

PEKIN RECEIVES
LAMA OF TIBET
Holy Ruler of Hermit Empire
Arrives With Unkempt
Crew.

MAY REFUSE TO KOWTOW
Wandering Through Empire Has
Demoralized His Followers and Caused Disorder — China's
Design to Extend Power.

PEKIN, Sept. 28.—Dala Lama of Tibet, accompanied by a retinue of 50 attendants, arrived this afternoon at Ting Chow, a city in Chinai Province, about 50 miles southwest of Pao Ting Fu. A throng of emissaries met him at Pao Ting Fu and he was received in a royal manner by a large number of imperial officials as well as Pekin officials who journeyed out from the capital for that purpose.

He was escorted to the Yellow Temple, where he has made his headquarters. His route of march to this building, a distance of four miles, was lined by crowds of Chinese who had gathered to honor him. The roadway had been covered with yellow sand, as is done when the Emperor travels abroad—yellow, the imperial color in China—and an elaborate program of imperial entertainments has been prepared. This includes the ceremony of "kowitzing" to the Emperor, but it is believed that the Dala Lama will refuse to perform this function.

Wild, Unkempt, Unholy Crew.

During their years of wandering, the attendants of the Dala Lama have become thoroughly demoralized. They have lived at the expense of the local authorities and their demands have been limited only by the ability of the officials to produce what they want. They are a wild, disorderly, unkempt crew, giving no appearance of holiness. The most important problem brought out by the absence of the Dala Lama from the L'Hamas was left the holy city because the presence of Colonel Young, husband's force had desecrated it—that of the Lamaist succession. China's effort for four years to get the Lama whom she wanted has proved fruitless, and she has now embarked on a course of religious intrigue with the Tashi Lama, the Grand Lama who rules at Lhasa during the absence of the Dala Lama.

China Aims at Mastery.

China's purpose in this is to secure a foothold for the political mastery of Tibet and Mongolia, and it is believed here, in view of the recalcitrant attitude maintained by the Dala Lama, that China will have the Tashi Lama come to Peking. The activities already displayed by the foragers and procurers of the Dala Lama forecast a repetition of the scandalous proceedings that were witnessed at Wushai Shan, where the Dala Lama held a court for three months last Summer. The entire retinue of the Lama has not yet arrived at Ting Chow, but still the local authorities have seen fit to place the policing of the city on a military basis.

Pendleton Auto Enthusiast Guarantees Expenses Good Roads Meet.

PENDLETON, Or., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—At a call meeting of the Commercial Association of this city tonight a letter was read from W. L. Crisley, secretary of the Oregon Good Roads Conference, in which the association was notified that a Good Roads Convention would be held in this city on October 23, provided the local business men would raise $300, to defray necessary expenses.

When the association hesitated on account of the extra burden of money raising in addition to the expenses of the district fair now in session, Walter McCormack, a prominent local automobile dealer, offered to defray the entire sum. This relieved the burden, the association voted to extend a hearty welcome to the promoters of good roads.

PROSPERITY FOR JAPANESE

Consul Miller Says Times Will Be Better.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—Henry B. Miller, American Consul-General at Yokohama, arrived yesterday for a vacation. Before returning to the Orient Mr. Miller will visit Washington. In his opinion, better times will prevail in Japan before long. The new cabinet, he says, has commenced to restore confidence abroad, and the difficulties which attended the efforts of the government to finance improvements are about at an end. Miller attributes the trouble to the Chinese boycott and a drop in the price of silver and raw silk. Japan, says the Consul-General, is preparing a reception for the American fleet with tremendous enthusiasm, and the plans are of the most lavish character.

FLOOD DROWNS PRISONERS

Cloudburst Strikes Penal Colony at Iwahig.

MANILA, Sept. 28.—A belated official telegram has just been received here which reports that a cloudburst struck the penal colony at Iwahig on September 23 and that eight persons were drowned, including Harold Macknight, the superintendent of the farm.

The officials of the colony report that the prisoners behaved heroically during the cloudburst, many of them plunging into the water at great personal risk to rescue comrades who were in danger. Iwahig is a model penal colony, and is conducted without armed guards.

DIVER FIGHTS DEVIL FISH

Monster Is Killed After Terrific Struggle.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—Wrapped in the tentacles of a giant devil fish, Martin Land, a diver employed by the Coast Wrecking Company, fought for his life in the hold of the wrecked steamer Pomona, which lies in 30 feet of water in Fort

Rosa Cove, off the Marin County coast, and a fight in this city yesterday after an experience such as comes to few men, and he will enjoy a vacation before again donning diver's dress. The devil fish had evidently entered the vessel's hold during the night, and Lund was at work some time before he became aware of its presence. A giant tentacle, four inches in diameter, first gripped one leg. Before Lund could realize what had happened, another encircled his thigh. The diver began to chop frantically at the rubber-like bands, and at the same time signaled to the barge above that he wished to ascend. He was unable to free himself before two more tentacles squirmed out of the darkness and one tightened about his neck. The efforts of the men on the surface to comply with his signal, threatened to pull his helmet off, and he was forced to signal them to desist. With only his left arm free, he hacked at the tentacles until they were partially crippled, but he was being drawn toward the deadly beak, when he saw the outline of the devil fish's body. Plunging suddenly toward it, he drove the knife with all his force into the head, repeating the blow until he had slashed it into sections. In its death throes the octopus tightened its tentacles until the diver was almost crushed in its embrace. Lund then cut himself free and was brought to the surface in a fainting condition. Another diver brought some of the severed tentacles to the surface, and it is hoped to raise the body and bring it to this city for exhibition.

