

FLAMES RAGE ON TWO SUBMARINES

One Dead, Three Injured, in Disaster Caused by Gasoline Explosion.

ONE MAN STILL MISSING

Panic on Grampus and Pike Follows Burst of Flame, Which Spreads Down Hatchways. Boats Much Damaged.

VALLEJO, Cal., Sept. 18.—An explosion of 250 gallons of gasoline on board a barge moored abreast the submarine boats Grampus and Pike, at the Mare Island Navy-yard, this afternoon, resulted in the death of Chief Machinist Teddy May and injuries to Lieutenant J. S. Townsend, Chief Gunner's Mate W. H. Leahy and Chief Gunner's Mate Morrison.

The explosion occurred without warning, throwing the flames in all directions. It was the most spectacular fire ever seen in the Navy-yard. Men were forced to jump overboard to escape the flames, but the majority of them were rescued.

When the fire was got under control a man was found to be missing. He is said to have been aboard the barge immediately preceding the explosion. He plunged overboard and was unable to swim. Efforts to locate the body have been unsuccessful.

After the explosion the flames spread down the hatchways of the submarines, catching men like rats in a trap. They escaped only with difficulty.

The barge was used as a workshop for the crews of the submarines. It is supposed some passing workman dropped a match, causing the explosion.

The damage to the boats has not yet been estimated.

FORAKER TO KEEP IN REAR

Presidential candidate's attitude as a result of the publication of the letters given out by Mr. Hearst.

George B. Cox, when asked to make a statement, refused to comment on the case.

ALL PROPER AND LEGITIMATE

Archibald Defends Foraker's Employment; Denies Other Charges.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—John D. Archibald, of the Standard Oil Company, made the following statement today:

"Such correspondence and relations as I may have had years ago with Senator Foraker were entirely proper and legitimate.

"If Mr. Hearst had come to me direct, it would probably have cost him less to secure copies of my correspondence than for Mr. Hearst to have either employed or dealt with thieves."

Mr. Archibald characterized Mr. Hearst's statements regarding an alleged attempt to bribe ex-Senator Foraker as pure fiction and exploded long ago.

"As to the statements alleging relations between Governor Haskell of Oklahoma and the Standard Oil Company and contributions through him or anyone else to the Democratic campaign fund, there is not a shadow of truth in them."

"Mr. Higgen's insinuations about burning his plant are absurd and unworthy of notice."

BENNETT DISCUSSES LETTER

Says Foraker Supported Him—Why Archibald Disliked Him.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 18.—Smith W. Bennett, of the Attorney-General's office, stated today that the statement read by Mr. Hearst at the meeting last night was given by him about ten days ago and was secured by James F. Dorrance, of New York, who represented the New York American.

When asked whether Mr. Foraker opposed him in his fight for Attorney-General, he said:

"I don't think so. The opposition came from the other side. I am under the impression that he was not against me, but rather was for me in my fight."

Mr. Bennett also stated that he did not know whether Charles F. Squire was a representative of the Standard Oil Company.

Mr. Bennett was greatly interested in the charges connecting Governor Haskell with the Standard Oil Company, as far as he could see from the statements made by Mr. Hearst, he (Mr. Bennett) was the only one who had anything to laugh at and, were he a candidate at this time, he certainly would be supplied with facts brought out by Mr. Hearst that would aid him in his campaign fight.

ADMITTS WORK FOR STANDARD

Foraker Says Not Then Considered Creditable to Aid Trust.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 18.—That he had been several years ago an attorney for the Standard Oil Company, but that such employment had nothing to do with matters pending in Congress or in which the Federal Government is interested, is the substance of a brief statement made today by Senator Foraker, in answer to charges made by William R. Hearst, in Columbus last night.

"I do not know whether the letters given out by Mr. Hearst are true copies or not," Mr. Foraker's statement reads, "but I assume they are, for I was then engaged in the practice of law and was employed by the Standard Oil Company as one of its counsel in connection with its affairs in Ohio, where it was attacked in the courts and in the Legislature."

"While I do not now recall the details, I remember that I rendered the company such service as I could, charged for it, and was paid.

"The employment had no reference whatever to anything pending in Congress or to anything in which the Federal Government had the slightest interest."

"That I was so employed and presumably compensated for my services was common knowledge at the time; at least I never made any effort to conceal the fact. On the contrary, I was pleased to have people know that I had such clients."

"It had not then become discreditable, but I considered, just the reverse, to be employed by a corporation."

"That employment ended before my first term in the Senate expired. I have not represented the company in any way since. In other words, I have not represented the company in any way since long before it was attacked by the Federal Government, nor since before, with full general knowledge, I was re-elected to the Senate."

KLINE HIRED HIM HIMSELF

Wanted Foraker to Defend Standard Against Oyster Suits.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Virgil P. Kline, for many years attorney for the Standard Oil Company in Ohio, just returned to Cleveland, declared that there was no mystery as to Senator Foraker's work as an attorney for the Standard Oil Company. He had personally engaged Mr. Foraker, he said, as counsel for the company in suits of oyster which were pending against the corporation in the State of Ohio.

"I wanted Mr. Foraker as counsel for the company in Ohio cases because I knew him to be a lawyer of uncommon ability. These cases were brought in an effort to drive us out of the state and in the course of defending them I received distinctly holding many conferences with Mr. Foraker regarding them."

In reference to dispatches from Cleveland that Mr. Foraker's name did not appear as an attorney of record in the Ohio cases during the years when the oyster cases were pending, Mr. Kline said that was a surprise to him.

"My recollection is that Mr. Foraker filed at least one brief in those cases. The briefs may have been brought in immediately preceding the explosion. He plunged overboard and was unable to swim. Efforts to locate the body have been unsuccessful."

