FINALLY GOES TO BONEYARD

Old Steamboat Gamecock Is Beached Near St. Helens.

After being submerged for about four months at Long dock in the city, the Gamecock was raised a few days ago and everything of value taken from her. Under tow of the Vulcan the hull was towed down the river yesterday afternoon and at a place near St. Helens it will be beached and allowed to disintegrate.

OREGON GOES TO COOS BAY

Government Dredge Will Dig Out Inner Harbor.

The Government dredge Oregon, under tow of the tug Astoria, left the river yesterday bound for Coos Bay, where it will be put to work on the inner harbor. An appropriation was made for the building of the dredge but no work could be done with it on account of the appropriation for harbor and river improvements running out.

WRECKED AT POINT BARROW

Cod-Fishing Schooner Ivy Goes Ashore and Reported Lost.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—A dispatch from Nome, Alaska, received by the Merchants Exchange says that the cod-fishing schooner Ivy, belonging to the Union Fish Company of this city, has gone ashore at Point Barrow, and it is thought will be a total loss. The crew is safe. At the time of the disaster the Ivy had no cargo on board.

Mines Exploded in Harbor.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Three of the mines which were put in New York waters at the time of the Spanish-American War, and have lain in the magazine at Fort Wadsworth ever since they were officially condemned, have been exploded. No boats were allowed to pass that way at the time. The only evidence the spectators got from the explosion was a cloud of 1000 stunted fish—hake, black fish and flounders—which were seen floating directly in front of the fort after the mines had been set off. The soldiers got into their tents at once and every one of them went back to quarters with a good catch for Friday. One soldier got 200.

Lighthouse Tender in River.

Government lighthouse tender Heather arrived at Astoria yesterday and is to proceed slowly to this port, stopping en route to issue supplies at post lights and replace several missing buoys. The Heather will remain at Portland two or three days after arrival. The Armeris, of the same service, is now on the way from Alaska to Puget Sound, making the last trip of the season to the far North.

Oregon's greatest state fair ever held closes tonight, and all the exhibits in the livestock grand divisions are to be packed and shipped to Portland, tonight, for the opening of the first annual Pacific National Show on Monday.

Portland will be equipped with better facilities for handling livestock and race entries than almost any other point in the West, for the reason that the O. R. & N. railroad company is just completing a spur track from its main line in Montavilla, with side-tracks and a temporary station inside the Country Club grounds.

Several officials and directors of the Country Club attended the state fair on Portland day, Thursday, and they declare that there will be at least 2500 head of livestock here during the Pacific National show, next week.

Running Races, Too.

It is announced that a series of running races will be given during the week. The details cannot be announced for the reason that the management is endeavoring to bring together the best of the "bang-tail" talent that can be found on the Coast for these events.

we are sure of bringing all the Oregon stock shown at the state fair, and we will draw in large numbers from other states, which did not submit entries at Salem. We have been assured of strong lists of entries from Western Washington, from Eastern Washington, from Idaho, Montana, Wyoming and Colorado—stock that has not been shown at the Salem fair, but which has been attracted to Portland because of the splendid combination sale of the Oregon states, which will take place Thursday and Friday of next week.

Thoroughbred Stock to Be Sold.

The catalogue of the livestock to be sold next week in connection with the races and the show, is almost ready and it embraces all the finest herds and stables in the Northwest. In addition to this there are nearly 20 livestock breeders of the East and abroad who are making nominations for this sale.

Mile Track Cost $27,000.

Superintendent F. A. Brooker, who has charge of the construction work, says that he has seen more than a score of grand circuit and other race courses, but that he has never seen one which in its first year gave greater promise of record-making than the one here in Portland.

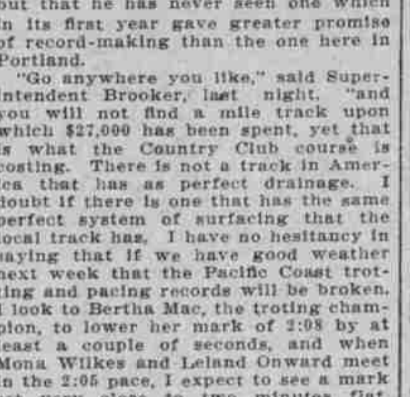

"Go anywhere you like," said Superintendent Brooker, last night, "and you will not find a mile track upon which $27,000 has been spent, yet that is what the Country Club course is costing. There is not a track in America that has as perfect drainage. I doubt if there is one that has the same perfect system of surfacing that the local track has. I have no hesitancy in saying that if we have good weather next week that the Pacific Coast trotting and pacing records will be broken. I look to Bertha Mac, the trotting champion, to lower her mark of 2:08 by at least a couple of seconds, and when Mona Wilkes and Leland Onward meet in the 2:08 pace, I expect to see a mark set very close to two minutes flat. Mona Wilkes is, without doubt, the greatest pacer the Pacific Coast has ever developed, and if she does not cut out two or three seconds from her record of 2:08 1/2, I shall be greatly surprised. She will do it if we have any kind of weather."

