SYNOD ENDS ITS SESSION

PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERS RECEIVE PROMISING REPORTS.

Selection of Site for Mission School One of the Important Features of the Closing Meeting.

The Columbian synod of the United Presbyterian Church closed its session at the Church of the Strangers with an enthusiastic gathering and a hopeful outlook for the future. The closing business features were the election of Rev. J. S. Colvin, of Idaho, as moderator alternate, and Rev. L. L. Lanning, of Washington, as stated clerk, the latter a selection having been left to the Home Board of Missions.
The office of synodical superintendent of missions, newly created, was left unfilled, a selection having been left to the Home Board of Missions.
An important matter of business was the selection of a site for a mission school. A tract of 80 acres on which stands a suitable school building, at Weller, Idaho, was offered the synod for $5000, together with a promise of a yearly bonus amounting to the purchase price during the next five years. This practically makes the site and building a donation to the synod, and as there is now a fund of $10,000 on hand from the

WILL GIVE SALOME DANCE

Portland Theater-Gossers to See Attraction That Caused Sensation.

Portland is to see the famous Salome dance, so popular to be mildly jarred, perhaps shocked, perhaps scandalized, but probably the sensation caused will not be so violent, after all. The East is decidedly "crazy" over the dance, which has not yet invaded this section of the country.

BEST RIDERS WITH SHOW

Buffalo Bill's Horsemen Come From Every Part of World.

Many styles of horsemanship will be shown by the rough riders with Buffalo Bill's Wild West when it visits this city. These horsemen have been drawn from all the equestrian nations of the world. Russian Cossacks will ride with the Mexican vaquero, the American cowboy will be shown in contrast with the Bedouin Arab, the military grace of the Royal English Dragoons, Irish Lancers and German Cuirassiers will be easily compared with the native recklessness of the American Indian. To see all the horsemen in their native land, who will be in the saddle with Buffalo Bill's Wild West, one would be compelled to travel the world over.
