BROTHERS FIGHT MOTORMAN. — Two longshoremen crossing the street at Third and Glisan streets yesterday, afternoon moved so slowly that they caused an "S" car to come to a stop to avoid running over them. This annoyed Motorman E. W. Hicks so much that he told the two men. Samuel and Thomas Beeler, brothers, what he thought of them and expressed himself in no uncertain terms. The Beeler brothers retallated in language considered forceful even along the waterfront. The result was that Hicks sallied out into the street to whip the two. While the passengers waited, the trio outside fought. The Beelers had Hicks down and were beating him badly when Patrolmen Annund. BODY FOUND IN BRUSH ON PORT-LAND HEIGHTS,

Elderly Man Shoots Himself Through With Revolver Still Temple Clutched in Hand.

Lying dead, a bullet hole in his temple a revolver clutched in his right hand, the body of a man past 65, whose iden tity cannot be learned, was found in the brush on Portland Heights at 10 o'clock vesterday morning.

His appearance was that of a man of affairs, his clothing of good texture and cut, his linen new and unsoiled. In his pockets were found $2.50 in silver, a silver watch and a knife. But there was not a scrap of paper which might be used in establishing the man's identity. Seemingly he had destroyed everything which might lead to discovery of his name.

The body was discovered by D. Ostrander, a boy, who was hunting squirrels. It was lying a short distance from the Patton road, near Holman avenue, in a clump of bushes. The boy at once told his parents and the police were notified. Later the body was removed by Deputy Coroner Dunning.

The old man had been dead about three days. Although there was but one bul-

BODY IS FOUND IN RIVER

Remains of Unidentified Man Picket Up Near Swan Island.

The body of an unidentified man was found floating in the Willamette River yesterday afternoon near Swan Island by two boys, Albert Nelson, of 146 North Fourteenth street, and Charles A. Edmondson, who lives on the river from near the North Pacific Mill. The boys were fishing in a small skiff when the floater passed by with the current. The boys rowed after it and secured it to a stake and then notified Coroner Norden.

stake and then notified Coroner Norden. Deputy Coroner Dunning drove down and took charge of the remains. The body was frightfully decomposed from long exposure in the water.

There was nothing to assist in identification. A silver watch and $5.25 were found in his pockets. The man was wearing a mixed gray suit and a new pair of heavy soled black shoes. He is described as having been about $ feet 6 inches in height, weighed about 145 pounds and was apparently about 20 years old. He was of light complexion, had brown hair, wore a dark soft shirt with a light stripe running through the material, was smooth shaven and from his appearance it is believed he was a German.