A Convincing Experiment

Dr. Sabouraud, of the Pasteur Institute, Paris, France, incubated a rabbit with human dandruff germs, and "in between five and six weeks," says the official report of the Pasteur Institute, "the rabbit was completely denuded, in fact it had become entirely bald."

This experiment proves that dandruff is a contagious disease, due to the presence of a microbe growth in the sebaceous glands of the scalp. It also proves that the sebaceous glands of dandruff is stopped—by destroying the dandruff germ—that it will lead to falling hair and incurable baldness.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

Is the original remedy that kills the dandruff germ, and its success in the treatment of dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair is oftentimes little short of marvelous. Send for booklet.

What the Press Agents Say.

"The Devil" Twice More.

The last two performances of the great sensational drama, "The Devil," will be given by the Baker Stock Company at the Bungalow this afternoon and tonight. This is one of the most popular plays that every one wants to see.

Near The Oaks Closing.

Tonight the Allen Curtis Musical Comedy Company will present "Jacky, Ike, and Mike," the hilarious Webster-Field burlesque, which has been so justly popular during its revival this week. The company closes here tonight, and will continue to offer its many other attractions.

Lyric's "Devil" Matinee.

This afternoon the Bunkall Company will give another of its brilliant performances of the sensational drama, "The Devil." Tonight will occur the closing performance, and an immense audience is in prospect.

"Chick" Perkins at the Star.

"The Little Prospector," which is playing at the Star Theater this week, contains many new ideas, and is by far the most entertaining and thrilling play of life in the mining camps of the West ever written.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Kohl and Dill Tomorrow Night.

Beginning tomorrow (Sunday) night, and continuing every night next week, with a special matinee Saturday, the favorite comedians, Kohl and Dill, together with Maud Lambert and an excellent supporting company, will present the musical comedy, "Lonesome Town," at the Helix Theater, Fourth and Washington streets. Seats are now selling.

"The Royal Chef" at Baker.

H. H. Frazer will offer the great musical comedy, "The Royal Chef," at the Baker tomorrow afternoon. The piece has been here before at much higher prices, but this season's company is not only as good, but in many respects better than it was before. The chorus is one of the best on the road this season.

"A Gilded Fool" Tomorrow.

Nat Goodwin's famous comedy success, "A Gilded Fool," will be the Baker Stock Company's attraction all next week, opening tomorrow afternoon, and this is a play that needs no introduction to theater-goers. It is one of those clever things that never will grow old.

The Four Rinos—Orpheum.

The Four Rinos is a name familiar to the patrons on the Orpheum circuit. This clever quartet does an original and screamingly funny "number" each week, opening here tomorrow. Two of the four impersonators, the third is a professor interested in the Darwinian theory, and the fourth is an eccentric servant.

"Tennessee's Partner" Tomorrow.

Tomorrow afternoon the Bunkall Company at the Lyric will open its new week with a magnificent production of the sensational Western drama, "Tennessee's Partner." Mamie Haslam will make her first appearance in an adult part in the title role.

Panages Next Week.

An act which will more than please the AKENTUCKY EXPERIENCE Coffee and Tea Still at Work.

A Ky. lady had a very agreeable experience in leaving off coffee drinking, which she found harmful, and taking on Postum. She never loses an opportunity to tell others of her good fortune. She says:

"For over 25 years I suffered from nervous trouble. Four years ago I was down with nervous prostration and heart trouble. After several months of misery, my doctor, one of the best in the country, told me I must quit coffee and tea."

"What was I to do? I must have some warm beverage for breakfast as I had never done without one in my life."

"I decided to try Postum, little thinking it would amount to anything. At first I did not like it, but when we boiled it 15 minutes, until it was as thick as cream, it was delicious, and I soon began to feel better."

"After using Postum constantly three years I feel like a different person. I always had been a poor sleeper but now sleep well and am in perfect health. And I give the credit to Postum."

"My entire family now use it in preference to any other beverage at meals. I am an enthusiastic friend of Postum and I know that what it has done for me it will do for others, so I never let a chance go by to recommend it to those who suffer from coffee drinking."
