

STRIKE HOLDS UP BUILDING WORK

Grays Harbor Carpenters Refuse to Use Lumber Hauled by Johnson Company.

MILLMEN STANDING FIRM

Declare Action of Union Is Boycott. Contractor Judson Says Principle of Unionism Is at Stake and Fight Will Be to Finish.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Building work in the harbor is generally suspended today and bids fail to remain so, as both the Carpenters' Union and the millowners have refused to recede from the attitude already assumed on the question of the use of lumber hauled by the wagons and teams of the Johnson Transfer Company.

At a meeting of the Carpenters' Union last night the whole problem was discussed at length, finally deciding to "stand pat" and continue to refuse to use lumber hauled by the Johnson teams.

On the other hand, the carpenters say that they desire the action of the millowners an attempt to "disrupt the unions."