CLAIM IS TURNED DOWN

ARCHITECTS REFUSED $12,500 FOR DRAWING PLANS.

Ask Commission of 5 Per Cent on $250,000 Albina Schoolhouse, Which is Disallowed by Board.

Claims of Kable & Kable, the firm of architects which has a commission of $12,500 of the Board of Education for submitting plans for the new Albina High School, were denied at a meeting of the Board of Education. The claim had been referred to the committee on judiciary, consisting of J. V. Beach and H. C. Campbell, and acting upon the recommendation of the committee, the Board refused to grant the claim. The building is to cost $250,000 and the firm of architects asked for 5 per cent of that amount as their fee for preparing the plans. The report of the committee on judiciary, which was adopted by the Board, follows: The undersigned members of your committee on judiciary, to whom was referred the communication and claim of Kable & Kable, arising out of the proposals of plans for the new High School, respectfully report that we have given the matter careful consideration and recommend that your committee do not allow for the claim on the following reasons, among others: First—The jury selected by the Board of Education did not agree upon any recommendation, the jury having consisted of W. Marbury Somervell and Frank Higler, City Superintendent of Schools, and the recommendation of Mr. Somervell was not agreed to by Mr. Higler.

Second—The word "accept," as used in the published programme does not necessarily mean "adopt," as assumed by the claimants, but would undoubtedly be construed in this instance as synonymous of the word "receive."

Third—The power to build schoolhouses and determine their location and arrangement is a power vested exclusively in the directors by the laws of the State of Oregon, and it is the duty of such directors to exercise judgment and discretion. This power, in our opinion, could not be delegated and if the Board of Education had so done, it could ever so much to confer the power on some other person or persons it would have been null and void. J. V. BEACH, H. C. CAMPBELL.

A contract for plumbing the Shattuck School, amounting to $2995, was awarded to the firm of Stevenson, Paulsen & Myers, although the bid of Thomas E. Hunter, of the same firm, was lower. The latter firm, however, forgot to inclose the required check.

ARGUE LUMBER RATE CASE

Circuit Court Hears Appeal About Willamette Valley Rate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—In the Federal Circuit Court today Assistant United States Attorney Luther Walter, representing the Interstate Commerce Commission, argued upon the demurrer in the case of the Commission against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, based on the increase made by the company in the rates on rough lumber from the Willamette River points to San Francisco. The railroad raised the rates from $3.10 to $5 per 1000 feet and the united lumbermen of the Northwest protested to the Interstate Commerce Commission, which fixed the rate at $3.40. The action in the Federal Court followed in the form of an injunction. The Federal attorneys argued that the Circuit Court did not have jurisdiction in this matter, which provoked the railroad attorneys to declare to Justices Morrow, Gilbert and Ross who occupied the bench, unless the court could intervene between the Interstate Commerce Commission and the transportation companies, the Commission would have tremendous power. The case will be returned tomorrow.

FINDS HOARD IN JUNK

Junk Dealer Accused of Stealing Woman's Savings.

Accused of stealing $100, the savings of many months, which had been put in a stocking and then secreted in the bottom of a barrel in the cellar of the house of Mrs. Ole Olsen, at 1022 First street, Hermann Goldman, a junk dealer, was arrested last night before midnight by Detective Price and Coleman at First and Sherman streets. Goldman was charged with "larceny" and was locked up in the city jail in default of $1500 bail. Goldman called at the house of Mrs. Olsen two weeks ago and bought some old rags. While they were in the cellar Goldman pointed to the contents of a barrel and wanted to buy it. He ran his hand down in the barrel and brought out a stocking. Mrs. Olsen cautioned him not to touch anything in the barrel and refused to sell its contents. In the course of their bargaining Mrs. Olsen took occasion to utter a curse and the junkman in the cellar alone. Later she discovered the loss of the stocking and her savings.

Wealthy Hongkong Business Man Is Taken to San Francisco Hospital Under Bond for Treatment, Pending Final Decision.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—The special board of inquiry appointed to investigate the case of Robert Bosman, the wealthy business man of Hongkong, who arrived here on the liner Korea yesterday accompanied by two wives, this afternoon determined to shift the responsibility of saying whether or not the party shall be admitted to this country to the immigration department at Washington. As Bosman has come to this country seeking medical attention, he will be allowed under bond to come ashore and be taken pending advice from Washington to the German Hospital in this city accompanied by one servant; but the two wives and three children will not be allowed ashore at all. Bosman is in urgent need of skillful medical attention and will take advantage of the opportunity given him to undergo treatment while awaiting word of the action taken in his case at Washington.

