Nearly 1000 Bales of Hops Change Hands.

T. A. LIVESLEY THE BUYER

Practically Nothing Doing Yet in Oregon Market-Barley Transaction at Board of Trade. Eggs Are Higher.

Although the Oregon hop market continu quiet some heavy transactions have taken place in Washington. The purchase by T. A. vestey & Co., of Salem, of nearly 1000 bales of Yakima bops became known yesterday. lots bought were those of Rankin, 600 bales, and Bell, 200 bales, both of the new erop, and the Bodet lot of 185 bales of 1907s. For the latter, the price paid was $16 cents. The Bell hope are understood to have been ice contingent on the advance in the market been complied which shows a total yield Of the total crop 5500 bales have now been sold. The lightness of the Yakima crop, as to be regarded by hop men as one of the tme as the Yakimas have established a repu and this year's supply is likely to prove inadequate to the needs of the trade.

The Western Washington crop is now figured bales, which makes the total for the state at the present estimate 11,000 bales, in-hops yet. Aside from the sale of a small lot at Silverton at 7 cents, reported to have been taken by Catlin & Linn, no transaction belief that the market will not fully open until, the Eastern dealers have had an opportunity to inspect a representative line of samples. In the meantime, the Oregon growers are taking things calmly and waiting

Price Movement Takes an Upward Swing.

MARKET IS NOW TRANQUIL

Sudden Change, However, Arouses Suspicion of the Traders-Dealings Are Congested in a Few Issues.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The tranquil state into which the stock market fell to-day after the turmoil of yesterday formed a strong contrast. The transformation was so sudden as to appear unnatural and was for that reason made the ground for some suspicion and for reservo in speculativ commitments. It is usual after so violen a collapse in prices as has occurred in the last few days for the first rebound to be last few days for the first rebound to be of corresponding vigor.

The languor into which the movement fell today at a moderate stage of the recovery, therefore, left grounds for distrust. Something of this moderation was attributable to the extent to which bear operators covered their short contracts late yesterday when prices were recovering in proportion to the enormous buying for that account.

This covering movement by the bears was continued today. Very large buying orders were executed by a few influential stock exchange houses who were moda active in the recent soiling. Their transactions were largest in the two Harriman Facilie stocks and in Reading. These are the operations which the supposition current on the floor of the Stock Exchange connects with the Standard Oil and Harriman interests. Sentiment on the stock market has been awayed for weeks by the belief that action was being taken in the market for this account.

The buying today created the impression awayed for weeks by the belief that action was being taken in the market for this account.

The buying today created the impression that a further fall in prices was to receive the countenance of these powers no longer. The miscellaneous following of room traders and professional operators followed this leadership implicitly, as they believed they penetrated its concealed purposes. The dull hesitation of the market after the first hour gave this element much anxiety.

Dealings were greatly congested in the Harriman stocks, Reading and the copper industrials. There was a rebound from the recent declining tendency in the price of copper warrants in London. This called remewed attention to the close correspondence there has been between the price movements in copper in price movements in copper and in stocks throughout the Summer speculation. While stocks were rising there was a daily announcement of an advance in copper quotations, while the relapse in stocks has been accompanied by successive declines in the quotations for copper. This correspondence has been taken to confirm the opinion of the responsibility for the movement of the group of capitalists with a targe common interest in the copper industrials and in the corporations of which the whares have been most active in the stock market.

The breaking of the drouth in the Weat was heralded with sailafaction, but the warning of a probable cold snap to follow made the corn market sensitive. The day ended at the Stock Exchange with one of the movement than on previous occasions. Bonds were irragular. Total saies, par value, $2,222,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Prices Current Locally to Hogs.

Livestock receipts yesterday were light, except on boxs. The market was on a firm basis for all fancy offerings and such commanded full prices. The hog receipts were basis for all fancy offerings and such commanded full prices. The hog receipts were 640 head, the largest for some time past. The top price of 714 cents was quoted on strictly fat hogs weighing 225 to 275 pounds, for which the demand was very good. Lighter hogs of 175 to 200 pounds were in fair demand at 7 cents when the stock was light. Stockers and lights are not wanted at all. Of the large day's receipts not over 50 hogs were of the top grade.

One hundred and thirty head of cattle were received and prime fat steers were in demand at the top quotation, but not many of this class are comins in.

There were no receipts of sheep, lambs or calves and prices on these lines were as formerly quoted.
