BY W. J. PETRAIN. Despite the Arctic temperature yester afternoon, McCredie's balltosser, managed to warm up and administer a second defeat to the visiting Oakland contingent. The score was 6 to I and was made possible because Jack Graney was steadler and received better support than was accorded "Happy Bill" Hogan, Oakland's general utility man, who was called upon to do the pitching stunt, owing to Truesdale's return to the game. owing to Truesdale's return to the game.
Hogan succeeded in frosting two Portlanders in the first inning, but before he icepacked the third member of the home guard. Tom Raftery had pickled one of his shoots for a triple and Manager Maccame near doing likewise. He laced out a double that resulted in Casey and Johnson, who had walked, and the aforementioned Thomas, tapping the register for three runs.

Hit Hard in Fourth

Another exhibition of Hogan's liberality resulted similarly in the fourth canto when Portland booked three more runs clinching the game. Catcher Frambes, the new acquisition, opened the inning with a clout to left for one base. Jack Graney sacrificed and Frambes reached second. Cases was again given a ticket second. Casey was again given a ticket by Hogan, and after Cooney had made the second out by a fly to Truesdale, Johnson was ambled, filling the bases. Danzig dumped a Texas leaguer just out of reach of Eagan, Van Haltren and Cook, and before the latter retrieved the ball. Frambes and Casey had registered, Cook's return of the ball bounded over Lewis' head, and Johnson tapped the plat ter for the third ace, bringing Portland's ter for the third ace, bringing rottlands total to six.

Graney then took things easy and in the fifth Cakland collected toll on a couple. Smith opened by getting a pass.

Lewis flew to Danzig, but Hogan sent Lewis flew to Danzig, but Hogan sent his teammate along a peg with a safety to left. Cook came through with a single on which Smith rode home, and when Frambes hit Van Haltren in the back after fielding his bunt, Hogan clattered over for Oakland's second tally. The third tally for the visitors was gleaned in the seventh inning. Hogan was first man up, and like Smith in the previous period, secured a pass. Cook's previous period, secured a pass. Cook's smash to Johnson caused his own retirement at first, but sent Hogan to second. Truesdale proved a good waiter, and ambled. Van Haltren hit to Johnson, who played safe and forced Hogan out fuird. Heitmuller was on the job with a single to center which chased Truesdale home, and with two more runs knocking at the door, Truck Eagan dumped an easy one and was thrown out at first by for two or three bases, but he reckoned without the Portland captain. Casey leaped in the air and pulled down the clout with one hand. It was a great catch and the crowd warmed up sufficiently to applaud the feat as it deserved.

Aberdeen 4: Seattle 0.

SEATTLE. Wash., Sept. 22.—Seattle never had a chance today. The weather was bad, heavy dark clouds gathering and a rain and wind storm started in the ninth inning. The dark day was made to order for Thompson, who had all kinds of speed and shot the ball over so fast the Seattle batters could not see it. Aberdeen collected three hits in the second, Moore and Campbell getting singles and Fournier following with a sizzling two-bagger. Fournier was not given credit for the hit, as he cut first base,

PORTLAND, Sept. 23 .- (To the Editor.)—In Sunday's Oregonian is the report of the dairy test at the Oregon State Fair, which test gives the Holstein cow, Mercedes de Kol Aibin, owned by J. L. Smith, first place by owned by J. L. Smith, first place by 1.2 cents for two days' work over the Jersey cow, Madelina May, owned by Charles Cleveland; whereas it should have been that Madelina May was at least 9.2 cents ahead of Mercedes de Kol Albin. All the cheese factories and also the milk-condensing factories of the state, pay the dairymen for their milk on the basis of the butter-fat test. The plan of paying for skimmilk by weight is altogether out of date, as science has proved that the total amount of solids in milk, consisting of fat, bears the same proportion date, as science has proved that the total amount of solids in milk, consisting of fat, bears the same proportion of solids, not fat, and the large amount of milk testing low in fat simply contains that much more water than the other; nothing more or less, and the Jersey cow probably was ahead some cents a day on economical production, whereas as it stands, the Jersey cow produced $1.157 worth of butter fat and the Holstein cow produced $1.058 worth of butter fat; or 9.5 cents less than the Jersey cow. This is the real difference and the only computation possible, aside from a full analysis of the milk and of the food consumed by each cow. Considering our dairy products last year were worth $17,000,000, and that very likely in the near future it will reach $40,000,000 per year, great care ought to be exercised in taking these tests.

WILD RIOT ENDS DECIDING GAME

New York and Chicago Players Fight Over Disputed Decision.

UMPIRES HIDE FROM MOB

Game Remains Tie, Chicago Claiming It and McGraw Refusing to Play Again-Pulliam to Decide Contest.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 .- (Special.) The game between Chicago and New York today, with the lead of the Na-tional League pennant race depending upon it, ended in a riot and a tied score of 1 to 1.

Merkle, the young player subbing at Merkie, the young player subbing at first, was on first base and McCormick on third, when Bridewell cracked a clean drive to center and Merkie, without going to second base, rushed for the clubhouse and was forced out at second, nullifying the run that McCormick had scored. Umpire O'Day ran down to second base and saw the whole play.

Riot Begins, Police Step In.

A wild riot, in which the umpires were shoved, pulled and beaten, and in which Chance, Howard, Evers, Tinker, Marshall and Hayden, of the Chicago team, were assaulted and heaten, followed, and the umpires, escaping from the maddened crowd of fans, hid in their dressing-rooms until the city po-lice cleared the field. Half an hour later O'Day announced that, as Merkle had failed to touch second base, he was forced out, and McCormick's run could