The decision of the immigration authorities to refer the Bosman matter to Washington was reached only after a careful examination of precedents and rulings in similar cases of which there are so few on record that it is practically the first time that the particular question had to be answered. Bosman has been openly living with his two wives for years, and says that this is the first time that his actions have ever been called into question. He is a man of great wealth and very prominent in his own city, where he is the owner of a great quantity of valuable land. He had planned to make a rather extensive tour of this country, a visit to health, to be restored by the skill of American physicians, and it is believed that if he is denied entrance to the country even as a tourist on the ground of health, his practice of polygamy, that he will appeal the case to the highest authority possible before accepting a sentence of deportation.

SPOKANE AND PUEBLO WANT IRRIGATION CONGRESS.

Gathering to Be Marked by Large Attendance of Workers and Absence of Politicians.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 28.—Although the National Irrigation Congress does not convene until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, a lively contest has already been started by Pueblo and Spokane for next year's congress. Pueblo is represented by more than 100 delegates and a brass band and the Washington city by a trainload of delegates from the Northwest state, which arrived tonight. Salt Lake City is also in the race and the Utah delegates and a band arrived tonight on a special train. The attendance of delegates at the opening session will be fully 1500, with the prospect that that number will have increased greatly by Wednesday. This session will be notable for the number of actual workers in the field who are present to take part in the proceedings. There is almost an equally noticeable absence of men prominent in political life who have been present at former sessions. Tomorrow's afternoon session will be devoted to introductory business, the opening address by President Frank C. Gandy, of Denver; addresses by L. Bradford Prince, of New Mexico, and W. H. Smith, of Utah, and an address by General Franklin Bell, U. S. A., who is attending the congress as a representative of the War Department. The attendance of foreign delegates is a notable feature of the congress. The election of officers does not take place until Friday, George H. Barator, president of the congress, being the only man prominently named for the presidency.

APPEALS GUARANTEE CASE

Oklahoma Bank Will Test Validity in Highest Court.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The appeal of the Noble State Bank of Oklahoma, from the decision of the Supreme Court of that state in the proceeding of the bank which was instituted to test the constitutionality of the Oklahoma bank guarantee law, was docketed in the Supreme Court of the United States today. Governor Haskell, as chairman of the State Banking Board, has made the principal defendant. The case originated in the Logan County District Court of Oklahoma, which court sustained a demurrer and refused to grant the injunction asked for by the bank. The case was appealed to the Supreme Court of the state, where the decision of the County Court was affirmed. The State Supreme Court held that the law was contrary to the Federal nor the state constitution.

The court will be asked to advance the case to the docket, but it is doubtful if it can be heard before the November election.

Vengeful Chinese Cook Makes 200 Stanford Students Suffer.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Sept. 28.—Suffering from some irritant poison said to have been placed in the food at the University Inn by a vengeful discharged Chinese cook, about 200 Stanford students are today recovering from a night of agony caused by the unknown substance placed in the food. Several students were temporarily confined to the hospital and many others became too weak to leave their rooms in the dormitory this morning. Only the prompt aid rendered by the campus physicians, when they had eaten at the inn were seized with severe cramps about midnight, is believed to have prevented more serious illness. The managers of the inn place now having the food analyzed to determine what was used to carry out the cook's revenge. Symptoms are those of croton oil.

Recluse Visits San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—After a quarter of a century spent in voluntary exile in the South Sea, Thomas Fleming, the original of Stevenson's character, "The Wild Scotchman," arrived here yesterday on the schooner Aetolus. Today, arrayed in garments of a fashion he had scarcely seen before, he proceeded to get acquainted with electric cars and other evidences of an advancing civilization. Fleming is a trading agent at Arne Island, one of the Marshall group, located 150 miles from the nearest white neighbor. When a boy of 15 he left his home in Fifehire, Scotland, to sail the seas, and eventually he settled at Arne, where he has remained for 25 years. He made the acquaintance of Robert Louis Stevenson years ago when the author visited the island. Fleming is accompanied by his wife. He has announced his determination to return when he shall have time of sight-seeing, saying: "Perhaps the life out there is lonely, but somehow it gets into a man's blood, and he stays there."

Raw Oats Will Do for Horses
Only the kind that is thoroughly steam-cooked is fit for the human stomach. You can boil the "rolled oats" you get at the store for hours but it won't cook it.
H-O is cooked for three hours in steam under high pressure and by a patented process. You can't imitate the process in your kitchen. You haven't the cooking machinery. It is the principal reason why H-O is better than every other oatmeal and why everyone is willing to pay a little more for it. It is all nourishment—no hulls, no dirt. Ask your grocer for H-O.
