INSPECTING SIDEWALK MATERIAL

Multnomah Improvement Association has a committee at work investigating the material used in building the concrete sidewalks on the many streets being improved in Multnomah. Addition.

CHURCH RECEPTION.—Rev. S. C. Lapham, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, East Seventh and East Ankeny streets, and Mrs. Lapham, were given a reception Wednesday night, in honor of their return from their vacation.

OPTOMETRISTS MEET.—The Oregon State Board of Optometry will hold a meeting and examinations at the Imperial Hotel, September 21 and 22. The officers present were: President, E. O. Martin; TEMPLE BETH ISRAEL SERVICES.—Celebration of the first of the series of high holidays at Temple Beth Israel, corner of Twelfth and Main streets, and at the service of the New Year. The service will begin at 8 o'clock and will be conducted by Rabbi Joseph B. Wise, who will preach on the theme, "Arise, Shine for the Light is Come," from Isaiah.

JEWISH NEW YEAR SERVICES.—In celebration of the Jewish New Year, which commences today and continues for two days, services at the synagogue of congregation Novah Zedek, Sixth and Hill streets, will be held as follows: Friday, 7 o'clock P. M.; Saturday, 8:30 A. M.
The services will be conducted by Rabbi Dr. H. N. Heller, assisted by a well-trained male choir. Sermon on Friday evening: "The Message of the New Year."

APPLICATION IS VOID.—The fact that no advertising notice was filed with the City Auditor in the case of the application for a franchise by the National Automatic Fire Alarm Company, the application was declared void by City Attorney Kavanaugh and the Council, at its session yesterday morning, took no action. It will now be necessary for the company to go over the ground if it still desires the grant.

TO VOTE ON ANNEXATION.—The City Council yesterday morning adopted resolutions, granting to the residents of the Mount Scott district and a strip of territory near Montavilla, the right to vote on the question of annexation. Both sections voted at the last election, but failed to carry the factor of annexation, and desire to make another effort.

SALE OF BOYS ORDERED.—The City Council, at its session yesterday afternoon, authorized the sale of $25,000 worth of city improvement bonds. This is one of the largest issues ever ordered sold, and the advertising will begin at once.

WILD WEST HERE TODAY

BUFFALO BILL BRINGS HIS BIG SHOW TO PORTLAND.
Riding, Roping, Shooting, Performances by Trained Horses Are Features of Performance.

After nearly seven years absence Colonel Cody returns today with his small army reinforced in numbers and with additional features.

It was a quarter of a century ago when the country was started by a novel exploitation of scenes of America's Far West that were historic in accuracy—the participants being the real thing, and the things depicted historic. It was Buffalo Bill's Wild West show, which arrived today and give four exhibitions, two today and two to-morrow. The organization is larger than in former years. The exhibition stands alone as an instructive entertainment. Since then its programme has been added to by the introduction of numbers germane to historic horsemanship and appropriate to a subject too broad, realistic and colossal in size to be represented in the confines of a stage. The management has yearly added new features and promises the same this season.

Nearby all the features presented are those that are fast passing away.
Colonel Cody still leads in the saddle

DEATH OF ABRAHAM DREYER.—Abraham Dreyer, proprietor of a shoe store, at Third and Burnside streets, died yesterday morning at his home, 114 North Tenth street. Mr. Dreyer was about 50 years of age and was a native of New York City. He came to Oregon 22 years ago and engaged in the dry goods business, first at Silverton, Or., and later in Portland. He is survived by his widow and one son, Samuel Dreyer. Mr. Dreyer was a member of the following orders: Washington Chapter of Masons, Portland Lodge of Elks, Protectors of America, Woodmen of the World and the Odd-fellows. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

HERNEFT FOR FORBES CHURCH.—This evening a concert will be given at the Forbes Presbyterian Church, Sellwood and Gantenbein streets, for the purpose of raising money toward the church building fund. The Forbes Church was burned last year, but now that a beautiful new building has been erected on the old site, the department of the church is doing all in its power to raise money to meet the financial obligations. The concert tonight is given under the auspices of the classes in the Sunday school.

This club has pledged $50 toward the new building. The tickets are 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children under 12 years of age.

WILL OPEN CATHOLIC MISSION.—Rev.
Father Thomas Sherman, S. J., one of the ablest missionaries of the Roman Catholic Church, will open a mission at St. Patrick's Church, Nineteenth and Saviler streets, next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Father Sherman is a son of General William Tecumseh Sherman, and is an evangelist of national reputation.
He will be assisted by Rev. Father P. H. Devlin, S. J., and all are invited to attend the services.

MORE VOTERS REGISTER.—Thirty Republicans, 11 Democrats and 14 miscellaneous voters registered at the Courthouse yesterday morning at 7 o'clock.
The total for the first four days of registration now stands: Republicans 148, Democrats 64, Miscellaneous 48.

ABRAHAM SHOLOM SERVICES.—Jewish
New Year services will be held at congregation Abahav Sholom, Park and Clay streets, this evening at 7 o'clock and Saturday morning at 7 o'clock. Rev.
Mr. Abrahamson officiating.

LECTURE ON ART CRITICISM.—A lecture, "Recent Art Criticism," by Miss Josephine C. Locke, will be given at the Portland Art Museum Saturday evening, September 25, at 8 o'clock. The public is invited.

WANTED.—50 people to die on N. P. timberland; come quick. Address G 20, Oregonian.

WANTED.—Competent trimmer, two makers and an apprentice. Fraley's millinery.

DR. E. P. GEART, returned, 406 Oregonian building.

PERSONAL MENTION.
J. P. O'Brien, general manager of the Harriman line in this territory, left the city last night to accompany his family as far as Huntington on their way East.
Mr. O'Brien will return to the city tonight.

R. E. Wells, general manager of the Salt Lake Railroad, arrived in the city yesterday in his private car over the Northern Pacific and left last night by way of the Southern Pacific for California.

Fred K. McCarver, a former Portlander, who is now advertising manager for the Abbot-Kinney Company, which owns and operates a Casino, a Los Angeles, sports and amusement resort, is visiting relatives and friends in Portland.

BANK WITH A STRONG BANK

ILLUSTRATION NO. 12
THE OLDEST TRUST COMPANY IN OREGON

A few years ago there was a very prudent and thrifty reverend gentleman living in Southern Oregon. He procured from us two of our certificates of deposit payable on ninety days' call, with interest at 4 per cent per annum. Afterwards one of these certificates came back to us from New York City. The reverend gentleman had made an investment, and he found that his certificate was as good as cash to make payment for the same.

It is always good to have your money drawing interest until you find a permanent investment. Call on us and let us give you further examples of how these certificates work.