After the explosion the flames spread down the hatchways of the submarines, catching men like rats in a trap. They escaped only with difficulty.

The barge was used as a workshop for the crews of the submarines. It is supposed some passing workman dropped a match, causing the explosion.

The damage to the boats has not yet been estimated.

ONLY POWER BEHIND THRONE

Foraker Did Not Appear in Court for Standard Oil.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 18.—United States Senator Joseph B. Foraker was not an attorney of record in any of the Standard Oil cases tried in the Ohio courts. The first cases were filed in 1882 and were carried along through various courts for more than 40 years.

According to the records in the Attorney-General's office, the attorneys of record in 1893 and 1900, when the cases against the Standard Oil Company were pending, were: W. R. Keith, S. C. Dodge and Joseph H. Choate, of New York, and Virgil P. Kline, of Cleveland.

None of these attorneys were employed in the Attorney-General's office know anything about any connection of Mr. Foraker with the Standard Oil Company.

"Yet," said Smith W. Bennett, Assistant Attorney-General, "Foraker may have been the power behind the throne and may have been giving legal advice and looking up similar cases in other courts for citation in the fight of the Standard Oil Company in Ohio."

The same official stated that he was employed most of the time with Attorney-General Monnett in his contacts through the various courts with the Standard Oil Company and had his first time to hear Mr. Foraker make any arguments or even appear in person or otherwise at any of the various hearings.

SIBLEY ONE OF HUNDREDS

Appealed on Behalf of Standard, but Roosevelt Ordered Suits.

OSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 18.—Secretary Loeb's attention was called today to the letter read by William R. Hearst at a political meeting in Columbus, O., Thursday night, which included correspondence said to have passed between Senator Foraker, of Ohio, Congressman Sibley, of Pennsylvania, and John D. Archibald, of the Standard Oil Company.

Today Mr. Loeb issued the following statement, presumably in reply to that portion of the correspondence in which Mr. Sibley had alleged to have called on the President in behalf of the Standard Oil Company.

"When Secretary Loeb's attention was called to the alleged letter of ex-Congressman Sibley, he stated that Mr. Sibley was one of several hundred people in the political and financial world who at different times appealed to the President not to prosecute the Standard Oil Company. To all of these people the President listened with politeness and consideration. He himself was unable to deal with any of them, however, and the prosecutions were accordingly ordered continued and are in progress at the present time."

NO SUCH BILL IN CONGRESS

Records Fail to Show Measure Which Worried Archibald.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The Congressional records fail to show that any bill was introduced in Congress during 1899 or in the first session of the 56th Congress, which was in session at that time, relating to foreign corporations, as referred to in the Foraker-Archibald correspondence. A House bill No. 590, to which specific reference is made in the correspondence, was a private claim bill and did not deal with corporations in any way. There was not at that time any member of the House named Price, which is given as the name of the author of the bill referred to.

Sibley Denies Writing Letter.

FRANKLIN, Pa., Sept. 18.—Ex-Congressman Joseph C. Sibley today denied most emphatically that he had ever written a letter to John D. Archibald telling Mr. Archibald that he had warned President Roosevelt not to offend the Standard Oil Company.

CARELESS POISON CHARGES

Four Patients in San Diego Hospital Dead; Four Will Recover.

DEADLY DRUG IN WATER

Young Girl Leaves Solution of Atropine in Pitcher Within Reach of Sick Men—Makes Tardy Confession.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 18.—Four deaths have already resulted from the carelessness of Mary Arthur, a 19-year-old nurse, at the County Hospital, and four others are seriously ill, though their illness is not expected to be fatal.

The dead are: J. Young, Charles Kemp, Henry C. Shuette and A. Paisler.

Captain B. Tisler, George King and Mr. Penney are seriously ill. All were taken sick yesterday afternoon and the evidence of poison was so great that an investigation was started, ending finally in a confession by Miss Arthur that she had neglected to throw out some water in which there was a quantity of atropine, and that the patients had got hold of it with their medicine. She realized her mistake as soon as they became ill, but did not confess until the investigation had brought the deaths almost home to her.

Girl Under Surveillance.

Miss Arthur is in a state of collapse but is kept under surveillance at the hospital. The inquest is postponed until the result in Paisler's case is known.

Dr. Northrop, the County Physician, expressed the opinion tonight that the end of the death list had been reached and that the surviving patients will recover.

The manner in which the poisoning occurred is thus explained in the statement made by Miss Arthur, the nurse: "An atropine solution had been made yesterday morning by me. This solution was used to dilute the eyes of one of the patients. Shortly after making the solution, I left the ward in response to a call to assist in an operation. I left the solution in a water pitcher and it is probable that some one came through the ward and noticing that there was not much water in the pitcher, filled it up."

Thought Water Pure.

"When I returned I thought the solution had been thrown away, and that the pitcher had been filled with clean water. Several of the patients, laboring under the impression that the pitcher contained pure water, drank from it."

Miss Arthur also used the water from the pitcher in administering medicine to several patients and also gave some of the patients drinks from the pitcher until the patients became ill. She realized that the solution had not been thrown away, but held her silence on account of the results.

ANOTHER MAN INDICTED

Grand Jury Adds West to List of Accused Bribers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—John J. West, an associate of Abraham Ruef, was arrested today on an indictment returned by the grand jury charging him with an attempt to influence venemen in the case of Ruef now on trial on the charge of bribery. West was discharged on furnishing bond of $100,000.

West follows that of Frank J. Murphy and A. S. Newburg, Ruef's lawyers, who also were accused of attempting to influence prospective jurors in the case of Ruef.

Alonso G. McFarland, foreman of the grand jury, today said that that body had not yet finished its investigation of the matter.
