp	Precipitation past 12 hours	H Direction	State of weather
Rokan Mer	3 84	10.01	1 Giorge I	The All of the

2	Baker City	64	0.01]	.8	SE	Pt_ cloudy
1	Bismarck	70	0.00	12	N	PL cloudy
1	Botse	661	T.	14	W	Pt. cloudy
	Euroka	623	0.00	412		Clear
	Helena	541	0.12		N	Cloudy
511	Kamloope	24	0.00	-	Calm	Clear
8.1	North Head					Clear
61	Pocatello		0.00			Clear
21	Portland	705	0.00	4	NW.	Clear
81	Red Bluff	841	0.00	-4	8	Clear
81	Roseburg	78				Clear
K I	Sacramento					Pt. cloudy
61	Salt Lake					Pt. cloudy
81	San Francisco		0.00			Cloudy
5	Spokane		0.02			PL cloudy
11	Tacoma		0.00			Clear
	Tatoosh Island		0.00			Cloudy
	Walla Walla					Clear
18	Elalpe		0,00			Clear
	Sirkiyou	Wall.	0.00	13	Cala	Clear
211	manary marriseresses	West.	HANNO		Contraction	COMME.

T.-Trace

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

WEATHER CONDITIONS. The barometer has failed slightly through-out its Northwest during its pairs from British Columbia and anothe everiles the Interior valleys of California, while the pressure is slightly below normal over in-terrowainington. Eastern Oregon, Western Mabo and Montana, but clear weather pre-valls in the western portion of the district. A decided rise in temperature has taken place in the eastern portions of Washington and Oregon and in Idaho. Elsewhere tem-perature changes have been alight. The indications are for fair weather Bat-urday in Oregon and the southerm portions of Washington and Idaho, but showers are possible in Northern Washington and North-ern Haho. It will be warmer in Southern Idaho and Emstern Oregon. FORECASTS.

FORECASTS.

FORECASTS. For the 28 hours ending midnight, Eept. 19: Portiand and vicinity -Fair: westerly winds. Oregon-Fair: slightly warmer east por-tion; westerly winds. Washington-Fair south, possibly showers north portion; westerly winds. Idaho-Fair and warmer south, possibly showers north portion.

Two Suits Against Company.

F. A. Palmer filed two suits against the Olds, Wortman & King Company, yesterday, for an aggregate sum of $12, 500. The basis of his suit is the running down and killing of his 5-year-old son. Kenneth, by one of the firm's delivery wagons recently. The accident occurred on Grand avenue, near Sullivan's Guich.

Buys Into Aberdeen Lumber Mill.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Sept. 18.-(Spe-ABERDEEN, Wash, Sept. 18.-(Spe-chall)-C. M. Weatherwax today bur-chased the one-sixth interest of James H. Hackett in the Aberdeen Lumber & Shingle Mill Company for $100.00, Mr. Weatherwax has now a half interest in the property, all purchased within the mast few weeks public functions and positions. In honor of his birthday, about 40 of his friends gathered at his home Thurs-day evening to congratulate and wish him many happy returns of the day.

ging at $1.25 an acre, and that Indiana

are many and white people few and far between. For many years Mr. Smith lived on part of his large land holdings where he grew fine apples and peaches. He has been closely identified with the progress and development of both the valley and city. In his long life here he has represented Hood River and the state at large in many public functions and positions.

ter.