BY W. J. PETRAIN.
In an alleged game of baseball that resembled a Kolb & Bill burlesque rather than an exhibition of the National game, Portland booked a third straight defeat on the Oaklanders yesterday by the score of 15 to 5, before a handful of fans at the Vaughn-street lot. Just how Onkland accumulated five was nothing puzzling about the galaxy of scores on the home guard's portion of th scoresheet. In fact, if Van Haltren had continued to depend upon "Silm" Nelso as the puszier of the McCredie outfit, the score would have attained the proportions of a Standard Oil magnate's bank ac-The attenuated interrogation point doing duty as an Oakland slabster must have had an off day, for he could not have been any further off the job had he been reclining at his own fireside in Oakland town. His reception was one grand batting raily on the part of the Portland team, and before the home guard was finally chased to the field, five bingles and four runs were chalked

Nelson still insisted taht he was or the job and took another fling at the puzthis occasion he was maltreated some more, but his teammates also got into the error column on occasions uncalled for, with the result that the ex-Tacoman relegated to perch to think it over today, when he says he will try it

Hit Nelson From First.

Casey opened the first inning for Portland with a hiff to right that counted for one pillow. Phil Cooney played the game by neighby Pearl along with a sacrifice. Ote Johnson responded to the call by lacing one to Helimuiler's veidt for a couple of cushions, chasing Casey home for the first run. Danzig and Raftery followed with sharp hits to the outfield, and on the latter's drive, Johnson registered. McCredie's out advanced Danzig and Raftery, and when Bassey shot zig and Raftery, and when Bassey shot into Big Helney's territory, two more rans counted. Frambes ended the laning with a tap to Nelson.

More fireworks served to chase some of the chill out of the atmosphere in the second inning. Bobby Groom fell a victime to Nelson's curves and sat down. Casey biffed one for another single, Cooney followed by beating one out which Truesdale fooxled long enough for all hands to be safe. After this the lanky one's support went to pieces. Johnson was safe because Truesdale failed to get Casey at the plate. Danzig singled, scoring Cooney, and when Cook muffed Baftery's drive and then threw the ball away, Danzig and Johnson scored. McCredie's single sent Tom home for the lifth run.

Gardner Goes on Slab.

Van Haltren then delegated Harry Gardner, a Pertland boy, who made quite a record in the Tri-City and Coos Bay Leagues, to Nelson's relief. He had con-siderable bad luck in his first inning, the third, when his support behaved like a gathering of said lot exponents who scarcely knew a baseball from a sausage. Errors by Egan, La Longe and Cook, coupled with two scratchy hits, gave Portland five more runs.

That Bobby Groom became extremely careless is the only secret of the quartet of aces collected by Oakland in the tet of ares collected by Oakland in the fourth. Cook started the melee with a triple to right, and before the visitors let up. Van Haltren. Heltmuller. Miller and La Longo had also found Bobby safely and four runs resulted. Errors by Johnson and Danzig gave Oakland its fifth run in the sixth inning.

Gardner pitched great ball after the third landing, and in the sixth canto be fanned out McCredie. Bassey and Frambes in succession. In the eighth, Portland bunched three hits and broke the boodoo number on the score board.

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 24.-Special.)-SPORANE, Wash, Sept. 3.—Special.— Idaho University refuses to play the an-nual football game with Washington Uni-versity on Scattle grounds; Washington University refuses to play on the Mos-cow grounds and now Spokane alumin of the two colleges insist that the game will be played November 30 or 31 in Spo-kane.

Since the annual game between these Since the annual game between these colleges appeared to have been abandoned because of bickerings between the athletic committees. Spokane enthusiasts have become self-appointed arbiters. The Booster Club has taken up the matter, and President Corbaley, on a visit to Moscoow yesterday, urged the compromise on the idaho team.

Efforts will be made to induce the Washington eleven's manager to adopt this view, and there is a possibility that a responsible organization will guarantee both elevens against losses if they decide to play here.

Rolb and Dill, together with their excellent company, in the merry nusical comedy, "Lenesome Town." Crowled houses have been the rule this week, as the company has made a big bit. Seats on sale at theater.

"A Foot for Luck."

Nat Goodwin's "A Gilded Fool," which the Baker Stock Company is presenting with so much success at the Bungalow this week, must have been inspired by the two old sayings, "a fool and his money, etc.," and "a fool for luck." for they are both in the lime-light of the witty meanes and situations. Three times more—tonight, tomorrow matinee and

"The Royal Chef" at the Baker, Many of the most popular and tunefu songs of today are from "The Royal Chef." which is delighting large crowds at the Baker which is delighting large crowds at the Baker this week. To hear William Couley eing "Let Me Go Rack," with the heautiful chorise and light effects, is well worth the price of admission alone.

The Blunkall company will give a grand matine performance of that epiendid Western drama, "Tennessee's Partner," tonight, and will certainly please the many patrons of that popular theater. It is a play that arouses Georgia Hurper at the Star. The favorite actrees Georgia Harper is at the Star Theater all this week in Paul Kes-ter's popular comedy-drama, "Nell Gwynne." The play is one of the pleasing varieties and his had a long and successful run in every city in the United States.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Scats Now Selling at Heilig.
Seats are now selling at lox-office of the Heilig Theater, Pourceouth and Washington attracts, for the heatiful musical comedy, "Coming Thro" the Rye." which will be the attraction at the above theater for four nighty hesinning next Sunday, September 27. A special matines will be given Weilinsday afternoon. This was one of last season's biggest hits.

"The Cat and the Fiddle."

Next week at the Baker, starting Sunday matines, the latest musical extravaganza. "The Cat and the Fiddle," will be the attraction. The pronounced success of this beautifully staged musical extravaganza bespeaks for it here an overflowing house. A Broadway success of more than ordinary type, it has scored a series of triumphs in all the larger cities throughout the East.

A Rush for Seats.

A Rush for Scats.

There is one grand rush at the box-office of the Bungalow this week for mats for "The Girl of the Golden Week," like great Belasco production which the Baker Stock Company will present for the first time here all next week, opening Sunday matthes. Miss Jewel will play the role made famous by Blanche Bates in New York.

"Niobe" and Salome Dance Next. The coming attraction at the Lyric will be the Elunkall Company in that great new hit which rehearsals have demonstrated is to be one of the biggost hits of the year, "Nlobe," a clever comedy, and Nadine "Niobe," a clever comedy, as Branscombe in the Salome dance.

Human Targets at Orpheum.

Frank McCrea and company will be seen at the Orpheum Thoater next week in an exhibition of skillful short-range merkminship. This is a most interesting display of remarkable accuracy in the use of pistole, rifles and other Brearms.

New Noveltles Promised. There will be several novelties on the ne bill at the Grand next week. The principal one will be "The Criminal," a protean act, with Boland West impersonating five distinct characters. A troup of Arabs and Laughlin's acrial dogs will also be noveities. "Uncle Josh Perkins" Coming.

Strong and stirring is the plot of "Uncle Josh Perkins." the latest successful comedy drama. It pulsates with vitality and is en-tirely original in theme and story. "Uncle Josh" will be seen at the Star Theater dur-

Comedy Cyclists at Pantages, Next week the Heuman Trie, world's greatest comedy bicyclists, will be seen for the first time on the Pacific Coast at the Pantages Theater. The special added fea-ture will be the Grand Opera Duo, prozenting the Prison Scene from "Faust."

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS.

Mystery at Orpheum. A cabinet several feet above the floor, a curtain placed around it; a lad bound hand and foot to a chair or stool placed inside the cabinet; a face peering through an opening; footlights on full blaze; flowers, musical instruments, hands of different sexes, all seen and moving about from inside cabinet. What is it? Simply Jupiter Brothers in "Black Art" at the Orpheum.

Comical Kittle Francis.

There are few women on the stage today who are as fumy as Kittle Francis. This famous comedienne and character actress is at the Grand in the headline act. "The Filp Mr. Flop." In the act with her are Rub Welch, the comedian and ex-theatrical manager, and Miss Kate Coyle, the popular singer. Another act of more than passing interest is the dancing of Mile. Theo.

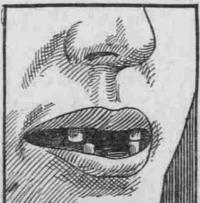

Clemenso Brothers at Pantages.

One of the most comical acts in vaudeville is that of the Clomenso brothers, the Euro-pean scrobatic musical clowns, appearing at the Pantages Theater this week. In fact every act on the programme is going big, take the press agent's tip, don't overlook the Pantages this week.

Following the lead of Washington fishermen, Oregon salmon snarers will seek to enjoin Master Fish Warden McAllister from enforcing recent legislation preventing fishing both in the upper and lower river. An injunction suit is now being prepared and will be presented to the Federal Court on September 30 by the Columbia River Trappers' Union. G. C. Futton, of Astoria, has been engaged to prepare the papers. The suit will seek to prevent Mr. McAllister from enforcing the laws against Fall fishing on both sides of the Columbia River.

Should the injunction be granted, it will annul, temporarily, at least, the laws against fishing, and trapping and gilinetting may go on until the vexing question is finally threshed out in the Supreme Court.

Washington fishermen have already secured an injunction which prevents Oregon authorities interfering with fishing operations north of the century of the columbs.
